EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Territory Records Act 2002 provides for the establishment and functions of the Territory Records Advisory Council.

Section 44 of the Territory Records Act 2002 outlines the requirements for appointment to the Council, section 45 pertains to the appointment of the Chair and Deputy Chair of the Council and section 46 outlines the terms of appointment of appointed members.

Mr Sean Hogan is of Wonnarua descent and is a registered architect in the ACT and NSW and Director of Typology Architecture. An A+ member of the Australian Institute of Architects, Mr Hogan has more than 20 years of experience working at the intersection of architecture, place, memory and First Nations cultural knowledge. Key projects include the Mogo Local Aboriginal Land Council Community Centre and Art Gallery and the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children's Commissioner office. Mr Hogan is developing a Design Within Country service and an Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property (ICIP) protocol to support ethical governance of cultural knowledge. He is undertaking Doctoral research at the University of Canberra that focuses on place, memory and the built environment. Mr Hogan's extensive strategic, governance and recordkeeping experience supports a strong understanding of cultural heritage and public archives.

Mr Hogan has been appointed to represent entities interested in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander heritage. Mr Hogan is appointed for a three year term.

The appointee is not an ACT Public Servant.

The Legislative Assembly Standing Committee for Public Accounts and Administration was consulted and did not object to this appointment.
