GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT (SECURE LOCAL JOBS) AMENDMENT

REGULATION 2019 (No 1)

Outline of the Regulation

The purpose of this Regulation is to amend the Government Procurement Regulation 2007 to provide for an additional category of excluded services or works on the commencement of schedule 1 of the Government Procurement (Secure Local Jobs) Amendment Regulation 2018 (the SLJ Amendment Regulation). Schedule 1 of the Government Procurement (Secure Local Jobs) Amendment Regulation 2018 is a delayed commencement schedule that commences on the commencement of schedule 1 of the Government Procurement (Secure Local Jobs) Amendment Act 2018 (the Amendment Act). The Amendment Act, on delayed commencement of schedule 1, will apply the secure local jobs requirements to territory-funded work that is primarily for labour (other than excluded services or works) that have an estimated value equal to or greater than $200,000. Excluded services or works under the SLJ Amendment Regulation are excluded from being classified as territory-funded work and prescribed by reference to ANZSIC divisions.

The Government Procurement (Secure Local Jobs) Amendment Regulation 2019 (No 1) will extend the excluded services or works in schedule 1 to an additional category of ANZSIC relating to hospital and medical and other health care services. The intention of these amendments is to allow closer consideration of these two ANZSIC classes to ensure that the appropriate occupations within these categories are captured by the secure local jobs requirements, in line with its objectives.

Human Rights Considerations

Not applicable.
