

Territory Records (Advisory Council) Appointment 2020 (No 4)

Disallowable instrument DI2020-264

made under the

Territory Records Act 2002, s44 (Appointed members of council)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Territory Records Act 2002 provides for the establishment and functions of Territory Records Advisory Council.

Section 44 of the Territory Records Act 2002 outlines the appointment requirements to the Council, section 45 pertains to the appointment of the Chair and Deputy Chair of the Council and section 46 outlines the terms of appointment of appointed members.

Mr Keith Young has over fifteen years of experience in event and arts administration, planning and development, governance and risk management, policy development, indigenous affairs, legislation, project management and representation. Mr Young has held various senior management roles at the National Archives of Australia, including Director, Preservation and Digitisation; Acting Director, Strategic Planning and Governance; Director, Legislation Review. Mr Young has held various leadership public sector leadership positions within both ACT Government and Commonwealth Government, including as Official Secretary and Deputy Administrator Norfolk Island.

Mr Young has been appointed for a second term to represent organisations interested in public administration, governance or public accountability. There are no additional prerequisites for appointment to the Territory Records Advisory Council. He is appointed for a three year term.

The appointee is not an ACT Public Servant.