ACT HOME AND COMMUNITY CARE PROGRAM

The ACT Home and Community Care (HACC) Program is a joint Commonwealth and State/Territory program that funds services for frail older people, younger people with a disability, and their carers, to enable them to remain living in their own homes in the community

The Department of Health and Community Care, is seeking tenders from organisations to provide a range of Integrated in Home Support Services and Respite Services

Tender No 13

Integrated in home support, is a service delivery model being developed in the ACT. The aim of integrated in home support is to provide a comprehensive and integrated range of basic support and maintenance services which promote independence, as well as being flexible and responsive, and tailored to meet individual needs

Services which may be included under the umbrella of an integrated in home support service are activities of daily living such as home help or personal care (or both), assistance with food preparation and nutrition/eating, shopping, banking, home maintenance, transport, and social support and respite care

$250,000 is available for allocation on a recurrent basis

Tender No 14

The Department is seeking to purchase respite services which aim to meet respite needs in a manner which is appropriate to each consumer and may involve support being provided in a range of settings and times, and may be planned or provided in response to an urgent or unexpected need

$250,000 is available for allocation on a recurrent basis
