STREET NOMENCLATURE

Division of Dunlop: Australian Inventors, Inventions and Artists

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Buncle Place	John Buncle (1822-1889)	Australian Inventor and Manufacturer. John Buncle established an engineering firm in Melbourne in 1853, supplying the ironwork for several large bridges in Melbourne and other parts of Victoria. The agricultural implements and machinery he invented were significant in the evolution of 'extensive' farming techniques in the nineteenth century. He was twice Mayor of Hotham (North Melbourne).
Chater Place	Mr Gordon Maitland Chater AM (1922-1999)	Australian Performing Artist. Gordon Chater was one of Australia's most dedicated and accomplished performers in drama and review. He was awarded the Order of Australia Medal AM in 1999 for service to the arts as an actor, and to the welfare of the artistic community through the Actors' Benevolent fund.
Dexion Place	Dexion Shelving	Australian Invention. Dexion is a type of bent angle iron with pre-drilled and pre-slotted holes and slots which enable it to be bolted together at many angles and in many positions. Dimitris Comino developed Dexion in the late 1930's. It is now found in factories, scientific laboratories and homes around the world.

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Polwarth Circuit	Polwarth Sheep	Australian Invention. A sheep breed developed in Victoria. It is three quarters Merino and one quarter Lincoln. It is heavily fleeced, carrying dense even wool of good length. The carcass is large and suitable for fat lamb production and mutton. Polwarths originated in the 1880s in three flocks, at Tarndwarncourt, Eeyeuk and Carr's Plains near Colac in the County of Polwarth, Victoria. The name became official in 1919.
Shoobridge Circuit	William Ebenezer Shoobridge (1846-1940)	Australian Inventor. Politician, agriculturalist and innovator. William Shoobridge's study of hydrostatics and engineering led to extensive new irrigation techniques. He developed an irrigation system for hops and apples, which overcame dryness of the deep porous soil.
Shrivell Circuit	Stan Edward Shrivell OBE (1909-1998)	Australian Inventor. Founder of the Inventors Association of Australia. He was awarded an OAM in 1977.
