

Emergencies (Fees) Determination 2026

Disallowable instrument DI2026–94

made under the

Emergencies Act 2004, s 201 (Determination of fees)

1 Name of instrument

This instrument is the Emergencies (Fees) Determination 2026.

2 Commencement

This instrument commences on 1 July 2026.

3 Determination of fees

The fee payable for a matter stated in Schedule 1, column 2, is the fee stated in column 3 for the matter.

4 Payment of fees

- (1) The fee payable for items 255-274 and 296 is payable to the Territory by the person requesting the service.
- (2) The fee payable for items 279-287 is payable to the Territory by an automatic fire alarm network provider.
- (3) The fee payable for item 289 and 291 is payable to the Territory by the occupier of the building.
- (4) The fee payable for items 294-298 is payable to the Territory by the person receiving the service.
- (5) A fee for items 272-274, 279-287, 289 and 291 is payable as a lump sum only, unless otherwise agreed by the Chief Officer ACT Fire & Rescue Service.
- (6) A fee for items 258, 260.1, 261.1, 262, 264-265 have been removed as the services are no longer offered by ACT Fire & Rescue.

5 Fee exemptions

A fee for items 294, 295 and 297 is not payable:

- (a) by residents of the ACT, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania or Northern Territory who, at the time the service was provided, held a current concession card issued under Commonwealth Government's Services Australia provisions; or

- (b) by ACT school students who are injured or become ill at school or during an approved school activity, regardless of time of day or day of week; or
- (c) by an entitled person, as defined in the Children and Young People Act 2008; or
- (d) for ambulance services provided at the scene of an incident involving a motor vehicle on a road or road related area in the ACT, or where the vehicle has sufficient connection with the ACT as per part 4, section 14 of the Road Transport (Third-Party Insurance) Regulation 2008; or for individuals who are assessed by ambulance personnel at the request of any of the following emergency services; ACT Fire & Rescue, ACT Rural Fire Service, ACT State Emergency Service, ACT Policing, Australian Federal Police, NSW Ambulance Service, NSW Police, Fire & Rescue NSW, NSW Rural Fire Service, NSW State Emergency Service, or Aviation Rescue Fire Fighting Service (ARFFS). This exemption will only apply if ambulance transport does not occur; or
- (e) by persons who have been arrested and/or are in lawful custody; or
- (f) by a person who claims to be a victim of domestic or family violence; or
- (g) by a person who claims to be a victim of sexual assault; or
- (h) by a person who claims to be a victim of a violent crime; or
- (i) patients placed on an Emergency Apprehension Order under Sec 80 of the Mental Health Act 2015, or where a patient meets the criteria under Sec 80 (a) and (b) but comes voluntarily to an appropriate health facility; or
- (j) by a person treated by the Police Ambulance & Clinician Early Response team; or
- (k) by a person who receives any treatment or transport for the provision of palliative care, including voluntary assisted dying; or
- (l) where ambulance services were provided to a person who was deceased, and/or was unable to be resuscitated, while in the care of ACT Ambulance Service officers, or where a person is known or suspected to have been declared deceased within the Emergency Department; or
- (m) where the ambulance services were provided to a person in relation to performing a good Samaritan act.

6 Fee waivers

- (1) A fee for items 289 and 291 may be waived where the Chief Officer ACT Fire & Rescue Service considers the unintended alarm:
 - (a) could not have been prevented by reasonable maintenance of the alarm system; or
 - (b) was activated by a circumstance beyond the reasonable control of the "owner" as defined in the Emergencies Act 2004.
- (2) A fee for items 294, 295, 297 and 298 may be waived where the Chief Officer, ACT Ambulance Service is satisfied that exceptional personal or other circumstances apply to a person to whom ambulance services were provided.

7 Definitions

In this instrument:

alarm system means a fire indicator panel or group of fire indicator panels at the same location, which in the opinion of the Chief Officer ACT Fire & Rescue Service, is one system for the purposes of ACT Fire & Rescue Service attendance and unintended alarm management.

exceptional personal or other circumstances for clause 6 – see Schedule 2.

fire means a fire, heat or ignition source however created and includes smoke.

relevant concession card includes any of the following cards:

- (a) a current health care card issued under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cwlth); or
- (b) a current pensioner concession card issued under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cwlth);
- (c) a current pensioner concession card issued under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (Cwlth) or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (Cwlth);
- (d) a current gold card (otherwise known as the 'Repatriation Health Card–For All Conditions' that evidences a person's eligibility, under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (Cwlth) or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (Cwlth), to be provided with treatment for all injuries or diseases.

road, road related area and motor vehicle – see the Road Transport (General) Act 1999, dictionary.

unintended alarm means an alarm from the alarm system of an automatic fire alarm network provider where the alarm was caused by a malfunction or design flaw with the alarm system or any other action that led to the activation of the alarm which could have been reasonably prevented such that the attending ACT Fire & Rescue Service resource finds no fire connected with the alarm or finds that the fire connected with the alarm should not have activated the alarm.

8 Revocation

This instrument revokes DI2025-110, the Emergencies (Fees) Determination 2025.

SCHEDULE 2

EXCEPTIONAL PERSONAL OR OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES

(clause 6)

1. For the purposes of clause 6 (2), exceptional personal or other circumstances apply to a person to whom ambulance services were provided if the Chief Officer, ACT Ambulance Service, is satisfied any of the following situations exist:
 - a. A charity, financial aid organisation, hospital or other social aid organisation provides evidence demonstrating that exceptional personal circumstances apply to the person and that requiring the person to pay would cause unreasonable financial hardship to the person;
 - b. The ambulance services were provided to a person aged under 18 years following an accident or other event that resulted in the person being the only survivor in their immediate family;
 - c. A person had applied for, but not yet received, a relevant concession card prior to receiving the ambulance services, and the application for the card was subsequently approved (noting that holders of relevant concession cards are not charged for ambulance services);
 - d. The ambulance service was provided to a person who is undergoing extensive and life-saving medical treatment and who as a result is reliant on assistance from government or not-for-profit organisations in order to meet their basic costs of living and the requirement to pay for the ambulance services would cause unreasonable hardship;
 - e. Any other circumstances exist that in the opinion of the Chief Officer should see the fee waived.
 - f. A person has applied for a financial hardship waiver, where ACT Shared Services Debt Management have assessed the legitimacy of the applicant's financial hardship claim, with regard to their income, essential living expenses, liabilities, assets and any emergency-related financial impacts, and the evidence confirms hardship.
