SEAT OF GOVERNMENT (ADMINISTRATION)

AMENDMENT ORDINANCE (NO. 2) 1982

The purpose of the Seat of Government (Administration) (Amendment) Ordinance (No. 2) 1982 is to make new provision for the administration of certain Ordinances formerly administered by the Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs.

The office of Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs ceased to exist on 7 May 1982. It is proposed that Ordinances formerly administered by the Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs should now be administered by the Attorney-General.

Clause 1 is the short title.

Clause 2 provides for the citation of the Seat of Government (Administration) Ordinance 1930 as the Principal Ordinance.

Clause 3 omits section 10(4B). That sub-section provided for the Ordinances the titles of which were specified in Part 5 of the Second Schedule to be administered by the Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs.

Clause 4 amends the Second Schedule to the Principal Ordinance so as to insert in Part I, being the titles of the Ordinances which are specified to be administered by the Attorney-General by virtue of sub-section 10(2), the following Ordinances -

- . Business Names Ordinance 1963;
- . Companies Ordinance 1962;
- . Corporate Affairs Commission Ordinance 1980; and
- . Marketable Securities Ordinance 1971.
