Note: The documents mentioned in section 2(1):

- (a) have been given to the Minister for approval under section 69(2) of the Act; and
- (b) can also be viewed online at: www.act.gov.au/recommendedvariations.

3 Effect of the draft plan variation

(1) Section 72 of the Planning and Development Act 2007 (the Act) applies to the Draft Variation. This means that the Territory, the Executive, a Minister or a territory authority must not, during the defined period, do or approve the doing of anything that would be inconsistent with the Territory Plan if it were varied in accordance with the Draft Variation.

(2) In this section:

defined period means the period starting on the day this notice is notified (the Notification Day) and ending on the earliest of the following days:

- (a) the day the corresponding plan variation, or part of it, commences;
- (b) the day the corresponding plan variation is rejected by the Legislative Assembly;
- (c) the day the Draft Variation, or the corresponding plan variation, is withdrawn under section 68(1)(b) or section 76(2)(b)(v) of the Act;
- (d) the period of 1 year after the Notification Day ends.

4 Obtaining further information

Further information about the Draft Variation can be obtained through email correspondence with the Territory Plan Section of the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate at Terrplan@act.gov.au. A reference to the Draft Variation should be included in any email.
