The 'defined period' means the period commencing on the date the interim Register is notified (other than in a newspaper) as required by section 60 of the Act and ending at the end of the earlier of –

- (a) the day before the date a Heritage Places Register prepared in consideration of the interim Register comes into effect under section 29(6) or section 30A(5) of the Act; or
- (b) 3 years from the date this notice is notified on the ACT Legislation Register.

Subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1989, a person whose interests in relation to land are affected by the above decision may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) for a review of the above decision of the Heritage Council to include a provision in the interim Heritage Places Register.
