Schedule 1 - CIT's 2007 Schedule of Fees and Concessions:

The 2007 standard fee schedule for public access courses and programs is as follows:

- A Registration Fee of $6.60 per registered 'billing point' (includes the 10% fee increase from $6.00)

Billing points are calculated as follows:

- The 'billing hours' value currently associated with each course in the CATALOG module is divided by five (5).
- The result of this division is rounded-up to the next whole number to determine the billing points for that program.
- For very short courses a minimum billing point value of two (2) will be applied.

The following examples show how billing points and fees are calculated for some typical CIT courses:

Example 1: A course with 254 billing hours:

Divide billing hours by five	=	$254/5$
	=	50.8
Billing Points	=	51
Multiplied by $6.60 per billing point	=	$336.60

Example 2: A course with 6 billing hours:

Apply the minimum value to billing hours	=	10
Divide adjusted billing hours by five	=	$10/5$
	=	2.0
Billing Points	=	2
Multiplied by $6.60 per billing point	=	$13.20
