Public Place Names (Harrison) Determination 2011 (No 3)

Division of Harrison: Natural geographic features of Australia

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Otway Street	Cape Otway Victoria	Natural geographic feature A cape in south Victoria within the Great Otway National Park. It is a major geographical feature of the south coast of Australia. Cape Otway was named after Captain William Albany Otway in 1800 by Royal Navy Lieutenant James Grant, who surveyed the Victorian coast in the H.M.S Lady Nelson. The Cape Otway lightstation, situated on the sea cliffs where Bass Strait and the Southern Ocean meet, was first lit in 1848. In 1994, the introduction of satellite navigation systems caused the 'old light' to be turned off and replaced with a small solar powered beacon. The historic buildings have spectacular views and are a popular tourist attraction. Latitude: 38° 51'S Longitude: 143° 30' E
