SCHEDULE 1 – Legislative Authorities and Previous Determinations

General Explanatory Notes

A. Overview of changes to the gazetting of fees and charges

The Department of Justice and Community Safety has implemented a system of notifying all relevant fees and charges in a single determination relating to each Minister rather than the multiple determinations under each individual Act that have been produced in previous years. This system should enable the community to access information on fees and charges applicable to the Department from only two determinations rather than the up to 20 individual determinations that have been in force previously. The two determinations represent the fees which are the responsibility of:

Attorney-General (this determination)	Office of Fair Trading Registrar General's Office Office of the Public Trustee Magistrate's Courts and Tribunals Supreme Court
Minister for Police &amp; Emergency Services	Emergency Services Bureau

B. Citation of Statutory Instruments

This Determination uses on the citation of statutory instruments provisions of Section 52(1)(b)(i) of the Interpretation Act 1967 to revoke the previous determinations for fees and charges. The contents of Section 52 are extracted below for easier reference:

- 52      Citation of statutory instruments
- (1)      A statutory instrument may be cited—
- (a)    by its citation or other name; or
- (b)    by reference to—
- (i)    for an instrument that has been published or notified in the Gazette—the number, date and page or pages of the Gazette in which it was published or notified; or
- (ii)    for any other instrument—the date when it was made, together with a reference to the Act or statutory instrument under which it was made.
- (2)      An instrument made under a Commonwealth Act, or under an instrument made under a Commonwealth Act, may be cited—
- (a)    by its citation or other name; or
- (b)    in another way sufficient in a Commonwealth Act for the citation of such an instrument;
- together with a reference to the Commonwealth (or an abbreviation of the Commonwealth).*
- (3)      An instrument made under an Act or ordinance of a State or another Territory, or under an instrument made under such an Act or ordinance, may be cited—
- (a)    by its citation or other name; or
- (b)    in another way sufficient in an Act or ordinance of the State or other Territory for the citation of such an instrument;
- together with (unless it is a New South Wales instrument applying in the Territory) a reference to the State or other Territory (or an abbreviation of it).*
- (4)      An instrument made under a UK Act, or under an instrument made under a UK Act, may be cited—
- (a)    by its citation or other name; or
- (b)    in another way sufficient in a UK Act for the citation of such an instrument;
- together with (unless it is a UK instrument applying in the Territory) a reference to the United Kingdom (or an abbreviation of the United Kingdom).*

The effect of clause 3 of the determination and Schedule 1 is to revoke each Determination cited in Schedule 1. The Legislative Authority for the revocation for each Legislative Authority under which the Statutory Instrument was made is obtained by reference to the Legislative Authority and Section in Schedule 2 relating to each item number listed in Schedule 1. For example, Clause 3 of this determination will revoke under Regulation 31 of the Adoption Regulations, Determination No 198 of 2000 which was notified on Page 662 of the Australian Capital Territory Gazette No. 26 of 29 June 2000. Similarly, Clause 4 of this determination will determine under the power of Regulation 31 of the Adoption Regulations, that the fees payable for the purposes of the Adoption Regulations are as set out in item 101 of Schedule 3 to this determination.

181	On lodging an application with the Residential Tenancies Tribunal:
	(i) where the amount in dispute is more than $1000 or for a termination and possession order pursuant to Part IV of the Residential Tenancy Act 1997 where a bond has been deposited with the Territory in relation to the tenancy;	$ 92
	(ii) for a termination and possession order pursuant to Part IV of the Residential Tenancy Act 1997 where a bond has not been deposited with the Territory in relation to the tenancy;	$ 174
	(iii) for endorsement of a tenancy agreement by the Tribunal under s10 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997	Nil
	(iv) where the amount in dispute is $1000 or less or in any other case.	$ 46
	Where the application involves more than one of the above matters, the fee payable is the higher of the fees.
	Explanatory Note: The determination sets out the amount of various fees in the Residential Tenancy Tribunal. The application fee for a termination and possession order is higher in respect of a property where no bond has been provided. As the scheme is funded by interest from bond revenue and the retention of fees, the imposition of a higher fee in respect of such a class partially addresses a funding inequity that might otherwise exist. Note that a fee was not previously set in relation to application for endorsement by the Tribunal under s10 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 (see point (iii) above) because the former fee setting power did not extend to applications which did not involve a dispute for the purposes of s73 of that Act. Note that no fee is set by this determination but that if a fee is set in a future year, only one fee would be payable in relation to a series of applications made at the same time and raising the same issue, say, by the lessor and all the tenants in a co-operative for an endorsement. Last Financial Year the fees were $ 90, $ 170, Nil &amp; $45 respectively.
182	On lodging for enforcement a judgment obtained in another court.	$ 51
