SCHEDULE

Public Place Names (Ainslie) Determination 2007 (No 1)

Division of Ainslie

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Keith Tournier Enclosed Oval	Keith Tournier (1928-2006)	Community service to sport in Canberra. Keith Tournier was born in Geelong, Victoria. On leaving school he trained as an A Grade Electrician. He was a member of the Civilian Military Force for over 20 years. He joined the regular Army in 1971 remaining until his retirement in 1983 as Warrant Officer Grade 1. Keith served in Vietnam 1971-72. After his retirement he worked at General Electric Corporation and then HPM Industries Pty Ltd using his past electrical knowledge until 1994. Keith was heavily involved in sport and sporting clubs, including the Majura Junior Soccer Club (from 1981), the North Canberra Gungahlin Cricket Club and the Northern Suburbs District Cricket Club. He was involved in both the junior and senior level. He gave his time tirelessly fulfilling all roles possible from President to Team Manager. For the last decade of his life his main passion was the preparation and upkeep of the Majura Enclosed Oval turf pitch. He could be found nearly every day throughout the summer working on the pitch or oval, manning the canteen, cleaning the canteen and change rooms and making sure the magpies had their water bowl full on a hot summers day. His passion to work without any recompense or recognition inspired many members of the North's cricket club and the various other ACT sporting associations he was involved with to contribute more of their time to make sure the sports future was in safe hands for the children of tomorrow. The name Keith Tournier Enclosed Oval replaces the oval's former name, the Majura Enclosed Oval, which was not gazetted.
