

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

LAND (PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENT) ACT 1991

DETERMINATION OF CLASSES OF APPLICATIONS REVOCATION 2003

Disallowable instrument DI2003—89

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Section 229A of the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991 provides for the determination of classes of applications to be referred by the Minister to the Commissioner for Land and Planning for decision.

The Planning and Land (Consequential Amendments) Act 2002, which commences on 1 July 2003, repeals all of the provisions in the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991 relating to the Commissioner for Land and Planning. That office is to be abolished, and its functions will be absorbed by the Planning and Land Authority constituted under the Planning and Land Act.

Determination No 227 of 1997, notified in Gazette No S281 of 24 September, 1997, determined classes of applications to be referred to the Commissioner.

This instrument, which commences on 6 June 2003, revokes Determination No 227 of 1997.