

Australian Capital Territory

Territory Records (Advisory Council) Appointment 2020 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2020–261

made under the

Territory Records Act 2002, s44 (Appointed members of council)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Territory Records Act 2002 provides for the establishment and functions of the Territory Records Advisory Council.

Section 44 of the Territory Records Act 2002 outlines the requirements for appointment to the Council, section 45 pertains to the appointment of the Chair and Deputy Chair of the Council and section 46 outlines the terms of appointment of appointed members.

Dr Tehri Nurmikko-Fuller has strong credentials in the digital humanities and in working with cultural and collecting institutions. She has academic expertise in issues related to ethical information gathering, curation, storage and access in the digital age. Dr Nurmikko-Fuller's professional experience extends to working in universities, international museums and specialist institutions involving the maintenance of digital archives, including the Black Cultural Archives, London. She has extensive research experience and is author and co-author of several papers and articles.

Dr Nurmikko-Fuller has been appointed to represent community associations interested in historical or heritage issues. There are no additional prerequisites for appointment to the Territory Records Advisory Council. Dr Nurmikko-Fuller is appointed for a three year term.

The appointee is not an ACT Public Servant.