

Australian Capital Territory

Public Place Names 2002, No. 21 (Street Nomenclature – Gungahlin)

Disallowable Instrument DI2002-222

made under the

Public Place Names Act 1989, section 3 (Minister to determine names)

I DETERMINE the names of the public places that are Territory Land as specified in the attached schedule and as indicated on the attached plan.

Lincoln James Hawkins
Delegate of the Minister

Dated the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Farley Lane	Joseph Nicholas Farley (1938-1996)	Sugar Industry. Joe Farley made a significant contribution to the advancement of the Australian Sugar Industry. On retirement from the United States Air Force Joe moved to Australia and began a career with the Australian Sugar Industry. He was appointed general manager of the Australian Cane Farmers Association in 1988. He edited The Australian Sugar Digest, a fortnightly journal, playing an influential but responsible role in the shaping of opinions on sugar production.
Frances Burke Street	Frances Burke MBE (1907-1994)	Textile and Retail Industry. Frances Burke was born in Melbourne, Victoria. Frances became one of Australia's most influential fabric designers and retailers. In 1948 Frances established her famous Melbourne shop New Design selling furnishings, fabrics and domestic utensils designed in a modernist style. Her innovative designs, colours and use of Aboriginal motifs gained her international recognition. She was commissioned to design interiors of hospitals in Melbourne, the governor-general's residence in Canberra, Australian high commissions in Washington and Paris and a resort at Hayman Island. In 1947-48 Frances became a founding member of the Society of Designers for Industry. This organisation evolved into the Design Institute of Australia. Frances was awarded an MBE (1970) and an honorary doctorate (RMIT) in 1987 for her services in design.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page One of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Helen Turner Street	Helen Alma Newton Turner (1908-1995)	Sheep Industry Helen Turner was born 15 May 1908 and educated in Sydney, NSW. Turner was one of the world's leading authorities on sheep genetics and worked with the CSIRO for over 40 years. From 1956-73 she was Senior Principal Research Scientist in the Division of Animal Genetics and led the CSIRO sheep genetics research team. She received the Coronation Medal 1953, the Farrer Memorial Medal 1974, FAO Ceres Medal 1980 and the Rotary Medal for Vocational Excellence in 1985.
James Kirk Street	James Frank Kirk AO AC (1920-1997)	Oil Industry. James Frank Kirk was born in Newcastle, NSW. James left high school at 16 and later spent some time at a local business college. James joined the staff of Esso and by 1951 he was their retail sales manager. In 1977 James was appointed chairman and chief executive of Esso. James worked with the company for nearly 50 years. He was planning to retire when he accepted the position of chairman and chief executive of the Australian Bicentennial Authority. He became a champion of the environment as chairman of the Landcare Australia Limited. James was awarded the AO in 1985 and the AC in 1988.
Kable Lane	Henry Kable (1763-1846)	Sealing and Whaling Industries Born in England, Henry Kable was transported in 1788 for burglary. Two weeks after the first fleet arrived, he and Susannah Holmes became the first couple to marry in Australia. He soon became an overseer and by 1800 he was involved in a successful shipbuilding enterprise with James Underwood. Together they became pioneers of the sealing and whaling industries. By exporting skins and oil to Canton and London and by other trading ventures they soon became vastly wealthy.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page Two of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Maher Lane	Harold Pius Maher (1903-1997)	Milk Industry. Harold Maher was a pioneer of the milk products industry in NSW and the ACT. He instigated the formation of the Reisdale Rural Co-operative Society. His Reisdale cheddar cheese was highly acclaimed because of its excellent quality and unique taste. In 1958 he moved to the ACT at the request of the Canberra Dairy Farmers Co-op Ltd because of his expert knowledge of milk and milk products. He was in charge of the laboratory until his retirement in 1973.
Maria Smith Lane	Maria Ann Smith (1799-1870)	Primary Industry. Cultivated the Granny Smith Apple. Maria Ann Sherwood was born in the Parish of Peasmarsh, Sussex, England. Maria married Thomas Smith in 1818 settling in Beckley for the next 19 years, during which time Maria bore 8 children. In 1838 the Smiths and several other families were recruited by government agents looking for people with agricultural and trade skills which were sorely needed in the colony of New South Wales. They arrived in Sydney in 1838 aboard the Lady Nugent. In 1855 Thomas Smith bought 24 acres in Eastwood, NSW to begin their orchard farm, specialising in seedling apples. In 1868 Maria developed the Granny Smith Apple from the remains of some French crab apples grown in Tasmania. By 1892 many growers were exhibiting 'Granny Smith's'. In 1895 the NSW Department of Agriculture named 'Granny Smith's Seedling' as a suitable variety for export and initiated the first large scale cultivation of the apple at the Government Experimental Station in Bathurst.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page Three of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Noblet Gardens	Max 'Nobby' Noblet (1913-1995)	Nut Industry. Max Noblet transformed his mobile stall along with his famous catch cry "Nibble Nobby's Nuts" to a nationwide nut-processing business. His interest in nuts began during his time serving in the Middle East and New Guinea in World War II. He would roast peanuts on a small sheet of metal. After selling his nut business several decades later he moved his interests into the hotel industry.
Phyllis Ashton Circuit	Phyllis Ashton OAM (1918- 2000)	Entertainment Industry Phyllis Ashton was born in Melbourne, Victoria. Her mother, Dorothea Walker, had performed on the tight-wire the night before she was born. Phyllis' whole life was devoted to the circus. She was known as the Queen of Australian Circus. Along with her husband, Doug Ashton, Phyllis was proprietor of Ashton's Circus. The circus was founded in 1851 by James Henry Ashton and is one of the longest continuous running circus' in the English speaking world. Phyllis and her husband were awarded the medal of the Order of Australia in 1996 for service to the entertainment industry and charitable organisations.
Resch Lane	Edmund Resch (1847-1923)	Brewing Industry Born in Germany, Edmund Resch arrived in Australia in 1863. After mining in Victoria until 1871 he moved to NSW where, with a mate, he became the first to strike copper at Cobar. In 1877 he bought a cordial factory at Wilcannia. Business flourished and in 1879, with his brother Richard, he opened the Lion Brewery. By 1885 they had branches in two other towns and had built an enviable reputation as skilful brewers. In 1895 Edmund moved to Sydney and purchased another brewery. By 1904 Reschs ales, beers and stout had captured much of the State's market and Edmund had become extremely wealthy.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page Four of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Risson Street	Sir Robert Risson (-1992)	Transport Industry. Sir Robert was chair of the Melbourne Metropolitan Tramways Board from 1949 to 1970. In this role he was instrumental in saving Melbourne's tram services from being overtaken by bus services. His considerable influence during a difficult period in Melbourne's transport history led to the continued operation of this unique public transport system in Melbourne. The City's trams are now seen by many as an icon, which is far removed from their image during the 1950s and 1960s.
Rubinstein Street	Helena Rubinstein (1870-1965)	Cosmetic Industry. Helena Rusinstein was born in Cracow, and came to Australia in 1894. In 1902 she opened her first salon in Melbourne and began marketing face creams based on formulas she had learned in Europe. She made 12,000 pounds in the first two years and with remarkable speed established an international business empire based on "cold cream and dreams". In 1957 she established the Helena Rubinstein Travelling Art Scholarship in Australia and donated generously to various causes. At her death her business empire was said to be worth more than $60 million.
Stride Lane	Douglas William Stride AO (1911-1995)	Banking Industry. Douglas Stride was Managing Director of former Commercial Bank of Australia 1971-1978. He worked for the bank for 50 years. After retiring from the bank he was appointed chairman of the Australian Dried Fruits Corporation in January 1979. He was a very generous benefactor of many organisations helping needy people. In 1978 he was awarded the Order of Australia for his distinguished services in banking.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page Five of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

SCHEDULE

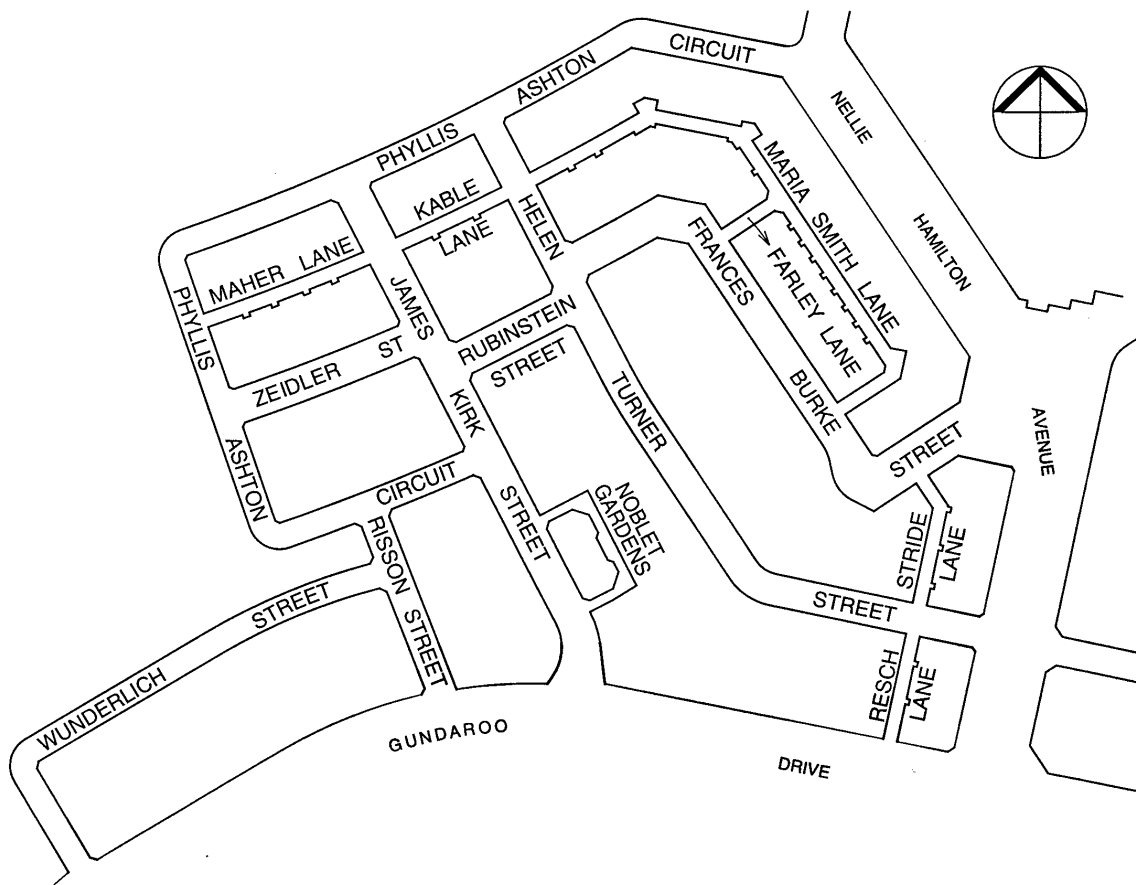

PUBLIC PLACE NAMES 2002, NO. 21 (Street Nomenclature - Gungahlin)

Division of Gungahlin: Australian Industrialists and Aspects of Industry, Gungahlin Pioneers

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Wunderlich Street	Ernest Julius Wunderlich (1859-1945)	Construction Industry Ernest Wunderlich was born in Islington, England. He arrived in Sydney in 1885. Ernest was chairman and a director of Wunderlich Ltd from its formation in 1908 until his death in 1945. The firm, which had branches in all States and in Wellington, New Zealand, specialised in terracotta products, at first all imported but from 1910 also produced at the Wunderlich works at Brunswick, Melbourne.
Zeidler Street	Sir David Zeidler CBE FAA FTSE (1918-1998)	Chemical Industry and industrial research. David Zeidler was a pioneer of Australia's chemical industry and industrial research. His distinguished career included managerial posts with the CSIRO in research, development, dyes and fabrics and seven years as company Chairman and Managing Director with ICI Australia. Sir David recognised the enormous potential petrochemicals offered ICI Australia. The company was one of the first in the world to make PVC from ethylene. It also became a world leader in developing ethylene oxide, Australian explosives and water-based paints. After retirement, Sir David served on boards of a wide range of leading business, industry, research and community organisations. With Sir Ian McLennan of BHP he set up the Australian Academy for Technical Sciences for leaders in science, technology and industrial development, enabling contact with overseas counterparts. In 1971 he was awarded a CBE for services to industry, science and education, and in 1980 was made a Knight Bachelor, for services to industry.

.....
Delegate's Initials

This is Page Six of Six of the Schedule to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.

DIVISION OF GUNGAHLIN

.....
 Delegate's Initials

This is the Plan annexed to the Instrument signed by the Delegate of the Minister on the 9th day of December 2002.