ISSUED BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE
MINISTER OF STATE FOR HEALTH

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY
PUBLIC HEALTH (PROHIBITED DRUGS) (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE 1977

This Ordinance amends the Public Health (Prohibited Drugs) Ordinance 1957 to allow the Commissioner, Capital Territory Health Commission, to authorise the possession of a specified prohibited drug for research purposes and enables the Commissioner to impose such restrictions on its use as he deems necessary to ensure that the prohibited drug is used solely for research purposes.
