

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 2 of 1917.

AN ORDINANCE

To provide for the Administration of the "Explosives Act 1905" of the State of New South Wales in the Territory for the Seat of Government.

WHEREAS by section six of the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 it is enacted that subject to that Act, all laws in force in the Territory for the Seat of Government immediately before the date of the commencement of the Act shall, so far as applicable, continue in force until other provision is made :

And whereas by section four of the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 it is enacted that where any law of the State of New South Wales continues in force in the Territory by virtue of section six of the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909, it shall, subject to any Ordinance made by the Governor-General, have effect in the Territory as if it were a law of the Territory provided that, with respect to any such law, the Governor-General may by Ordinance declare that it shall, while the Ordinance remains in force, but subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, have effect in the Territory, and continue to be administered by the authorities of the State, as if the Territory continued to form part of the State :

And whereas the Explosives Act 1905 of the State of New South Wales was in force in the Territory immediately before the commencement of the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 :

And whereas it is desirable that the Explosives Act 1905 of the State of New South Wales should have effect in the Territory and continue to be administered in the Territory by the authorities of the State as if the Territory continued to form part of the State :

Be it therefore ordained by Sir Arthur Lyulph Stanley, Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies, acting as the Deputy of the Governor-General in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive

C.14616.

Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909, and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Explosives Ordinance 1917.

Administration of Explosives
Act 1905
(N.S.W.) in the Territory.

2. The Governor-General may arrange with the Governor in Council of the State of New South Wales for the administration, in the Territory, of the Explosives Act 1905 of that State by the authorities of that State as if the Territory continued to form part of that State, and, thereupon, that Act shall, while the arrangement remains in force, have effect in the Territory, and continue to be administered by the authorities of that State, as if the Territory continued to form part of the State.

Dated this 27th day of November One thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

A. L. STANLEY,
Deputy of the Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

P. McM. GLYNN,
Minister of State for Home and Territories.
