1. DEFINITIONS

In these rules unless inconsistent with the context:

- (a) "Device" means a machine or computer capable of randomly selecting 20 numbers from a pool of 80 numbers
- (b) "Draw" means the random selection of 20 numbers from the device for any game of Keno.
- (c) "Entry Form" means a form, issued by the casino operator and similar to Diagrams 'A' or 'B' in these rules, that may be completed by a player wishing to wager on Keno
- (d) "Keno Day" means a period of not more than 24 hours during the casino's operating times measured from the commencement of Keno gaming and concluding at the end of that session of Keno gaming as determined by the casino operator, identified by the calendar day on which that period commenced.
- (e) "Keno Runner" means an appropriately licensed staff member authorised to transfer entry forms, receipt tickets, wagers, and winnings on behalf of a player, to and/or from a writer terminal
- (f) "Keno To Go" means a receipt ticket valid for 50 or more consecutive games.
- (g) "Keno Writer" means an appropriately licensed staff member authorised to operate a Keno writer terminal.
- (h) "Major Prize" means a win of $200 or more on a single way in any one game of Keno
- (i) "Receipt Ticket" means the ticket issued by the writer terminal.
- (j) "Special Entry" means a form of entry where the player has nominated to enter an alternative schedule of prizes and which attracts prizes paid in accordance with rules 18.2, 18.3, 18.4 or 19
- (k) "Standard Entry" means a wager made on the choice of 1 to 15 numbers from the 80 numbers provided in the device and may include entry into a jackpot

- (l) "Wager" means the amount charged to enter a Keno game
- (m) "Voucher" means a document issued by a writer terminal as evidence of:
 - i) a deposit lodged by a player for future gaming; or
 - ii) a receipt for winning receipt ticket(s).
- (n) "Way" means an individual selection of numbers that are to be played on a receipt ticket
- (o) "Writer Terminal" means the machine used for processing of entries, issuing receipt tickets and processing claims.

2. THE BANK

No person other than the Casino Operator shall have any share or interest in the bank, unless authorised by the Casino Surveillance Authority.

3. EQUIPMENT

- 3 1 The game of Keno shall be played with the use of a computer system, known as the Keno Computer, which shall contain hardware and software components, necessary for the conduct of the game of Keno, and be of a type approved by the Casino Surveillance Authority.
- 3 2 Where a mechanical device is used, eighty balls, numbered 1 to 80 inclusive, shall be secured in the device in the presence of a Casino Surveillance Authority representative. The device and ball set shall be approved by the Casino Surveillance Authority.

4. ELIGIBILITY FOR INCLUSION IN A GAME OF KENO

For a player's entry to be eligible for inclusion in a game of Keno a receipt ticket must be issued to the player and the details of that ticket recorded and stored in the Keno computer.

5. ENTRY AND ENTRY FORMS

- 5.1 An entry into a game of Keno may only be made through a writer terminal.
- 5.2 It is the responsibility of the player to ensure that the particulars recorded on a receipt ticket are those required by the player.
- 5.3 Particulars recorded on the receipt ticket that are inconsistent with the particulars stored in the Keno computer, shall be determined in accordance with the information recorded in the Keno computer.
- 5.4 The entry form shall be retained by the Keno Writer but shall be returned to the player on request.
- 5.5 Two Entry Forms shall be provided for player use

(a) Mark Sense Entry Form (in the same form as Diagram 'A')

This form shall be printed with squares containing the numbers 1 through 80, and squares for the selection of game value, number of games and game type. Selections shall be made by placing a cross (X) in the appropriate box. Choices shall be offered on:

- i) wager value per game,
- ii) number of games;
- iii) special prize tables; and
- iv) numbers selected.

(b) Way Bet Entry Form (in the same form as Diagram 'B')

This form shall be printed with squares containing the numbers 1 through 80, and squares for the selection of game value, number of games and game type. Selections shall be made by placing a cross (X) in the appropriate box. Choices shall be offered on.

- i) wager value per game;
- ii) number of games;
- iii) special prize tables,
- iv) numbers selected; and
- v) ways to be played.

5.6 Receipt Ticket (in the same form as Diagram 'C')

Upon acceptance of the entry form, a receipt ticket shall be issued to the player

6. WAGERS

6.1 Wagers shall be accepted by the payment of cash, the tender or transfer of an approved type of voucher (similar to Diagram 'D'), the tender of chips or the entry of a winning receipt ticket.

6.2 The minimum wager for a game shall be $1 00 and increments shall be in multiples of $1 00 per game to a maximum of $9,999 for a single receipt ticket issued, unless

- (a) a multi-game receipt ticket is played involving 50 to 99 games, whereby the player shall be charged for one game fewer than the number of games requested,
- (b) a multi-game receipt ticket is played involving 100 or more games, whereby the player shall be charged for two games fewer than the number of games requested, or
- (c) a way ticket is played in which case the following minimum wagers shall apply
 - i) 50 cents per way for 4 or more ways,
 - ii) 20 cents per way for 20 or more ways, or
 - iii) 10 cents per way for 50 or more ways

Increases over these minimum wager values may only be made in units of 10 cents up to $1 00 after which increases may only be made in units of $1 00

6.3 Wagers may be made on the following receipt ticket types:

- (a) Jackpot Ticket

A ticket whereby the player participates in a select ticket type in a progressive prize schedule and may be required to pay a premium to do so

(b) Quick Pick Ticket

A ticket whereby the writer terminal randomly selects a set of numbers after the player has specified how many numbers are required.

(c) Mystery Quick Pick Ticket

A ticket whereby the writer terminal randomly selects a set of numbers and the amount of numbers to be played.

(d) Special Entry Ticket

A ticket whereby the player may elect to play in one of three alternative prize schedules in accordance with rules 18.2, 18.3, 18.4 or 19

(e) Bonus Prize Ticket

A bonus prize approved by the Casino Surveillance Authority may be offered by the Casino Operator depicting a set prize for a specifically chosen ticket type and/or value in addition to the normal amount payable for that entry

(f) Standard Entry Ticket

A ticket whereby the player wagers on the choice of 1 to 15 numbers from the 80 numbers provided in the device and may include entry into the jackpot.

(g) Way Ticket

Refer to rule 5.5(b)

(h) Set Bet Ticket

An entry whereby a player chooses a way ticket from a catalogue of pre-selected ticket types. These entries may either be "Fixed", that is the numbers illustrated must be played, or "Random", in which case the numbers illustrated are changed for a selection chosen by the writer terminal.

7. JACKPOTS

- 7.1 If an entry qualifies for a jackpot, the minimum entry shall be $1 00 per way. Increments shall be in $1 units over the minimum wager.
- 7.2 A guaranteed jackpot minimum shall be available on each jackpot ticket type.
- 7.3 A total of 25% of all amounts wagered by players on a jackpot ticket shall be added to the Jackpot Prize Pool, Secondary Prize Pool or Reimbursement Pool, in a ratio approved by the Casino Surveillance Authority.

8. CANCELLED TICKETS

- 8.1 An entry may be cancelled by the player at any time during the game for which the receipt ticket is issued, up to the time the first number is drawn by the device
- 8.2 Other than Keno To Go receipt tickets, cancellations on multi-game receipt tickets are allowed for unplayed games subject to rule 8.1
- 8.3 A Keno To Go receipt ticket may only be cancelled before the first number is drawn by the device for the first game for which the receipt ticket was issued
- 8.4 Where the games nominated on the receipt ticket are not run on the Keno Day on which the wager was accepted, no cancellation of the remaining games shall be permitted the following Keno Day or any Keno Day thereafter

9. THE DRAW

- 9.1 Twenty numbers shall be drawn by the device
- 9.2 The draw shall be carried out after each game of Keno has closed.
- 9.3 Drawing of all games shall take place in such a manner that players may view a representation of each number as it is drawn. The results of the draw shall be clearly displayed to the players
- 9.4 At the close of each game and before each draw, players may be notified that a particular game has closed.

10. IRREGULARITIES

- 10.1 In the event of an equipment malfunction or an error in the recording or display of the drawn numbers, the 20 drawn numbers shall be the official record, unless those numbers were drawn by a random number generator in which case the numbers recorded by the Keno computer shall be the official record.
- 10.2 If fewer than 80 numbers are available to be selected by the device at the commencement of the draw, that draw shall be void and a new draw commenced.
- 10.3 Any numbers drawn prior to a malfunction shall be deemed to be valid and the draw shall continue from the last valid number drawn prior to the malfunction
- 10.4 Under a system using a mechanically operating ball drawing device:
- (a) In the event that a broken, cracked, split or dented ball is identified during the draw, that draw shall be declared void. A re-draw will take place after the affected ball set has been removed from the ball drawing device and replaced with a full ball set in the presence of a Government Casino Inspector.
 - (b) If any drawn ball falls back into the ball drawing device prior to the completion of the draw, that number shall not be considered a selected number (unless redrawn), and further ball(s) shall be drawn (if necessary by manually rotating the ball drawing device) until 20 balls have been selected.
 - (c) In the event that a ball or balls spill from the ball drawing device, that draw shall be declared void. In such circumstances further use of that ball drawing device will be subject to rectification of any malfunction and the approval of a Government Casino Inspector.
 - (d) In the event of a stoppage of the ball drawing device during the drawing of a game, the device shall be operated manually until such time as the draw for that game has been completed. In the event of no alternative functional device being available, further games may be drawn manually until such time as the malfunction has been rectified.

11. WINNING WAGERS

11.1 An entry ticket shall be declared a winning wager where

- (i) the selection of a number or numbers by a player matches a number or numbers drawn by the device; and
- (ii) the matching number or numbers correspond to a prize in accordance with section 18 of these rules.

11.2 A player may only win a prize in respect of an entry in the game which corresponds with the game identified on the receipt ticket

11.3 Subject to rules 11.1, 11.2, and 17.6, a prize shall only be paid on a winning receipt ticket, provided that the information printed on the receipt ticket corresponds with the information stored on the Keno computer

11.4 Winning receipt tickets presented for payment shall be retained by the Casino Operator after payment.

12. PAYMENT OF PRIZES

12.1 All winning wagers shall be paid out in cash except that a major prize may be paid by cheque, or a combination of both cash and cheque

12.2 The maximum payout on any individual way played on a single receipt ticket in a game (excluding jackpot receipt tickets) shall be $50,000, regardless of the amount wagered on that receipt ticket.

12.3 The maximum aggregate liability for all major prizes in a single game, excluding jackpot prizes, shall be $50,000. Where necessary, payouts will be determined by pro-rating

12.4 If pro-rating is required in accordance with rule 12.3, no major prize shall be reduced below $200

12.5 For the purpose of pro-rating, a winning receipt ticket share in the aggregate payout shall be proportionate to the amount which, but for the process of pro-rating, would have been won

- 12.6 If there is more than one jackpot winner in a game, the prize pool for that jackpot shall be shared in proportion to the number of winning receipt tickets and the amount wagered on each of those receipt tickets.
- 12.7 All jackpot entries up to but not including 100% matches shall be paid in accordance with rule 18.1 and shall also be subject to pro-rating.
- 12.8 For the purposes of a way receipt ticket, each way entered shall be treated as an individual receipt ticket and the win amount be paid accordingly.

13. UNCLAIMED PRIZES

- 13.1 Details of prizes and vouchers shall remain accessible from the Keno computer for twelve (12) months after the Keno Day to which they relate. After this period, prizes and vouchers may be paid only after submission of a completed Unclaimed Prize Claim Form (in the same form as Diagram 'E') forwarded by the player to the Casino Operator.
- 13.2 After a period of twelve (12) months from a win being recorded but remaining unclaimed, that unclaimed prize shall be available for payment as a bonus prize, addition to a jackpot prize, or any other 'return to player' initiative approved by the Casino Surveillance Authority.
- 13.3 Unclaimed vouchers shall not be subject to rule 13.2
- 13.4 Rule 13.2 shall not affect the recovery of any legitimate prize which may be claimed by the submission of a completed Unclaimed Prize Claim Form.
- 13.5 Prizes resulting from an Unclaimed Prize Claim Form shall be paid by cheque.

14. LOST OR MUTILATED RECEIPT TICKETS

If a receipt ticket is submitted by a player for processing and is unable to be read by the writer terminal or the Keno writer, or the receipt ticket has been lost, a claim for payment may be made by the submission of a completed Unclaimed Prize Claim Form. Payment shall be made subject to the approval of the Casino Surveillance Authority

15. KENO RUNNERS

Acceptance of a wager by a Keno runner does not constitute an official entry until such time as a receipt ticket has been issued. If a wager is not placed prior to the drawing of the current or open game, a Keno runner shall endeavour to place the wager taken from a player(s) prior to the next available game.

16. GAME CLOSURE

16 1 The hours of gaming will be determined by the Minister

16 2 Subject to rule 16 1, the Casino Operator may close Keno during the approved hours of gaming, provided that prior notice of closure of Keno is given to the players and the Casino Surveillance Authority

17. GENERAL PROVISIONS

17 1 A player, either alone or in concert with any other person, shall not use or have in his/her possession any electronic, electrical or mechanical device that is capable of recording, projecting or analysing the outcome or changing probabilities on any game in the casino

17 2 Where the Casino Operator is satisfied that a player has contravened any rule of the game, the operator may

- (a) void any wager made by the player, and
- (b) exclude that player from further participation in the game.

17 3 The Casino Operator may invalidate the outcome of a game if

- (a) the game is disrupted by civil commotion, fire, riot, brawl, robbery, an Act of God, or
- (b) the player and/or a Keno Writer commits any fraudulent act

17 4 Where the outcome of a game is invalidated, the Casino Operator shall refund all wagers made by players for that particular game

- 17.5 A player who disputes any decision by the Casino Operator shall be advised of his/her right to consult a Government Casino Inspector.
- 17.6 The Casino Operator's decision shall be final in any dispute arising from, or not covered by these rules, subject to a review by the Chief Casino Inspector, if requested
- 17.7 Players are not permitted to have side wagers against each other.
- 17.8 A copy of these rules shall be made available, upon request

18. SCHEDULE OF PRIZES

19. TOURNAMENT PLAY

- 19.1 In addition to the rules set out in the preceding paragraphs, this section shall apply in the case of tournament play.
- 19.2 The conditions of entry and of play for each tournament shall be subject to prior approval by the Casino Surveillance Authority
- 19.3 Where the conditions of entry and of play are inconsistent with the rules in the preceding sections, the conditions of the tournament entry and play shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency and only during the playing of the tournament
- 19.4 An entry fee to enter the tournament may be charged. The Casino Operator shall be permitted to retain up to 10% of the total entrance fee from each competitor whether an entrant withdraws or not. The balance of the entry fees shall be apportioned as prize money in accordance with the conditions of entry and of play
