

Motor Accident Injuries Levy Determination 2023 (No 1)*

Disallowable instrument DI2023–88

made under the

Motor Accident Injuries Act 2019, section 490 (Determination of motor accident levy)

1 Name of instrument

This instrument is the Motor Accident Injuries Levy Determination 2023 (No 1).

2 Commencement

This instrument commences on the day after its notification and applies to all motor accident injuries (MAI) policies issued under the Motor Accident Injuries Act 2019 that commence on or after 1 July 2023.

3 Determination of levy

- (a) I determine that the motor accident levy shall be $14.00 to apply to all vehicle classes (except the vehicles identified under clause (b) below).

The levy shall be $14.00 for a 12 month MAI policy.

The levy shall be $7.00 for a 6 month MAI policy.

The levy shall be $3.50 for a 3 month MAI policy.

- (b) I determine the motor accident levy shall be $3.50 set out under this part to apply to vehicles registered under the ACT's Veteran, Vintage Historic (VVH) Concessional Registration Scheme.

The levy shall be $3.50 for a 12 month MAI policy.

The levy shall be $1.70 for a 6 month MAI policy.

The levy shall be $0.80 for a 3 month MAI policy.

4 Payment of Levy

The motor accident levy to which this determination applies is payable in respect of each MAI policy for a vehicle (other than a trailer) registered by the Road Transport Authority, or in respect of a trader's plate issued by the

*Name amended under Legislation Act, s 60

Road Transport Authority under the provisions of the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Regulation 2000, made under the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1999.

The motor accident levy, payable to the MAI Commission under the Motor Accident Injuries Act 2019, is collected by the Road Transport Authority on behalf of the MAI Commission. The levy collected by the Road Transport Authority is required to be remitted to the MAI Commission.

5 Refund of levy

Where a MAI policy is cancelled on the cancellation of the registration of the motor vehicle to which the policy relates, the levy will be refunded on a proportionate basis according to the number of whole months remaining on the MAI policy at the date of cancellation.

Chris Steel MLA
Special Minister of State
17 May 2023