Purpose

- To detail relevant considerations in judging when to permit or restrict a prisoner's access to the media.
- To outline standard practice for Corrections Officers to adopt when media inquiries are received.

Authority

Legislation

Public Sector Management Act 1994, section 9

Policy

1 Principles

- 1.1 Corrections Officers employed by ACTCS are subject to section 9 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994. This requires that ACT public service employees are not to disclose, without lawful authority, any information acquired by him or her as a consequence of his or her employment. ACT public service employees may not make a comment that he or she is not authorised to make where the comment may be expected to be taken to be an official comment.
- 1.2 ACTCS is responsible for managing prisoners safely, effectively and humanely.
- 1.2.1 Due to the complexity of this role, ACTCS may, from time-to-time, attract media and public attention.
- 1.2.2 It is therefore necessary to ensure that any, and all, interactions with the media are characterised by personal integrity, and honesty.

- 1.3 Prisoner access to the media may be restricted when there is a reasonable likelihood that safety and security of a correctional centre, ACTCS staff, other prisoners, or members of the community (including victims) may be jeopardised.

2 Prisoner's access to the media

- 2.1 A prisoner, amongst other entitlements, is entitled to send and receive mail (subject to the Prisoner Mail Policy and Procedure), the reasonable use of a telephone (subject to the Prisoner Telephones Policy and Procedure), and to receive visitors (subject to the Visits Policy and Procedure).
- 2.2 A prisoner may be permitted to make contact with the media via mail, or telephone.
- 2.3 A prisoner may only be permitted a visit with a member of the media with the approval of the Superintendent. In determining whether to allow or restrict a prisoner's access to the media in-person the Superintendent should consider issues such as:
- ensuring the prisoner has a reasonable right to freedom of expression.
  - the purpose and nature of the visit; and
  - the public interest in the importance of the matter being open to debate.

3 Restricting a prisoner's access to the media

- 3.1 The Superintendent may restrict or deny access to the media if there is reasonable suspicion that access would:
- undermine security or good order at the correctional centre;
  - revictimise a victim and/or their families; or
  - cause community distress.

4 Receiving media enquiries

- 4.1 All media enquiries or requests received by a Corrections Officer must be processed in accordance with the Media and Public Relations Procedure.
