

[Extract from Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. 19, dated 24th February, 1927.]

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 3 of 1927.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend the Provisional Government Ordinance 1911-1926.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910, as follows :—

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Provisional Government Ordinance (No. 2) 1927. Short title and citation.

(2.) The Provisional Government Ordinance 1911-1926 as amended by the Provisional Government Ordinance 1927 is in this Ordinance referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3.) Sub-section (3) of the Provisional Government Ordinance 1927 is repealed.

(4.) The Principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Provisional Government Ordinance 1911-1927. State magistrates, jailers, and police.

2. Section four of the Principal Ordinance is amended by adding at the end thereof the words “, and the members or officers of the police force of the State when doing or performing anything in relation to the Territory shall be deemed to constitute the police force of the Territory”.

3. After section four of the Principal Ordinance, the following section is inserted :— Powers of police of other States.

“4A.—(1.) The Governor-General may, by order, authorize any member of the police force of any State (other than the State of New South Wales) to exercise and perform such powers, functions and duties in the Territory as are specified in the order.

“(2.) All such members of the police force of a State who are authorized under this section to exercise and perform powers, functions and duties in the Territory, shall have all such powers, privileges, and immunities, and be liable to all such duties and responsibilities, as are conferred or imposed upon them or as are possessed by any constable or other officer of police either under the common law or by virtue of any law in force in the Territory.

C.870.

“(3.) All such members of the police force of a State shall, while in the Territory, be subject to the same control and discipline as members of the police force of the Territory, or to such control and discipline as the Governor-General by order determines.

“(4.) This section shall not apply to any member of the police force of a State unless and until the Governor of that State has approved of its application to that member.”

Dated this twenty-third day of February, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven,

STONEHAVEN,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

T. W. GLASGOW,
Minister of State for Home and Territories.
