Purpose

To outline the policy for a system which enables prisoners to purchase consumable items.

Authority

Legislation

Corrections Management Act 2007, section 14.

Policy

Principles

Prisoners may purchase items through the buy-up system subject to having sufficient funds.

Weekly buy-up

Prisoners are allocated a maximum amount which they may spend on the weekly buy-up. This amount is dependant upon the prisoner's accommodation area.

The arrangements for buy-ups will be displayed on the noticeboards in prisoner accommodation areas and broadcast regularly over the multi-screen TV system. Buy-up lists will be displayed on the noticeboards in prisoner accommodation areas.

Activities buy-up

In addition to the items on the weekly buy-up list, there will be a list of approved items that prisoners may purchase as an 'activities buy-up'. Items available on the activities buy-up are dependant upon the prisoner's accommodation area.

The activities buy-up list is located on noticeboards in each accommodation area. The activities buy-up list includes items such as some electrical goods and clothing.

Activities buy-ups will be held at regular intervals. There is no maximum amount that can be spent on an activities buy-up, subject to the prisoner having sufficient funds.

Suspension of buy-up privileges

Prisoners may have their buy-up privileges suspended in accordance with the Discipline Policy and Procedure.

Corrections Health staff may recommend the restriction of a prisoner's buy-up privileges if the prisoner is considered "at risk" and the buy-up would be likely to place them further at risk of harm. This ban would be item specific. Where this occurs, Corrections Health are to forward this advice to the Deputy Superintendent (in writing). A case note must be made on JOIST detailing the medical request.

Adding or deleting items from the buy-up list

The Superintendent may review the items available on the buy-up list. Items may be added or deleted following consideration of the impact that the item may have on the good order and security of the AMC.
