Public Place Names (City) Determination 2007 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2007-289

made under the

Public Place Names Act 1989— section 3 (Minister to determine names)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Public Place Names Act 1989 provides for the naming of divisions and public places and, in particular, section 3 empowers the Minister to determine in writing, published in the ACT Legislation Register, the name of a division or public place.

Pursuant to Section 254A of the Legislation Act 2001, the Minister has delegated the power under the Public Place Names Act 1989 to name a division or public place to the Chief Planning Executive, ACT Planning and Land Authority.

This instrument determines the name of the road in the Division of City as specified in the attached schedule and associated plan. The theme for the naming of public places in City is ACT Pioneers, Capital Cities and Aboriginal Words.

This determination allows for distinction to be made between Ainslie Avenue, on one side of the Canberra Centre, and Ainslie Place on the other.

The number of women and men after whom divisions or public places have been named in the last 10 years, and whether the names of women are well represented, have been considered as required by the Public Place Names Act 1989.

This instrument commemorates one man.
