OZONE PROTECTION ACT 1991

DISPOSAL OF HALON FROM DECOMMISSIONED SYSTEMS

The Ozone Protection Act 1991 (the Act) was recently amended. As from the 1 January 1996 it will be an offence under the Act to:

- a) operate equipment, or an installation, that utilises halon except where the Pollution Control Authority has issued an exemption certificate; or
- b) deposit halon extracted from equipment, or an installation, at a place other than at a place specified by the Pollution Control Authority.

Pursuant to subsection 9B(2) of the Ozone Protection Act 1991, I specify that the place at which halons are to be deposited is the DASCEM Halon Bank, Store 1, DAS Distribution, Dairy Road, Fyshwick, ACT 2690.

Dated this Swerth day of December 1995
