Work Health and Safety (Work Safety Council Acting Employee Representative) Appointment 2012 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2012–51

made under the

Work Health and Safety Act 2011, s 2.3 (Membership)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This instrument appoints Mr Neville Betts as an acting member of the Work Safety Council (the Council) to represent the interest of employees commencing the day after notification until 13 September 2013.

The appointment is made under section 2.3 (a) of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (the WHS Act). Section 2.2 (1) (a) of the WHS Act gives the Council the function of advising the Minister on matters relating to work safety and workers' compensation.

The appointee is not a public servant and this instrument makes an appointment to which the Legislation Act 2001 (the Legislation Act), division 19.3.3 applies. Accordingly, under section 229 of the Legislation Act, the instrument is a disallowable instrument.

This appointment has been approved by the Minister and the Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety has been consulted in accordance with section 228 (Consultation with appropriate Assembly committee) of the Legislation Act.

Acting members of the Council can fulfil the role of the member for whom they are appointed as an acting member. This would only occur when the member cannot exercise the functions of their position as provided for in section 209 of the Legislation Act. This might include short absences of that member due to illness or other unavailability or if a permanent vacancy arises, for no longer than 12 months.
