A. OPERATIONAL DIRECTIONS FOR A SPORTS BOOKMAKING VENUE WHICH IS NOT LOCATED AT MANUKA OVAL OR BRUCE STADIUM

Definitions In these directions:-

"Auditorium Manager" means the Chief Executive of the ACT Racing Club

"sports bookmaker" is defined within the Race and Sports Bookmaking Act 2001 (the Act).

1 Hours of betting

Sports bookmakers may accept bets on approved sports bookmaking events as follows:-

- 1.1 24 hours per day, Monday to Sunday; and
- 1.2 At the discretion of the Auditorium Manager, sports bookmakers may be required to provide a face to face bookmaking service in the determined sports bookmaking venue for a specified period.
- 2 Hours of attendance
- 2.1 At all times when sports bookmaking is being conducted, each sports bookmaker must attend at the sports bookmaking venue either by way of an agent who holds a sports bookmaking agent's licence, or:
  - (a) in the case of an individual bookmaker in person;
  - (b) in the case of a syndicate by a member of the syndicate; or
  - (c) in the case of a company by a director of the company.
- 2.2 2.1 does not apply to ACTTAB Limited (A.C.N. 071 257 504) whilst its ACT sports bookmaking licence remains in force and it is a 100% ACT Territory Owned Corporation.
- 3 Restrictions
- 3.1 The following restriction applies to sports bookmaking on racing events:-
- 3.1.1 On a day when there is a race meeting being conducted by the ACT Racing Club or by the Queanbeyan Racing Club, sports bookmakers are not permitted to accept face-to-face bets from a member of the public, on any thoroughbred, harness or greyhound event.

- 3.2 The above restriction does not apply to sports bookmakers betting back within the betting auditorium or to licensed race bookmakers fielding at ACT Racing Club meetings betting back with sports bookmakers.
- 3.3 Sports bookmakers are permitted to accept telephone, facsimile or Internet bet transactions on thoroughbred, harness or greyhound events during this time.
- 4 Telecommunications Equipment
- 4.1 Sports bookmakers shall utilise the voice telecommunications equipment made available through the ACT Government InTACT voice network.
- 4.1.1 This restriction does not apply to data services, ISDN lines and other non-voice telecommunication services.
- 4.2 Sports bookmakers shall enter into a separate agreement with InTACT. This agreement shall cover appropriate charging mechanisms and indemnity provisions.
- 4.3 The following restrictions shall apply to the use of telecommunications equipment:-
- 4.3.1 All incoming and outgoing calls will be automatically recorded on the approved voice recording equipment.
- 4.3.2 No betting transactions, including bet backs are to be undertaken using the telecommunications equipment detailed in 4.1.1.
- 4.3.3 In establishing accounts with clients or when accepting bets from new clients, bookmakers shall inform punters that all conversations are recorded.
- 4.5 The following restriction apply to other telecommunications equipment in the approved sports bookmaking venue:-
- 4.5.1 Sports bookmakers, sports bookmakers agents or other employees of sports bookmakers are not permitted to undertake betting transactions, including bet backs, using any other telecommunications device within the approved sports bookmaking venue; and
- 4.5.2 Sports bookmakers, sports bookmakers agents or other employees of sports bookmakers are not permitted to undertake betting transactions, including bet backs, using any other telecommunications equipment within the premises of the ACT Racing Club.

- 5 Ticketing
- 5.1 In respect of face-to-face bets, sports bookmakers are required to issue a ticket to a punter in a form that clearly displays the name of the bookmaker, the details of the bet, the amount of the bet and the amount to be won by the punter.
- 5.2 In the case of bets on thoroughbred, harness or greyhound events, the nature of the bet Win only, Each Way, Place only, Double or Quinella is to be clearly indicated.
- 5.3 Tickets are to be in a form that will ensure that the details printed on the ticket will not deteriorate, fade or become unreadable over the period of the contingency or within a period of 28 days thereafter.
- 5.4 Thermal ticket printers are not permitted to be used in the approved sports bookmaking venue.
- 6 Lost tickets
- 6.1 In the event that a punter loses a sports bookmaking ticket, the sports bookmaker shall, in the first instance, endeavour to determine from the betting records of the sports bookmaker the identity of the backer who made the bet in question.
- 6.2 If the sports bookmaker is unable to identify the transaction and/or the backer, the details of the bet and the name of the sports bookmaker concerned is to be forwarded to the following:-

ACT Gambling and Racing Commission PO Box 214 CIVIC SQUARE ACT 2608

- 6.3 On receipt of the relevant information, the matter shall be investigated and appropriate follow up action initiated.
- 7 Risk Management
- 7.1 In order to manage risk associated with the conduct of sports bookmaking, sports bookmakers are permitted to lay off as follows:-
- 7.1.1 For exposures associated with thoroughbred, harness or greyhound event laying off is permitted with any other bookmaker fielding in Australia who is licensed to accept bets of the relevant kind;
- 7.1.2 For exposures associated with any other approved sports bookmaking event, laying off is permitted to any other bookmaker who is licensed to accept bets of the relevant kind;

- 7.2 Sports bookmakers shall take all steps possible to lay-off with other licensed sports and race bookmakers within the approved sports betting venue before calling outside the venue.
- 8 Audit and Financial Arrangements
- 8.1 The financial year for the sports betting service shall be 1 July to 30 June each year.
- 8.2 By 30 September each year, sports bookmakers shall provide annual financial statements to the ACT Gambling and Racing Commission.
- 8.2.1 In the case of an individual bookmaker who holds a sports bookmaking licence, a statement detailing the trading position of the sports bookmaking business for the year ending 30 June and prepared and certified by a Chartered Accountant, is required.
- 8.2.2 In the case of a syndicate of bookmakers who hold a sports bookmaking licence, a statement detailing the trading position of the sports bookmaking business for the year ending 30 June and prepared and certified by a Chartered Accountant, is required.
- 8.2.3 In the case of a company that holds a sports bookmaking licence, an audited financial statement for the company for the year ending 30 June is required.
- 9 Calculation of Exchange Rates
- 9.1 Where, during any month, bets are accepted in a currency other than Australian dollars, for the purpose of determining the appropriate exchange rate, sports bookmakers shall record the appropriate exchange rate, for each currency, as published each Wednesday in the Australian Financial Review.
- 9.2 At the end of each month, in respect of each currency, sports bookmakers shall add the exchange rates together and divide by the number of Wednesdays in the month to obtain an average exchange rate for each currency for the month.
- 9.3 Sports bookmakers shall apply the average exchange rate, as determined above, to the total amount of bets accepted in the month in each currency, to obtain an Australian dollar equivalent of bets accepted.
- 9.4 In determining the tax on sports bookmaking, in accordance with section 65 of the Act, the appropriate rate shall be applied to the Australian Dollar equivalent as calculated at 9.3.

- 9.5 Evidence of the exchange rate calculations shall be submitted to the Manager Racing, ACT Gambling and Racing Commission each month, along with the sports bookmakers tax returns.
- 9.6 This section does not apply to the calculation of the amount payable to any winner outside Australia. Overseas winners shall be paid in their local currency according to the stated odds.
- 10 Auditorium Manager
- 10.1 The Auditorium Manager is responsible for the administration of the security guarantee arrangements established by the sports bookmakers.
- 10.2 Sports bookmakers are subject to the security guarantee arrangements determined by the Bookmakers Licensing Committee under the Bookmakers Act 1985 immediately before the repeal of that Act. The Auditorium Manager does not guarantee the performance or the liabilities of licensed sports bookmakers.
- 10.3 The Auditorium Manager shall provide, on a monthly basis, a report detailing the operations of the approved sports bookmaking venue.
- 10.4 The Report shall be forwarded to the Manager Racing, ACT Gambling and Racing Commission.
- 11 Financial arrangements
- 11.1 Sports bookmakers shall pay the Auditorium Manager a fee equivalent to an agreed rent per square metre of space occupied at the approved sports bookmaking venue at the Canberra Racecourse.
- 11.2 Sports bookmakers shall pay the Auditorium Manager an amount equivalent to an agreed percentage of turnover, as a management fee.
- 11.3 Sports bookmakers who, in the normal course of their business, use the National Bookmakers Pricing Service shall pay the Auditorium Manager a fee equivalent to an equal share of the cost of access to the National Bookmakers Pricing Service, based on the number of users of the service.
- 11.4 The above fees are payable on the 10th day of the month, or next working day, following the month for which the amount was determined.
- 11.5 In the event that an appropriate fee, as provided by parts 11.1, 11.2 or 11.3, cannot be agreed between the Auditorium Manager and the sports bookmakers, the ACT Gambling and Racing Commission shall determine an appropriate fee.
- 11.6 Decisions of the ACT Gambling and Racing Commission shall be binding on the sports bookmakers and the Auditorium Manager.
