PERIODIC DETENTION CENTRE

Developing Accredited Curriculum for COMMUNITY BASED CORRECTIONS

In line with national objectives, a competency based training program is being adopted by ACT Corrective Services

Appropriately qualified and skilled companies or individuals are now sought to continue work on behalf of ACT Corrective Services

Below is a brief description of the work required during the 1996-97 financial year

BELCONNEN REMAND CENTRE: The curriculum for a certificate in Adult Custodial Care has been accredited at level 3. The applicant selected to continue this work must first develop and implement an assessment system that recognises existing skills of staff through the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process. The successful applicant must be suitably qualified, and would deliver accredited training for new custodial officers, as well as supplementary training for existing officers.

PERIODIC DETENTION CENTRE: The curriculum for periodic Detention Centre will be based on the Adult Custodial Care Certificate. The successful applicant will be required to develop six additional training modules. Training against this curriculum is not part of the contract.

COMMUNITY BASED CORRECTIONS: Draft competencies for Community Based Corrections will soon be validated. The successful applicant would be required to develop curriculum for national accreditation. Training using this curriculum is not part of this contract.

- The successful applicant/s will have a demonstrated capacity to deliver high quality standard of training, curriculum development and creation and organisation of an assessment system including recognition of prior learning and knowledge of correctional issues.

- Applicants are required to provide a copy of their resume, references, and examples of work of a similar nature that has been completed.

Expressions of interest are required to be lodged by COB Friday 20 September 1996
