

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

✓ No. 12 of 1927.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend the Bank Holidays Ordinance 1927.

BE it ordained by the Deputy of the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910, as follows:—

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Bank Holidays Ordinance (No. 2) 1927. Short title and citation.

(2.) The Bank Holidays Ordinance 1927 is in this Ordinance referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3.) The Principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Bank Holidays Ordinance 1927.

2.—Section three of the Principal Ordinance is amended— Holidays.

- (a) by inserting in sub-section (1.) after the word “shall” the words “subject to this section”; and
- (b) by omitting sub-section (2.) and inserting in its stead the following sub-sections:—

“(2.) Whenever any of the days mentioned in the last preceding sub-section, except the twenty-fifth day of April, falls upon a Sunday, the next following Monday shall be observed as a holiday in all banks.

“(3.) Whenever Christmas Day falls on a Sunday the following Monday and Tuesday shall be observed as holidays in all banks.

“(4.) Whenever the twenty-sixth day of January, or the anniversary of the birthday of the Sovereign, falls upon any day other than a Sunday or a Monday, the next following Monday shall be observed as a holiday in all banks.”

Dated this second day of June One thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

SOMERS,

Deputy of the Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR,

Minister of State for Home and Territories.
