

Government Procurement (Non-Public Employee Member) Appointment 2025 (No 3)

Disallowable instrument DI2025–247

made under the

Government Procurement Act 2001, section 33 (Board members—appointment)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Government Procurement Act 2001 (Act) establishes the Government Procurement Board (Board), with the responsibility for reviewing and making recommendations on procurement issues, procurement proposals and activities undertaken by territory entities subject to the Government Procurement Regulation 2007 (Regulation).

Section 33 of the Act relevantly enables the Minister to appoint members and prescribes that a non-public employee member must not be a public employee. Section 15 of the Regulation relevantly prescribes that a member must be appointed for a term of not more than three years.

In accordance with the Act, the Minister has appointed Hannah Bodilly as a part-time non-public employee member for a period of three years, commencing on the date specified in the appointment instrument.

As the appointee is not a public employee, division 19.3.3 of the Legislation Act 2001 applies. Under section 229 of the Legislation Act 2001, the appointment instrument is a disallowable instrument.

This appointment has been approved by the Minister for Finance. The Legislative Standing Committee on Public Accounts and Administration has been consulted in relation to this appointment in accordance with section 228 of the Legislation Act 2001.
