

Australian Capital Territory

Territory Records (Advisory Council) Appointment 2019 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2019–217

made under the

Territory Records Act 2002, s44 (Appointed members of council)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Territory Records Act 2002 provides for the establishment and functions of the Territory Records Advisory Council.

Section 44 of the Territory Records Act 2002 outlines the requirements for appointment to the Council, section 45 pertains to the appointment of the Chair and Deputy Chair of the Council and section 46 outlines the terms of appointment of appointed members.

Professor Marnie Hughes-Warrington is an expert in historiography and has held academic positions in the fields of history, philosophy and education for over 20 years. She has extensive practical appreciation of the importance of records access and management in historical research and expertise in the ethics surrounding information management in a digital age. She is author, co-author, contributor and editor of a number of publications including seven books. Professor Hughes-Warrington is a member of the World History Association and International Network for Theory and History.

Professor Hughes-Warrington has been appointed to represent community associations interested in historical or heritage issues. There are no additional prerequisites for appointment to the Territory Records Advisory Council. Professor Hughes-Warrington is appointed for a three year term.

The appointee is not an ACT Public Servant.