

Australian Capital Territory

Gas Safety (Fees) Determination 2002

Disallowable instrument DI2002—186

made under the

Gas Safety Act 2000, s67 (Determination of fees, charges and other amounts)

I determine that the fees for the purposes of the Act shall be in accordance with Schedule 1.

Explanatory notes are included at the end of the Schedule, where applicable. Headings and explanatory notes in the Schedule do not form part of the determination.

Simon Corbell
Minister for Planning
21 October 2002

THIS IS PAGE ONE OF SCHEDULE 1 TO DISALLOWABLE INSTRUMENT 186 OF 2002

DETERMINATION OF FEES

Description of Matter for which fee is payable	Fee payable $
Type A appliance worker accreditation	$30
Type A appliance worker practical skills test for the purposes of accreditation ¹	$110
Type B appliance worker accreditation	$30
Type B appliance worker theory examination	$200
Type B appliance worker practical skills test for the purposes of accreditation	$80
Restricted Type B appliance worker accreditation	$30
Restricted Type B appliance worker theory examination	$200
Restricted Type B appliance worker practical skills test for the purposes of accreditation ²	$80

THIS IS PAGE TWO OF SCHEDULE 1 TO DISALLOWABLE INSTRUMENT 186 OF 2002

Note 1: - a licensed gasfitter, advanced gasfitter, journeyman gasfitter, or a person licensed under a scheme approved by the Chief Executive will not be required to undertake a practical skills test for the purpose of accreditation as a Type A appliance worker.