“Holding” means any land or collection of lands constituting and worked as one property, whether held under the same title or different titles, or under titles of different kinds;
“Horse” includes any horse, mare, gelding, colt, filly, foal, ass, or mule;
“Inspector” means the Inspector of Stock appointed or holding office in pursuance of the Ordinance;
“Large stock” includes cattle, horses, asses and mules;
“Occupier” means the person for the time being entitled to the possession of any land, or any person in authorized possession of any large stock or sheep agisting by arrangement with the Commonwealth on Commonwealth lands, and, where the occupier does not reside on the land, includes a person in charge of land as manager, agent, or superintendent;
“Owner” means—
(a) the holder, or the holder subject to mortgage, of any lease or licence, or promise of any lease or licence, from the Crown;
(b) the holder, or the holder subject to mortgage, of any purchase, whether conditional or otherwise, from the Crown, or of a homestead selection or homestead grant;
(c) the person entitled at law to an estate of freehold in possession in any land granted by the Crown for other than public purposes; or
(d) the person in whom is vested any land taken or appropriated under authority of any Statute authorizing land to be taken or appropriated for the purposes of any private undertaking; or
(e) in relation to stock, the owner of the stock, and includes the person being the representative, manager, agent, or superintendent of or for the owner and having the custody or control of the stock;

- “Run” includes any land, road, place, or premises;
- “Sheep” includes rams, ewes, wethers, and lambs;
- “Stock” means horses, cattle, asses, mules, sheep, swine, or goats, or any animal to which the Minister by notification has applied the provisions of the Ordinance;
- “The Ordinance” means the Stock Ordinance 1934-1936;
- “The Pastures Protection Act” means the Pastures Protection Act 1934 of the State of New South Wales and includes any Act of the State amending or substituted for that Act;
- “Travelling sheep” or “travelling stock” means any sheep or stock, other than stock in actual work, whilst being driven or carried by land or water, or which have, within one month next preceding, been so driven or carried along or over any place whatsoever other than the run on which they are ordinarily depastured.

(2.) In these Regulations, any reference to a Form shall be read as a reference to a Form in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

PART II.—RATES.

4.—(1.) Every owner or occupier liable to be rated under section 7 of the Ordinance, and every owner of any large stock or sheep shall, on or before the tenth day of January in each year, deliver personally or send by post by registered letter to the Controller, Canberra, a return in accordance with Form 1 of his land and of his large stock or sheep in the Territory on the thirty-first day of December next preceding.

Returns of land and stock.

(2.) An owner or occupier who fails to furnish a return in accordance with this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds.

5. The notice to the occupier of a holding of the amount of rate payable by him in respect of the holding shall be in accordance with Form 2.

7. Where any moneys have become charged upon any private land, in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance, the entry of the charge to be made in the rate-book as against the land shall specify how and when the charge was created, and by whom and to whom the moneys are payable; and on payment thereof, wholly or in part, an entry of the payment shall be made in the rate-book.

Entry of charges to be made in rate-book.

8. The Controller shall, if so required, upon payment of a fee of Two shillings and sixpence, furnish a certified copy of any entry in the rate-book.

Certified copies of entries in rate-book.

9.—(1.) Notice of appeal with respect to the amount determined by the Controller as payable by any person under the Ordinance shall be in accordance with Form 4, shall be accompanied by a deposit of Five pounds, and shall be made within twenty-one days after notice has been given of the amount of rate payable.

Notice of appeal against rating.

(2.) The appellant shall forward a copy of the notice of appeal to the Controller on the day the appeal is made.

(3.) The Minister shall give the appellant and the Controller not less than seven days' notice of the time fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

10.—(1.) If an owner liable to be rated under the Ordinance in respect of any holding, transfers or conveys his holding he shall forthwith give notice, in duplicate, to the Controller, in accordance with Form 5, of the transfer or conveyance.

Form of notice in case of transfer of holding.

(2.) If an owner liable to be rated under the Ordinance in respect of any holding dies, his executor or administrator shall, within fourteen days of the granting of probate of his will or of letters of administration of his estate, give notice, in duplicate, to the Controller, in accordance with Form 6, of the death, and the name and address of the owner of such holding.

(3.) The Controller, on receipt of notice in Form 5 or Form 6, shall—

(a) enter particulars contained in the notice against the entry in the rate-book relating to the holding in question; and

(b) if the holding is subject to a charge to secure the payment of purchase money and interest for wire-netting, or other material, machinery, plant, or substances supplied under section ten of the Rabbit Destruction Ordinance 1919, forward a copy of the notice to the Commonwealth Surveyor-General.

(4.) Any person who fails to furnish a notice as required by this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

		Other land—
		Total	Net amount of rate payable—

Sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 15 and 16 of the Stock Ordinance 1934-1936 are as follows:—

Section 7.—Subject to this Ordinance, the Minister may in each year make and levy a rate (in this Ordinance referred to as “the stock rate”) upon sheep or large stock or both:

Provided that the rate for large stock shall not exceed fourpence per head and the rate for sheep shall not exceed two-thirds of one penny per head.

Section 8.—Subject to this Ordinance, the stock rate shall not be levied on stock on any holding unless the owner or occupier has ten or more head of large stock or not less than one hundred sheep:

Provided that where an owner or occupier has large stock and sheep of such number as would, but for this proviso, not be rateable, ten sheep may be calculated as one head of large stock, and one head of large stock may be calculated as ten sheep, and, if on that calculation the owner or occupier has ten or more head of large stock or not less than one hundred sheep, the stock rate shall be levied on the stock.

Section 9.—(1.) In the case of unstocked or partly stocked land, the owner or occupier shall be deemed for the purposes of the levy of the stock rate to have such number of stock as the Controller determines:

Provided that land which has been used for agricultural purposes during the year next preceding that for which the assessment has been made shall be assessed at one sheep to three acres.

(2.) The Minister may, in his absolute discretion, exempt from rating under this Ordinance stock on any unstocked or partly stocked lands.

Section 10.—Only half rates shall be levied—

- (a) in respect of any unacquired holding or portion of an unacquired holding on the external boundaries of which there is a fence which, in the opinion of the Controller, is rabbit proof; or
- (b) in respect of any unacquired holding or portion of an unacquired holding within a group formed in pursuance of the Rabbit Destruction Ordinance 1919 and on the external boundary of which there is a fence which, in the opinion of the Controller, is rabbit proof.

For the purposes of this sub-section any fence which, in the opinion of the Controller, is sufficiently approximate to any boundary shall be deemed to be on that boundary.

Section 15.—If any person is aggrieved by the determination of the Controller of the amount of stock rates payable by him he may, within twenty-one days after the receipt of the notice of assessment, appeal to the Minister, whose decision in regard to the matter shall be final and conclusive.

Section 16.—Any sum due for stock rates shall be, and until payment thereof shall remain, a charge upon the lands constituting the holding and on the goods and chattels of the occupier or owner of the stock.
