

Proposed subclause 12(3) is to the effect that for the duration of the period of a saved licence (which only licenses the sale of X films), the licensee will not commit an offence if he or she copies X films. This recognises that some current licensees are also already in the business of copying X films, an activity which does not, presently, require a licence.