Greater than $5,000	$114.00

Notes:

1. The assessment of an application means the consideration or analysis of an application to determine its eligibility under the Act, but does not include the registration or recording of the receipt of an application or its associated fee.
2. A trade promotion lottery is in general terms a promotion activity by a business enterprise that involves a lottery with prizewinners determined by any means that includes an element of chance or a mixture of chance and skill. A prize includes anything of value or benefit.
