Magistrates Court Rules 1932

in force under the

Court Procedures Act 2004

Republication No 10

Effective: 1 July 2006 – 31 December 2006

Republication date: 1 July 2006

Last amendment made by A2005-60
(republication for updated endnotes)

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Magistrates Court Rules 1932, in force under the Court Procedures Act 2004 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 July 2006. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 1 July 2006.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Magistrates Court Rules 1932

in force under the

Court Procedures Act 2004

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of rules

These rules are the Magistrates Court Rules 1932.

2 Certain references to Act or the Act

A reference to Act or the Act, without mentioning a particular Act, is a reference to the Magistrates Court Act 1930.

3 Terms defined in Magistrates Court Act

A term defined in the Magistrates Court Act 1930 has the same meaning in these rules.

3A References to rules of Magistrates Court

A reference to the rules of the Magistrates Court is a reference to the rules under the Court Procedures Act 2004 applying in relation to the Magistrates Court.

Part 2 Title of proceedings

4 Form of heading and conclusion of notices

The general form of heading and conclusion of all notices, orders and writs in relation to proceedings to enforce a judgment given or entered, or an order made, shall be in accordance with the appropriate form approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004.

Part 4 Criminal proceedings

7 Examination of witnesses—application of Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules

The Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, section 202 (Order for examination of witnesses) applies in relation to proceedings (criminal proceedings) on an information for an offence against a law in force in the ACT as if a reference to proceedings were a reference to criminal proceedings.

8 Affidavits—application of Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules

The following provisions of the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004 apply in relation to affidavits for use in a proceeding under the Magistrates Court Act 1930, chapter 3 (Criminal proceedings):

- section 203 (Time for swearing affidavits)
- section 204 (Form of affidavit)
- section 205 (Irregularity in affidavit)
- section 210 (Affidavit by illiterate or blind person)
- section 211 (Affidavit by person unable to understand English)
- section 212 (Annexures and exhibits to affidavits)
- section 213 (Alterations in affidavits)
- section 214 (Scandalous or offensive matter).

9 Warrants to which Act, div 3.4.4 applies—Act, s 73A

The Magistrates Court Act 1930, division 3.4.4 (Committal and recognisance) applies in relation to a person for whom a warrant has been issued under the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004.

10 Ex parte order may be set aside

- (1) If a conviction or order is made when one party does not appear, the party in whose absence the conviction or order was made may apply to the court for an order that the court set aside the conviction or order.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to a conviction or order made in the absence of a defendant who has entered a plea of guilty in accordance with the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 116D (Pleas to prescribed offence) and has not, before the entry of the conviction or the making of the order, withdrawn his or her plea.
- (3) If, in his or her absence, a conviction is entered or an order is made against a person who has duly been served with a summons in accordance with the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 116B (Service of summons for prescribed offence) and—
 - (a) that person did not return the notice of intention to defend form or the plea of guilty form to the registrar before the day when he or she was required by the summons to appear before the court; or
 - (b) the court, if it has previously, in the absence of that person, adjourned the hearing under the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 116E (3) (Procedure if plea of guilty entered), is satisfied that a notice under that subsection did not come to his or her attention before the conviction is entered or the order made; or
 - (c) the court is satisfied that the notice referred to in the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 116F (Procedure if notice of intention to defend given) or section 116H (Restricted penalties under pt 3.7) did not come to his or her attention before the date fixed under that section for the hearing of the matter;

the court, on the application of that person, shall set aside the conviction or order.

- (4) In any case other than an application to set aside a conviction or order referred to in subsection (3), the court may set aside the conviction, order or judgment on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the court thinks just.
- (5) If, under this section, the court has set aside a conviction, the court may set aside a warrant issued under the Magistrates Court Act 1930 in consequence of the conviction.
- (6) If, under this section, the court has set aside a conviction or order, the court may, on service of such reasonable notice on the parties as the court directs, proceed to hear and determine the matter, or may adjourn the hearing to the time and place the court thinks fit.
- (7) If the court has adjourned the hearing of a matter under subsection (6), the court shall direct such notice as the court thinks fit of the adjourned hearing to be given to the parties.

11 Ex parte conviction may be set aside on application by informant

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a conviction is entered or an order is made against a person charged with an offence and the conviction is entered or the order is made in the absence of that person, the informant may apply to the court for an order that the court set aside the conviction or order.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to, or in relation to, a conviction entered or an order made in the absence of a defendant who has entered a plea of guilty in accordance with the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 116D (Pleas to prescribed offence) and has not, before the entry of the conviction or the making of the order, withdrawn his or her plea.
- (3) If an application to set aside a conviction or order is made under this section, the court may set aside the conviction or order on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the court thinks just.

- (4) If, under this section, the court sets aside a conviction or order, the court shall dismiss the information and set aside any warrant issued under the Magistrates Court Act 1930 in consequence of the conviction.

12 Informant may request witnesses to attend

- (1) The informant may, by letter sent by a form of post that requires a signature on receipt, request a person to appear as a witness at the hearing of an information.
- (2) The letter shall—
- (a) set out the time and place for the hearing; and
 - (b) be accompanied by an undertaking to appear for the signature of the person and return to the informant by the date specified in the undertaking; and
 - (c) be accompanied by a form to be completed by the person to claim his or her reasonable costs and expenses of attendance at the hearing.

13 Power of magistrate to subpoena witness

- (1) If it appears to a magistrate that a person who is likely to give material evidence at the hearing of an information will not voluntarily appear at the hearing, the magistrate shall issue a subpoena requiring the person to appear before the court at the time and place specified in the subpoena to give that evidence.
- (2) In considering whether a person will voluntarily appear at a hearing or not, a magistrate may take into account any response by the person to any request made of the person to appear.

14 Service of subpoena on witness

- (1) A subpoena may be served on a witness—
- (a) personally; or

- (b) by sending it to the witness's last-known place of residence or employment by a form of post that requires a signature on receipt; or
 - (c) by leaving it with a responsible adult at the witness's last-known place of residence or employment.
- (2) The subpoena shall be accompanied by—
- (a) an undertaking to appear for the signature of the person and return to the court by the date specified in the undertaking; and
 - (b) a form to be completed by the person to claim his or her reasonable costs and expenses of attendance at the hearing.
- (3) Service of a subpoena on a witness may be proved by the oath of the person who served it or by affidavit.
- (4) In this section:
subpoena includes summons.

15 Witnesses entitled to claim expenses

- (1) Any notice (however described and whether written or oral) requiring a person to appear as a witness at a hearing shall be accompanied by a form to be completed by the person to claim his or her reasonable costs and expenses of attendance at the hearing.
- (2) A person is not entitled to refuse to comply with such a notice because it was not accompanied by that form.

16 Production of documents before magistrate

- (1) If a magistrate has authority to subpoena any person as a witness, he or she shall have the like authority to require and compel him or her to bring and produce, for the purposes of evidence, all documents and writings in his or her possession or power, and to proceed against him or her, in case of neglect or refusal so to do, in the same manner as in case of neglect or refusal to attend or refusal to be examined.

- (2) A person shall not be bound to produce any document or writing not specified or otherwise sufficiently described in the subpoena, or that he or she would not be bound to produce on a subpoena in the Supreme Court.

17 Setting aside subpoena

- (1) A subpoena issued under section 13 (Power of magistrate to subpoena witness) or section 16 (Production of documents before magistrate) may be set aside, wholly or in part, by the court on the application of the person to whom the subpoena is addressed.
- (2) An applicant shall serve a copy of the application on the party to the proceedings on whose request the subpoena was issued.

18 Ascertainment of capacity to pay fine

- (1) The registrar may orally examine a person who is liable to pay a fine—
- (a) as to the person's property or other means of satisfying the fine; and
 - (b) generally as to the person's financial circumstances.
- (2) An examination—
- (a) shall be taken on oath administered by the registrar; and
 - (b) may be conducted in open court or in chambers, as the registrar directs.
- (3) If at the time set down (whether originally or on an adjournment) for the examination of a person to whom an examination summons is directed—
- (a) the person fails to attend before the registrar; and
 - (b) the registrar is satisfied that—
 - (i) the person has been served with the summons in accordance with the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, section 297 as applied by section 20; or

- (ii) if the examination has been adjourned—the person has been notified of the date, time and place fixed for the examination;

the registrar must issue a warrant in accordance with the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, section 303 as applied by section 20 for the apprehension of the person to whom the summons was directed.

- (4) A person apprehended under such a warrant shall be brought before the registrar for the purposes of examination under subsection (1).
- (5) In this section:

fine—see the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 146.

19 Garnishee orders and writs of execution

- (1) If the registrar is satisfied that a fine defaulter has the capacity to pay an outstanding fine, the registrar may—
 - (a) make a garnishee order under the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, section 319 as applied by section 20 in relation to the outstanding fine; or
 - (b) issue a writ of execution under the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, section 343 (2) and (3) as applied by section 20 against goods of the fine defaulter to enforce the outstanding fine.
- (2) If the registrar issues a writ of execution in respect of 2 or more outstanding fines payable by a person, the writ operates in respect of the amount of each outstanding fine separately.

- (3) In this section:

fine defaulter—see the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 146.

outstanding fine—see the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 146.

20 Application of Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules, pt 19

- (1) The purpose of this section is to ensure, as far as practicable, that—
 - (a) a fine defaulter may be examined under section 18 (Ascertainment of capacity to pay fine) and dealt with in the same way as a judgment debtor in relation to whom an examination summons has been issued; and
 - (b) a garnishee order under section 19 has the same effect as a garnishee order in relation to a judgment debtor; and
 - (c) a writ of execution under section 19 has the same effect as a writ of execution against goods of a judgment debtor.
- (2) For subsection (1) (a), the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, division 19.3, other than sections 294, 298, 300, 302, 305 and 306, applies so far as applicable, with the necessary changes.
- (3) For subsection (1) (b), the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, division 19.5, other than sections 317, 321 and 331, applies so far as applicable, with the necessary changes, and in particular, as if—
 - (a) sections 319 (1) (c) (i) and (e) (i) and 340 (2) (a) were omitted; and
 - (b) a reference in sections 320 and 329 (1) to the judgment creditor were a reference to the registrar; and
 - (c) the words ‘may order the registrar to repay’ were omitted from section 325 (8) and ‘shall repay’ were substituted; and
 - (d) the reference in section 330 to an application in accordance with section 123 were a reference to an application to the registrar; and
 - (e) sections 332 and 334 (1) did not refer to the judgment creditor.

- (4) For subsection (1) (c), the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, division 19.6, other than sections 344, 355, 357, 358, 359, 377 and 378, applies so far as applicable, with the necessary changes, and in particular, as if—
- (a) section 343 (1) were omitted; and
 - (b) the reference in section 346 (3) to a writ that issues out of the Magistrates Court included a reference to a writ issued by the registrar; and
 - (c) section 363 (2) (a) and 363 (3) were omitted; and
 - (d) section 376 (2) were omitted.
- (5) The provisions applied by subsections (2), (3) and (4) have effect as if, in addition to any other necessary changes—
- (a) a reference in such a provision to an examination summons were a reference to an examination summons under applied section 295; and
 - (b) a reference in such a provision to a garnishee order were a reference to a garnishee order under section 19 (1) (a); and
 - (c) a reference in such a provision to a writ of execution were a reference to a writ of execution under section 19 (1) (b) or applied section 333; and
 - (d) a reference in such a provision to a bailiff included a reference to the sheriff or a deputy sheriff under the Supreme Court Act 1933; and
 - (e) a reference in such a provision to a judgment debt were a reference to an outstanding fine; and
 - (f) a reference in such a provision to a judgment debtor were a reference to a fine defaulter; and
 - (g) a reference in such a provision to a judgment creditor, other than in applied section 320 or 329 (1), were a reference to the Territory; and

- (h) a reference to the court in such a provision, other than in applied section 349, were a reference to the registrar.
- (6) If, but for this subsection, a power of the registrar under a provision applied by subsection (2), (3) or (4) would be dependent on action being taken by the judgment creditor, the registrar may act on his or her own initiative in the exercise of the power.
- (7) The registrar shall not make an order under a provision applied by subsection (2), (3) or (4) for the payment of a fine or administrative fee by instalments.
- (8) If—
- (a) a provision of the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004 applies in relation to a matter; and
 - (b) a provision of other rules or a determination under the Court Procedures Act 2004 also applies in relation to the matter; and
 - (c) the provision of the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004 is applied to a corresponding matter by subsection (2), (3) or (4);
- a reference in this section to the applied provision mentioned in paragraph (c) includes a reference to the provision mentioned in paragraph (b).
- (9) A reference in this section to an applied provision by number is a reference to the provision so numbered of the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004, as applied by subsection (2), (3) or (4).
- (10) In this section:
- fine defaulter*—see the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 146.

21 Witnesses expenses

The amount of costs that may be awarded under the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 244 (Award of costs in criminal matters) in respect of the attendance of a person who attends for the purpose of giving evidence before the court is the amount the court directs in accordance with the scale and conditions applicable in relation to persons who attend as witnesses before the Supreme Court.

Part 6 Australian register of judgments

31 Entry of Australian judgments in register

A judgment required to be registered in the court under the Service and Execution of Process Act 1992 (Cwlth), section 105 (Enforcement of judgments) must be entered in the Australian register of judgments kept by the registrar.

Part 14 Securities

71 Form of security

If, under the Magistrates Court Act 1930, section 148, time is allowed for the payment of any sum or payment of any sum is directed to be made by instalments, and it is ordered that the person liable to pay the sum shall give security with or without sureties for the due payment of it, the security, if given by an oral or written acknowledgment, shall be in accordance with the form approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004.

72 Security to be forwarded to court

If any security is not entered into at the court house when the conviction or order was made, the person before whom it is entered shall forward it to the court.

Part 18A Service of foreign documents

97A Service of foreign documents

If, in connection with any civil or commercial cause or matter pending before a court or tribunal in any foreign country that is a party to a convention regarding legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters that has been extended to Australia, a request for service of any document on a person in the ACT is received by the registrar from the consular or other authority of the country, the following procedure shall, subject to any special provisions contained in the convention, be adopted:

- (a) the service shall be effected by the person the magistrate from time to time appoints for that purpose, or by the authorised agent of that person, by delivering to and leaving with the person to be served the original document or a copy of that document, as indicated in the request, and 1 copy of the translation of it, in accordance with the rules and practice of the Magistrates Court regulating the service of process;
- (b) no court fees shall be charged for the service, but the particulars of the charges of the person or agent employed to effect service shall be submitted to the registrar who shall certify the amount properly payable in relation to it;
- (c) the registrar shall transmit to the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth for transmission to the consular or other authority making the request a certificate establishing the fact and the date of the service, or indicating the reasons why it has not been possible to effect it, and a statement of the amount of the charges properly payable certified in accordance with paragraph (b).

Part 18B Obtaining evidence for foreign tribunals

97B Obtaining evidence for foreign tribunals

- (1) If, under any convention regarding legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters to which Australia is a party, it is made to appear to a magistrate by letters of request, or other evidence as the magistrate may require, that a judicial authority in any other country which is a party to the convention wishes to obtain, for the purposes of any cause or matter that is pending before that authority, the testimony of any witness or witnesses within the ACT, the magistrate may, on the ex parte application of any person shown to be duly authorised to make the application and on production of the letter of request, or on application made in an other way as is provided in the convention, make the order or orders that may be necessary to give effect to the intention of the convention.
- (3) The examination may be ordered to be taken before any fit and proper person nominated by the person applying, or before an officer of the court, or another qualified person that the Magistrate considers appropriate.
- (4) Unless otherwise provided in the order for examination, the person before whom the examination is taken shall, on its completion, forward it to the registrar of the court and on receipt of it the registrar shall append a certificate in accordance with the form approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, and shall forward the depositions so certified, and the letter of request (if any) to the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth for transmission to the judicial authority wishing to obtain the testimony in accordance with the terms of the convention.
- (5) An order made under subsection (1) may, if the magistrate considers appropriate, direct the examination to be taken in a way that may be requested by the letter of request from the foreign judicial authority, or signified in the letter of request to be in accordance with the practice or requirements of that judicial authority, or that may, for the same reason, be requested by the applicant for the order, but in the absence of any such special directions, the examination shall be taken in the way prescribed under the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Rules 2004 and the rules and practice of the Magistrates Court in relation to civil proceedings.

- (6) If a letter of request is transmitted to the court with an intimation that it is desirable that effect should be given to it without requiring an application to the court by the agents of any of the parties to the action or matter in the foreign country, the registrar shall transmit it to the Australian Government Solicitor who may, with the consent of the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, make an application and take the steps that may be necessary to give effect to the letter of request in accordance with these rules.

Part 19 Miscellaneous

98 Clerk or agent may sign for legal practitioner

Any documents whatsoever to which a signature of the legal practitioner on the record or his or her agent is required shall be equally valid if signed by a clerk of the legal practitioner or agent respectively.

99 Authentication of acts of magistrate or registrar

- (1) Every summons, warrant, writ, conviction, and order (other than one by law authorised to be made by word of mouth only) must be in writing signed by the magistrate or registrar issuing or making it and sealed with the court's seal.
- (2) Documents relating to court process must not be signed in blank.

100 Witness expenses

- (1) A person is not required to comply with a subpoena served on the person for the Act unless a reasonable amount for expenses that the person would incur in complying with the subpoena on any day when the person's attendance is required is paid or tendered to the person—
 - (a) when the subpoena is served; or
 - (b) within a reasonable time before the date for compliance mentioned in the subpoena.
- (2) In this section:

reasonable amount, for expenses for a person, means the amount that would be payable in relation to the person if the party on whose request the subpoena was issued were entitled to claim witness expenses in relation to the person as costs in the proceeding.

101 Court seals

- (1) The registrar shall have custody of the seals of the court.
- (2) The registrar shall seal or stamp with the seal of the court—
 - (a) any judgment, order, notice, warrant, writ, summons, certificate or process, or any copy of any of those documents, made, given or issued by the court or by him or her; and
 - (b) any document filed in proceedings, and any copy of such a document lodged with him or her; and
 - (c) any document required under these rules or any other territory law to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the court.
- (3) In subsection (2) in its application to proceedings in the Small Claims Court, a reference to the seal of the court is to be taken to be a reference to the seal of the Small Claims Court.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

These rules were originally called the Court of Petty Sessions Rules and were originally made under a Commonwealth ordinance—the Court of Petty Sessions Ordinance (No 2) 1930 No 21 (Cwlth). The Magistrates Court Ordinance 1985 No 67 (Cwlth) renamed the ordinance as the Magistrates Court Act 1930 and the rules as the Magistrates Court Rules. These rules were later renamed as the Magistrates Court Rules 1930 under the Legislation Act 2001. Under the Court Procedures Act 2004 A2004-59, s 102, these rules are taken to have been made under that Act, pt 2.

The ACT Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 No 109 (Cwlth), s 12) converted some former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT, and the regulations and rules made under them, into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. The Magistrates Court Ordinance 1930 and the Magistrates Court Rules were converted into ACT enactments on 1 July 1990.

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name of the ordinance was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on its conversion to an ACT enactment on 1 July 1990.

Before 12 September 2001, rules commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Interpretation Ordinance 1914 s 5, Interpretation Ordinance 1937 s 16, Interpretation Act 1967 s 50, Subordinate Laws Act 1989 s 6).
