NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Rinaldi Court	Fiori Rinaldi AM (1929–2015)	Lawyer, academic and legal scholar Fiori Rinaldi AM graduated with a Master of Arts from the University of Western Australia in 1954. Majoring in philosophy, he later became a lecturer at the University of Queensland. While working there, he studied law part-time and completed his degree in 1963. He was admitted to the Queensland Bar in 1968. In 1969, he became a lecturer in law at the Australian National University. Rinaldi made a significant contribution to the development of Australian criminal law and sentencing through the creation of the Australian Criminal Reports in 1979. The publication was the first time that criminal legal decisions had been comprehensively reviewed and collated. Rinaldi served as its sole editor up to Volume 147, then co-editor until Volume 165. Alongside this work and driven by his passion for reform in criminal and sentencing law, he continued to teach and publish books and commentary. Proud of his Italian heritage, he was an active member of the Dante Alighieri Society, serving as president of its Canberra branch, 1969-1970. In 2002, he was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia for his service to the judiciary, legal profession and Italian community.
