

No. S59, Thursday 16 March 1995

Referendum (Machinery Provisions) Act 1994

DECLARATION OF RESULT OF REFERENDUM

On 18 February 1995 the Proportional Representation (Hare-Clark) Entrenchment Bill 1994 (the entrenching law) was submitted to a referendum of the electors of the Territory in accordance with the provisions of the Referendum (Machinery Provisions) Act 1994.

In accordance with paragraph 14(4)(b) of the Referendum (Machinery Provisions) Act 1994 I hereby set out the number of votes counted in the referendum and declare the result of the referendum.

Number of votes approving of the entrenching law:	109 666
Number of votes opposed to the entrenching law:	59 017
Number of informal ballot papers:	7 190
Number of electors on the electoral roll for the referendum:	195 389

Number of electors whose votes were admitted to the scrutiny but whose names were omitted from the electoral roll by reason of official error:	1 570
Total number of electors entitled to vote at the referendum:	196 959
Proportion of electors approving of the entrenching law:	55.68%

According to the results of the referendum set out above, a majority of the electors entitled to vote at the referendum approved the entrenching law.

Phillip Green
Electoral Commissioner

16 March 1995