About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Rules 1937 effective 18 December 2000 to 30 April 2001.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

Order 19 Parties

Division 19.1 Generally

1 Persons claiming jointly, severally, or in the alternative may be plaintiffs

- (1) All persons may be joined in the same action as plaintiffs, in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, where, if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise.
- (1A) If upon the application of any defendant it appears that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action, the court may order separate trials, or may make such other order as is expedient, and judgment may be given for any of the plaintiffs as are found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or she or they are entitled to, without any amendment.
- (2) The defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to costs occasioned by so joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the court, in disposing of the costs, otherwise directs.

2 No other action to be brought for same claim

No other action shall be brought against the defendant by any person so joined as plaintiff in respect of the same cause of action unless by leave of the court.

3 Plaintiffs may be substituted or added

Where an action has been commenced in the name of the wrong person as plaintiff, or it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff, the court may, if satisfied that it has been so commenced through a bona fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute so to do, order any other person or persons to be substituted or added as plaintiff or plaintiffs upon such terms as seem just.

4 Counterclaim or set-off in case of misjoinder

Where in an action any person has been improperly or unnecessarily joined as a coplaintiff, and a defendant has set up a counterclaim or set-off, he or she may obtain the benefit thereof by establishing his or her set-off or counterclaim as against the parties other than the coplaintiff so joined, notwithstanding the misjoinder of such plaintiff or any proceeding consequent thereon.

5 Defendants may be sued jointly, severally, or in the alternative

All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, and judgment may be given against any of the defendants as are found to be liable according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

6 Defendant having only partial interest

It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief prayed for, or as to every cause of action included in any proceeding against him or her, but the court may make such order as appears just to prevent any defendant from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he or she has no interest.

7 Plaintiff may join parties jointly and severally liable

The plaintiff may, at his or her option, join as parties to the same action all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on the same contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

8 Plaintiff in doubt may join defendants for alternative redress

Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he or she is entitled to redress, he or she may, in such manner as is mentioned in this order or as is prescribed by any special order, join 2 or more defendants, to the intent that the question as to which (if any) of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

9 Trustees, executors, and representative parties

- (1) Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of, or as representing, the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such persons, but the court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order any of such persons to be made parties either in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties.
- (2) This rule shall apply to trustees, executors, and administrators suing or sued in proceedings to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise.

10 Where parties are numerous

Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in the same cause or matter, any of those persons may sue or be sued, or may be authorised by the court to defend, in such cause or matter on behalf or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

11 Power to approve compromise in absence of some of the persons interested

When in proceedings concerning a trust a compromise is proposed, and some of the persons interested in the compromise are not parties to the proceedings, but there are other persons in the same interest before the court and assenting to the compromise, the court, if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, and that to require service on such persons would cause unreasonable expense or delay, may approve the compromise and order that the same shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or nondisclosure of material facts.

12 Amendment on misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties

- (1) A cause or matter is not defeated because of the misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties, and the court may in every cause or matter deal with the matter in controversy in relation to the rights and interests of the parties before it.
- (2) The court may order—
 - (a) that a person who is a party be struck out if the person has been improperly joined; or
 - (b) that a person be added as a party if—
 - (i) the person ought to have been joined; or
 - (ii) the addition of the person as a party is necessary to allow the court effectively and completely to decide all the questions involved in the cause or matter.
- (3) An order may be made under subrule (2)—
 - (a) at any stage of the proceeding; and
 - (b) on the application of a party or on its own initiative; and
 - (c) on the terms the court considers just; and
 - (d) whether the person to be struck out or added is, or should be, a plaintiff or defendant.
- (4) However, a person may not be added as a plaintiff suing without a litigation guardian, or as a litigation guardian of a plaintiff who is a person with a legal disability, without his or her written consent.

13 Application as to parties

Any application to add or strike out or substitute a plaintiff or defendant may be made to the court at any time before trial by motion or summons, or at the trial of the action in a summary manner.

14 Change of parties—amendment of application and service etc

- (1) Unless the court otherwise orders, if a person is added or substituted as defendant, the plaintiff must—
 - (a) file an amended copy of the originating application; and
 - (b) serve the person with a sealed copy of the amended originating application in the same way as an original defendant is served.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, if the person is added as defendant, the proceeding against the person is taken to have begun only when the order adding the person is made.

15 Probate actions

In a probate action—

- (a) a person who is named as defendant by the originating process, or on whom notice of the action is served by the court's direction, may enter an appearance in the action; and
- (b) a person not named as a defendant may apply to the court for leave to intervene in the action; and
- (c) application for leave to intervene in the action must be made by motion supported by an affidavit showing the interest of the applicant in the deceased person's estate; and
- (d) a person with leave to intervene is not entitled to be heard in the action until the person enters an appearance; and
- (e) a person with leave to intervene becomes a defendant on filing an appearance and the proceeding continues as if—
 - (i) the person had been named as a defendant by the originating process; and
 - (ii) the person had been served with the originating process when the process was issued; and
- (f) if the court gives leave to intervene, it may give the directions it considers appropriate for filing and service of pleadings, the filing of an affidavit of testamentary scripts or other matters.

15A Title of proceedings after change of parties

- (1) In any cause or matter, all proceedings subsequent to the making of an order adding, striking out or substituting a party shall, whether or not subrule (2) has been complied with, be entitled according to the effect of the order.
- (2) An order referred to in subrule (1) shall be prepared and entered by the party applying for the order or by such party as the court may direct.

 - (b) the defendant by whom the third-party claim was issued may, if judgment is given against him or her in the action, at any time after satisfaction of that judgment or with the leave of the court, before satisfaction of the judgment, enter judgment against the third party in respect of any indemnity or any contributions of a specific amount or proportion claimed in the notice and, with the leave of the court, in respect of any other relief or remedy claimed therein.

- (2) If the defendant by whom a third-party claim was issued makes default in delivery to the third party of any pleading, the court may order judgment to be entered for the third party or may make such other order as may appear necessary to do justice between the parties.
- (3) The court may at any time set aside or vary a judgment entered under subrule (1) (b) or (2) on such terms (if any) as it or he or she thinks fit.

- (1) Where in an action a defendant has served a third-party claim, the court may at or after the trial of the action, or, if the action is determined otherwise than by trial, on an application by motion or summons, order such judgment as the nature of the case requires to be entered for the defendant against the third party or for the third party against the defendant.
- (2) Where, in an action, judgment is entered against a defendant, and judgment is entered for the defendant against a third party, execution shall not issue against the third party without the leave of the court until the judgment against the defendant has been satisfied.

12 Fourth and subsequent parties

- (1) A third party may make a claim of the nature referred to in rule 1 against a person not already a party to the action (a fourth party) and, in relation to such a claim, this order applies with necessary changes as if the third party were a defendant and the other party were a third party.

- (1) Where a defendant claims against another defendant—
 - (a) that he or she is entitled to contribution or indemnity; or
 - (b) that he or she is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action and substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim and which should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim but as between the plaintiff, that defendant and the other defendant or between any 2 of them;the defendant making the claim may serve on the other defendant a notice making the claim or specifying the question or issue.

- (2) Particulars of the defendant's claim shall be set out in the notice and shall be pleaded in accordance with the rules respecting statements of claim.

who appears by a solicitor or to the party if he or she does not appear by a solicitor.

An allegation of fact in a pleading, other than a petition or summons, is taken to be admitted unless—

- (a) it is denied specifically or by necessary implication in the pleading of the opposite party; or
- (b) it is stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the opposite party; or
- (c) the opposite party is a person with a legal disability.

14 Conditions precedent

15 Special matters to be pleaded

When there are pleadings, the defendant or plaintiff (as the case may be) must raise by his or her pleading all matters which show the action or counterclaim not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence or reply (as the case may be) as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleadings, as, for instance, fraud, statute of limitations, statute of frauds, release, payment, performance, facts showing illegality, any statutory provision requiring contracts to be in, or to be evidenced by, writing, either by any law or at common law.

17 Denial of allegations to be specific

It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his or her statement of defence to deny generally the grounds alleged by the statement of claim, or for a plaintiff in his or her reply to deny generally the grounds alleged in a defence by way of counterclaim, but each party must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he or she does not admit the truth, except damages.

19 Denial to be substantial answer

- (3) If an allegation is made with divers circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

20 Effect of denial of contract

When a contract, promise, or agreement is alleged in any pleading or particulars, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract, promise, or agreement alleged, or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied by law, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract, promise, or agreement, whether with reference to the statute of frauds or otherwise.

- (2) If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he or she may state the same in the alternative.

25 Presumptions of law

A party need not in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his or her favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied.

Example

Consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.

- (2) The same rule shall apply to any counterclaim made, or relief claimed by the defendant, in his or her defence.

5 Several claims and defences

- (4) Where this rule applies and the defendant wishes to prove a version of facts different from that alleged in the originating application or statement, the defendant shall plead that version in the defence.

9 Directions to be numbered

- (a) the party initiating the request for the case to be stated; or
- (b) if the case is to be stated on referral by a tribunal on its own initiative—the person or body who made the decision to which the proceeding before the tribunal relates.

tribunal means a tribunal, court, body or person (including the Supreme Court itself) from which a case may be stated for the consideration of the Supreme Court.

- (2) In this order, a reference to a case stated for the consideration of the court includes a reference to a question of law reserved by or referred to the court for consideration.

1B Application

This order applies to any case stated for the consideration of the court from proceedings in a tribunal.

1 Special case

- (1) A case to be stated for the consideration of the court shall be in the form of a special case.
- (2) A special case shall—
 - (a) be divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs; and
 - (b) state the facts concisely; and
 - (c) have annexed all documents necessary to enable the court to decide the questions raised by the special case.

- (3) The court may draw from the facts stated and the documents annexed any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn from them if proved at a trial.

2 Preliminary question of law

If it appears to the court that there is in any cause or matter a question of law which it would be convenient to have decided before any evidence is given, or any question or issue of fact is tried, or before any reference is made to a referee or arbitrator, the court may make an order accordingly, and may direct such question of law to be raised for the opinion of the court, either by special case or in such other manner as the court deems expedient, and all such other or further proceedings as the decision of such question of law may render unnecessary may thereupon be stayed.

3 Preparation and filing of special case

A special case shall—

- (a) be prepared in draft by the party having carriage of the proceeding after consultation with each other party; and
- (b) contain an address for service of each party; and

- (2) The application for leave must be supported by sufficient evidence that the statements contained in the special case are true, as far as they affect the interests of the person with a legal disability.

6 Directions hearings

After a special case is filed under rule 3 (e), the registrar shall—

- (a) set down the special case for a directions hearing; and
- (b) notify each party of the date appointed for the directions hearing.

6A Insufficient statement of case

- (1) This rule applies where it appears to the court that a special case filed under rule 3 (e) does not state the facts and documents sufficiently to enable the court to decide the questions arising, or otherwise to hear and determine proceedings on the special case.
- (2) Where this rule applies, the court may—
 - (a) with the consent of each party, amend the special case; or
 - (b) send the special case back to the party having carriage of the proceedings from which the special case was referred for that party to amend the special case in a manner specified by the court; or
 - (c) in relation to civil proceedings only—receive evidence, make findings of fact, and amend the special case accordingly.

7 Agreement of damages and costs

The parties to a special case may, if they think fit, enter into an agreement in writing that, upon the judgment of the court being given in the affirmative or negative of the question or questions of law raised by the special case, a sum of money, fixed by the parties or to be ascertained by the court or in such manner as the court directs, shall be paid by 1 of the parties to the other of them, either with or without costs of the cause or matter, and the judgment of the court may be entered for the sum so agreed or ascertained, with or without costs (as the case may be), and execution may issue forthwith upon such judgment unless otherwise agreed or unless stayed on appeal.

Order 37A Issues of fact without pleadings

1 Trial of questions of fact by consent

- (1) When the parties to a cause or matter are agreed as to the questions of fact to be decided between them, they may, after the action is commenced and before judgment, by consent and order of the court, proceed to the trial of any such questions of fact, and in such mode and with such number of jurors (if any) as are agreed upon, without formal pleadings, and such questions may be stated for trial in an issue in accordance with schedule 1, form 34.
- (2) The issue shall be filed by the plaintiff within 4 days after the making of such order, and the proper fees and jury fees (if any) payable by him or her shall be paid, and thereupon the like proceedings shall be had and taken as in the case of an ordinary action after notice of the close of pleadings has been filed.
- (3) If the plaintiff fails to file such issue within the prescribed time, and pay such fees, the cause or matter shall, unless the court orders otherwise, be wholly discontinued, and the plaintiff shall pay the defendant's costs of such cause or matter.

2 Amount agreed to be paid

The court may, by consent of the parties, order that, upon the finding of the affirmative or negative of such issue, as in rule 9 mentioned, a sum of money fixed by the parties, or to be ascertained upon a question inserted in the issue for that purpose, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, either with or without the costs of the cause or matter.

3 Judgment and execution

Upon the finding of any such issue as is mentioned in rule 9, judgment may be entered for the sum fixed or ascertained in accordance with the provisions of rule 10, with or without costs (as the case may be), and execution may issue upon such judgment forthwith unless otherwise agreed, or unless the court otherwise orders, for the purpose of giving either party an opportunity of moving to set aside the finding or for a new trial.

4 Proceedings may be recorded

The proceedings upon such issue as is mentioned in rule 9 may be recorded at the instance of either party, and the judgment, whether recorded or not, shall have the same effect as any other judgment in a contested action.

2 Place of trial

Unless the court otherwise orders, the trial of every suit shall take place at Canberra.

- (1) Where there are no pleadings or issues, the defendant shall not, except by leave of the court, be allowed to rely on a set-off or a counterclaim, or on the defence of infancy, fraud, illegality, truth (in an action of defamation) or facts in mitigation of damages in such action, defence on equitable grounds, statutory limitation of actions, or discharge under any law relating to bankruptcy or the winding up of companies, unless he or she has given, within 20 days after appearance, notice to the plaintiff stating the grounds and the particulars upon which he or she relies.

- (2) A copy of any such notice shall be filed by the plaintiff for the use of the judge at the trial.

14 Judge may call on defendant for defence in certain cases

The judge may, if he or she thinks it expedient for the interest of justice, postpone or adjourn the trial for such time and upon such terms (if any) as he or she thinks fit.

17 Habeas corpus where adjournment

Where a party is brought up to attend the trial or hearing of a cause or matter by virtue of any writ of habeas corpus duly issued, and by reason of the pressure of other business, or from any other cause, the trial or hearing of the cause or matter in which such party is concerned is postponed to a future day, a new writ of habeas corpus may be issued for such future day, if the court so directs.

- (4) The party who presents his or her case first (the first party) may make an address opening the party's case and may then bring evidence in support of the case.

- (7) If the other party elects to present evidence—

 - (b) after the party has made a closing address, the first party may make a closing address.
- (8) If, during the presentation of the first party's case, a document or thing is admitted in evidence or by tender by the other party and, after that case is brought—

19 Evidence in mitigation of damages in libel and slander

In actions for libel or slander, in which the defendant does not by his or her defence assert the truth of the statement complained of, the defendant shall not be entitled on the trial to give evidence in chief, with a view to mitigation of damages, as to the circumstances under which the libel or slander was published, or as to the character of the plaintiff, without the leave of the judge, unless 7 days at least before the trial he or she furnishes particulars to the plaintiff of the matters as to which he or she intends to give evidence.

 - (b) by proceedings altogether out of court, any moneys produced thereby being paid into court or to trustees, or otherwise dealt with as the judge in chambers orders.
- (2) The judge shall not authorise the proceedings altogether out of the court, unless and until he or she is satisfied, by such evidence as he or she deems sufficient, that all persons interested in the estate to be sold, mortgaged, partitioned, or exchanged are before the court, or are bound by the order for sale, mortgage, partition, or exchange, and every order authorising the proceedings altogether out of court shall be prefaced by a declaration that the judge is so satisfied and a statement of the evidence upon which such declaration is made.

4 Sale under order

Where a judgment or order is given or made directing any property to be sold, unless otherwise ordered, the same shall be sold with the approbation of the judge to the best purchaser that can be got for the same, to be allowed by the judge, and all such proper parties as the judge directs shall join in the sale and conveyance.

- (d) against a sheriff to pay money levied under an execution.

3 Previous notice of motion required

Except where according to the practice existing in the Supreme Court of New South Wales any order or rule may be made absolute ex parte in the first instance, and except where, notwithstanding rule 2, a motion, or application, may be made for an order to show cause only, a motion shall not be made without previous notice to the parties affected thereby, but the court, if satisfied that the delay caused by proceeding in the ordinary way would or might entail irreparable or serious mischief, may make any order ex parte upon such terms as to costs or otherwise, and subject to such undertaking (if any) as the court thinks just, and any party affected by such order may move to set it aside.

4 Notice of motion to set aside award etc

7 Hearing adjourned

The hearing of any motion or application may from time to time be adjourned upon such terms (if any) as the court thinks fit.

- (2) A direction that the costs of such order shall be costs in any cause or matter shall not be deemed a special direction within the meaning of this rule.
- (3) The person or solicitor of the person on whose application such order is made shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof to such persons (if any) as would, if this rule had not been made, have been required to be served with such order.

14 Petition to state parties to be served

Division 52.2 Certiorari

8 Copy, warrant, order etc to be produced on application

An order nisi for a writ of certiorari to remove any warrant, order, conviction, inquisition, or record shall not be granted unless at the time of the application a copy of the warrant, order, conviction, inquisition, or record, verified by affidavit, is produced, or its nonproduction accounted for to the satisfaction of the court.

9 Objections to be stated in order

Any mistake or omission in any judgment, order or other proceeding, which is intended to be relied upon as a ground for quashing the judgment, order, or proceeding, shall be stated in the order nisi, otherwise an objection on account of the omission or mistake shall not be allowed.

10 Service

In the case of orders to show cause why a writ of certiorari should not be issued addressed to the Magistrates Court, service of the order on the registrar of the court shall be sufficient.

11 Security for costs

A writ of certiorari to remove a judgment or order of any court or tribunal shall not be issued, except on the application of a law officer, until the applicant has given security to the satisfaction of the registrar in the sum of $100, conditioned to prosecute the writ with effect at his or her own cost without delay, and to pay to the party in whose favour the judgment or order was given or made, in the event of its being confirmed, such costs (if any) as the court orders him or her to pay.

12 Order to quash in first instance

- (1) When cause is shown against an order nisi for a writ of certiorari to bring up a judgment or order, the court, if it directs the writ to issue, may by the same order direct that the judgment or order shall be quashed on return without further order, and in that case no security need be given as required by rule 11, and a memorandum to that effect shall be indorsed upon the writ by the officer by whom it is issued.
- (2) In any such case the judgment or order shall be quashed, upon being returned to the court, without further order.

13 When no cause shown

14 Forms

A writ of certiorari shall be in accordance with schedule 1, form 63.

Division 55.3 Mandamus

15 Prosecutor to be named

An order nisi for a writ of mandamus or for relief of a like nature shall not be granted except upon the application of some person who is interested in the relief sought, and the applicant must state by affidavit that the application is to be made at his or her instance as prosecutor.

16 Persons to show cause

The court may direct that the order nisi shall be addressed to, and served upon, any person who, in the opinion of the court, ought to have notice thereof, and any person who, in the opinion of the court, would be affected by the issue of the peremptory writ may show cause against the order nisi, and, if he or she does so, shall be liable to costs as if the order had been addressed to him or her.

17 Form of writ

- (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, every writ of mandamus shall command the person to whom it is addressed to do the act in question, or show cause why he or she has not done it, but the court may direct that the command shall be peremptory in the first instance.
- (2) Every writ of mandamus shall be in accordance with schedule 1, form 64, and shall bear date of the day on which it is issued, and shall be tested in the name of the judge.

18 Time for return of writ

19 Service

- (1) When a writ of mandamus is directed to 1 person only, the original writ must be personally served upon him or her by delivering it to him or her.
- (2) When the writ is directed to 2 or more persons, it shall be personally served upon all of them but 1 in the manner prescribed for personal service of an originating application, and shall be served upon the remaining one by delivering the original writ to him or her.

20 Service on justices or corporate bodies

When a writ of mandamus is directed to a corporation, or to a company, or to public authorities, it shall be served on so many of the officers or members of the corporation or company or public authority as are competent to do the act commanded, unless by law some other mode of service is sufficient.

21 Return

The persons to whom a writ of mandamus is directed shall, within the time allowed by the writ, file the writ, together with a certificate, written thereon or annexed thereto, and signed by them, setting forth that they have done the act commanded by the writ, or else setting forth the reason why they have not done so.

22 Service

A copy of the return shall be served upon the prosecutor on the same day as it is filed.

23 Pleading to return

If the return does not certify that the act commanded has been done, the same proceedings shall be had and taken, and within the same time, as if the return were a defence in an action in which the prosecutor was the plaintiff and the person to whom the writ is directed was the defendant, and had pleaded this return as his or her defence.

24 Peremptory writ

If the question of fact and law (if any) raised by the return is determined in favour of the prosecutor by judgment of the court or otherwise, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a peremptory writ of mandamus, commanding the persons to whom the first writ was directed to do the act commanded, and such writ shall be awarded by the judgment (if any) or, if there is no judgment, by a separate order.

25 Costs when peremptory writ awarded in the first instance or on obedience

- (1) When a peremptory writ is awarded in the first instance, the court shall, at the time of granting the writ, direct by and to whom the costs of the proceedings shall be paid.
- (2) When a peremptory writ is not awarded in the first instance, and the return to the writ certifies that the person to whom it is addressed has done the act commanded by the writ, an application for an order for the costs of the proceedings may be made at any time after the return is filed, not being later than the 4th day of the sittings of the court held next after the day on which the return is filed.

26 Proceedings in nature of interpleader

When upon an application for a writ of mandamus it appears that some person other than the prosecutor claims that the person to whom it is proposed to direct the writ shall do some act inconsistent with the act which the prosecutor claims to have done, the person to whom the order nisi or writ is directed may apply to the court for an order that the last-named person be substituted for him or her in all subsequent proceedings up to the issue of a peremptory writ of mandamus, and the court may make such order on the application as is just.

27 Time

An application for a writ of mandamus, or an order in the nature of a mandamus, to a judicial tribunal to enter a minute of adjournment and hear a matter, shall be made within 2 months of the date of the refusal to hear, or within such further time as is, under special circumstances, allowed by the court.

28 Mandamus by order

In any case in which the court directs the issue of a peremptory writ of mandamus, the command may be expressed in an order of the court without the issue of a writ, which order shall have the same effect as a peremptory writ of mandamus.

29 No action against party obeying writ or order

No action or proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person in respect of anything done in obedience to a writ of mandamus or an order of the court for relief of the like nature issued by the court.

Division 55.4 Prohibition

30 Pleadings in prohibition

The court may in any case, instead of directing the issue of a writ of prohibition, direct the prosecutor to deliver to the opposite party a statement of claim setting forth the facts upon which his or her claim to the writ is founded, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had and taken in all respects as in an action.

31 Proceedings on judgment

If judgment is given for the prosecutor, the judgment shall include a direction that a writ of prohibition shall issue.

32 Direction to proceed

When a writ of prohibition has been issued, and it is afterwards made to appear to the court that relief ought to be given against the judgment or order by which the writ was awarded on any ground on which relief might be given against a judgment in an action, the court may direct the judicial tribunal to which the writ of prohibition was issued to hear or determine the matter in question or proceed as if the writ had not been issued.

33 Prohibition by order

- (1) The prohibition may be expressed in an order of the court without the issue of a writ, which order shall have the same effect as a writ of prohibition.
- (2) A writ of prohibition shall be in accordance with schedule 1, form 65.

Division 55.5 Quo warranto

34 Relator to be named

- (1) Upon an application for an order for leave to exhibit an information of quo warranto, or for relief of a like nature, the applicant shall state by affidavit that the application is to be made at his or her instance as relator.
- (2) The court may allow a new relator to be substituted for the original relator, on such terms as to costs or otherwise as are just.

35 Objections to be stated in order nisi

Every objection intended to be made to the title of the defendant or person called on to show cause shall be stated in the order nisi, and no objection not so stated shall be raised on the return of the order nisi, or in the information, without the leave of the court.

36 Security for costs

An information shall not, without the leave of the court, be filed until the applicant has given security in the sum of $100 conditioned to file the information and prosecute the same with effect, and to pay to the defendant such costs (if any) as the court orders.

37 Form of information

The information shall set forth the facts relied on by the relator as invalidating the title of the defendant to the office in question in the same manner as in a statement of claim.

38 Signature of service of information

- (1) The information shall be in the name of the Attorney-General or the relator, as the case may be, on behalf of the Sovereign, and shall be signed by the Attorney-General or relator.
- (2) A copy of the information shall be served upon the defendant, or, if at the return of the order nisi he or she appeared by solicitor, then upon his or her solicitor.

39 Defence and subsequent proceedings

The defendant shall plead to the information within the same time and in the same manner as if the information were a statement of claim in an action, and the same proceedings shall be taken in all respects as if the proceeding by information were an action in which the relator was plaintiff and the defendant was defendant.

40 Judgment costs

If judgment is given for the Crown, the judgment shall award that the defendant be ousted from the office usurped by him or her.

41 Disclaimer

- (1) The defendant may, if he or she thinks fit, disclaim the office in question.
- (2) Such disclaimer shall be signed by the defendant and attested by a person authorised to take an affidavit, and shall be filed, and a copy shall be served on the relator within the time allowed for delivering a defence.
- (3) The relator shall thereupon, unless the court otherwise orders, be entitled to enter judgment of ouster with costs, including the costs of the order giving leave to exhibit the information.

42 Consolidation

When proceedings by information of quo warranto, or for relief of a like nature, are pending against several persons for usurpation of offices of the same nature, and upon the same grounds of objection, the court may direct the proceedings to be consolidated, as in the case of actions, and for that purpose may make such orders as are just, but an order for consolidation or stay of proceedings against any defendant shall not be made upon the application of a defendant unless he or she undertakes to enter a disclaimer in the event of judgment being given for the relator in the proceeding which is not stayed.

- (2) Other writs of habeas corpus shall be served personally unless an order for substituted service is made.
- (3) When a writ of habeas corpus is directed to more persons than 1, it shall be served in the same manner as a writ of mandamus directed to several persons.

46 Return to writs of habeas corpus

- (1) The person to whom a writ of habeas corpus is directed shall, at the time and place specified therein, make his or her return to the writ, which shall be indorsed upon or attached to the writ, and shall set out all the causes of the detention of the person named in the writ.

Order 59 Interpleader

1 When granted

Relief by way of interpleader may be granted—

- (a) where the person seeking relief (in this order called the applicant) is under liability for any debt, money, goods, or chattels for or in respect of which he or she is, or expects to be, sued by 2 or more parties (in this order called the claimants) making adverse claims thereto; and
- (b) where the applicant is the sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the court, and claim is made to any money, goods, or chattels taken or intended to be taken in execution under any process, or to the proceeds or value of any such goods or chattels, by any person other than the persons against whom the process issued.

2 Affidavit

The applicant must satisfy the court by affidavit or otherwise—

- (a) that the applicant claims no interest in the subject matter in dispute, other than for charges or costs; and
- (b) that the claimant does not collude with any of the claimants; and
- (c) that the applicant, except where he or she is the sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the court who has seized goods and has withdrawn from possession in consequence of the execution creditor admitting the claims of the claimant under rule 16, is willing to pay or transfer the subject matter into court or to dispose of it as the court directs.

3 Where claims adverse

The applicant shall not be disentitled to relief by reason only that the titles of the claimants have not a common origin but are adverse to and independent of one another.

4 Time defendant may apply

Where the applicant is a defendant, application for relief may be made at any time after service of the originating application.

5 Summons to state claim

The applicant may take out a summons calling on the claimants to appear and state the nature and particulars of their claims, and either to maintain or relinquish them.

6 Stay of proceedings

If the application is made by a defendant in an action, the court may stay all further proceedings in the action.

7 Order on summons

If the claimants appear in pursuance of the summons, the court may order either that any claimant be made a defendant in any action already commenced in respect of the subject matter in dispute in lieu of or in addition to the applicant, or that an issue between the claimants be stated and tried, and in the latter case may direct which of the claimants is to be plaintiff, and which defendant, and the mode in which such trial shall be had.

8 On consent or request of claimant court may decide

The court may, with the consent of both claimants or on the request of any claimant, if, having regard to the value of the subject matter in dispute, it seems desirable so to do, dispose of the merits of their claims, and decide the same in a summary manner and on such terms as are just.

9 Question of law

Where the question is a question of law, and the facts are not in dispute, the court may either decide the question without directing the trial of an issue, or order that a special case be stated for the opinion of the Federal Court.

10 Claimant failing to appear etc barred

If a claimant, having been duly served with a summons calling on him or her to appear and maintain or relinquish his or her claim, does not appear in pursuance of the summons, or, having appeared, neglects or refuses to comply with any order made after his or her appearance, the court may make an order declaring him or her, and all persons claiming under him or her, for ever barred against the applicant and persons claiming under him or her, but the order shall not affect the rights of the claimants as between themselves.

11 Issue to be filed

- (1) The plaintiff in an interpleader issue shall file the issue within 4 days after the making of the order under rule 7, and shall thereupon pay the fees and jury fees (if any) payable on entering a cause for trial.
- (2) If the plaintiff makes default in so doing, the order shall be deemed to be abandoned, and the court may make such further order on the applicant's summons, and as to the costs of the issue directed, as is just and reasonable.

12 Goods seized in execution

When goods or chattels have been seized in execution by a sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process of the court, and any claimant alleges that he or she is entitled, under a bill of sale or otherwise, to the goods or chattels by way of security for debt, the court may order the sale of the whole or a part thereof, and direct the application of the proceeds of the sale in such manner and upon such terms as are just.

13 Trial of issue

Orders 35 and 39 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an interpleader issue, and the court may finally dispose of the whole matter of the interpleader proceedings, including all costs not otherwise provided for.

14 Where several causes pending

Where in any interpleader proceedings it is necessary or expedient to make 1 order in several causes or matters pending in the court, such order may be made, and shall be entitled in all such causes or matters, and any such order (subject to the right of appeal) shall be binding on the parties in all such causes or matters.

15 Costs

such question has not been raised before and dealt with by the court the taxing officer shall look into the same (and, as to evidence, although the same may be entered as read in any judgment or order) for the purpose aforesaid, and thereupon the same consequences shall ensue as if he or she had been specially directed to do so.

11E Production by non-party

- (1) This rule applies to a subpoena for production of a document or thing in relation to a proceeding that requires attendance before the arbitrator or umpire.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, if the person named in the subpoena is not a party, the subpoena must allow the person to produce the document or thing to the arbitrator or umpire, at the address nominated by the arbitrator or umpire and included in the subpoena, not later than the day before the first day the person's attendance is required, instead of attending and producing the document or thing as required by the subpoena.
- (3) If a document or thing is produced to the arbitrator or umpire under subrule (2), the arbitrator or umpire must give a receipt to the person producing the document or thing.
- (4) This rule does not apply to a part of the subpoena that requires the person named to attend to give evidence in the proceeding.

11F Costs of complying with subpoena

- (1) This rule applies if a person named in a subpoena for production of a document or thing—
 - (a) is not a party; and
 - (b) incurs substantial expense or loss in complying with the subpoena that is in excess of the amount provided under rule 11D (Conduct money).
- (2) The arbitrator or umpire may order the party who served the subpoena to pay the person an amount, decided by the arbitrator or umpire, sufficient to compensate the person for the expense or loss reasonably incurred in complying with the subpoena.
- (3) An amount under subrule (2) is in addition to any amount the person served with the subpoena is entitled to be paid under rule 11D, or because of order 65 rule 7 (Scales of costs) and schedule 4 (Costs).
- (4) An order under subrule (2) is taken to be an award of the umpire or arbitrator against the party who served the subpoena and may be enforced accordingly.

11G Banker's books

- (1) This rule applies if—
 - (a) the person named in the subpoena is an officer of a bank; and
 - (b) the bank is not a party; and
 - (c) the subpoena requires the person to produce a banker's book; and
 - (d) the contents of the banker's book can be proved under a law in force in the Territory in a way other than the production of the book.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, the subpoena must expressly allow the person to produce proof of the relevant entries in accordance with that law, instead of producing the banker's book.
- (3) The registrar is not required to work out whether this rule applies to a subpoena when issuing it, but the court may set aside as irregular a subpoena which does not comply with subrule (2).

11H Subpoenas to produce document

- (1) A subpoena to produce a document must have written on it or annexed to it a written statement commencing with the words 'Order 83 rules 11M and 11N of the rules of court are as follows:' and followed by the text of rules 11M and 11N.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply to a subpoena if it is intended that the procedure provided for in rules 11M and 11N is not to be followed.

11I Service of subpoenas

- (1) A subpoena in a proceeding must be served personally.
- (2) However, if the person named in the subpoena is a party and is represented by a solicitor in the proceeding, the subpoena may, with the solicitor's consent, be served on the person by leaving it at the solicitor's address for service.
- (3) A subpoena is taken to be served personally on a medical expert if, at the place where the expert's practice is carried on—

- (a) it is given to a person apparently engaged (whether as employee or otherwise) in the practice and apparently at least 16 years old; or
 - (b) if a person mentioned in paragraph (a) refuses to accept the subpoena—the subpoena is put down in the person’s presence and the person is told of the nature of the subpoena.
- (4) If a subpoena requires a medical expert to attend to give evidence, it may be served later than 6 weeks before the day fixed for the hearing of the proceeding only if—
 - (a) the subpoena is a subpoena served in accordance with leave given under subrule (5); or
 - (b) the court otherwise orders.
- (5) If a medical expert to whom a notice has been delivered in accordance with rule 11J fails to attend the court on the day and at the time stated in the notice, the court may give leave for the service of a subpoena on the medical expert requiring the attendance of the medical expert.

11J Notice instead of subpoena to medical expert

- (1) In a proceeding, instead of a subpoena, a notice may be delivered to a medical expert stating the date and time fixed for the hearing of the proceeding and requesting the expert’s attendance.
- (2) A notice under subrule (1)—
 - (a) may be delivered in the same way as a subpoena may be served on a medical expert under rule 11I (1) or (3); and
 - (b) must not be delivered later than 6 weeks before the date fixed for the hearing of the proceeding.

11K No shortening of time for service

The parties may not, by consent, shorten the time prescribed under this division for service of a subpoena on, or delivery of a notice under rule 11J (1) to, a medical expert.

- (2) The party serving the subpoena may arrange with the served person that the document be sent or delivered to the arbitrator or umpire.
- (3) If an arrangement is made under subrule (2), the served person must—
 - (a) post the document and related material to the arbitrator or umpire so as to reach the arbitrator or umpire before the day stated in the subpoena; or
 - (b) deliver the document and related material to the arbitrator or umpire before that day.
- (4) On receiving a document produced in accordance with this rule, the arbitrator or umpire must notify the party that served the subpoena or the party's solicitor that the arbitrator or umpire has received the document from the served person.
- (5) The arbitrator or umpire may allow a party or, if requested by a party, someone else to inspect a document produced under this rule.
- (6) If the served person produces documents to the arbitrator or umpire in accordance with this rule and with an arrangement with the party who served the subpoena, the served person has answered the subpoena and is taken to have complied with it.
- (7) In this rule:

related material, for a document required to be produced under subpoena, means—

- (a) the subpoena or a copy of the subpoena; or
- (b) a schedule giving brief particulars of the document and containing an adequate reference to the proceeding in which the subpoena was issued and the name and address of the person producing the document.

11N Delivery of documents to the arbitrator or umpire—objection

- (1) This rule applies if a party serves a subpoena on a person (the served person) to produce a document and the served person objects to producing the document to the arbitrator or umpire or to its being made available by the arbitrator or umpire for inspection by a party.
- (2) The served person is not required to produce the document to the arbitrator or umpire, but must answer the subpoena by attending before the arbitrator or umpire at the time and place mentioned in the subpoena and make his or her objection to the arbitrator or umpire.

1 About this republication

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Rules as in force under the Supreme Court Act 1933 on 18 December 2000. It includes all amendments made to the regulations up to Subordinate Law 2000 No 50.

Amending laws are annotated in the table of legislation and table of amendments.

This subordinate law has been renumbered. See the table of renumbered provisions for details.

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office currently prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws: authorised printed republications to which the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 applies and unauthorised electronic republications. The status of a republication appears on its cover and from its republication number.

A republication number without a letter (eg 1, 2, 3 etc) indicates that the republication is an authorised printed republication. A number with a letter (eg 1A, 1B, 1C etc) indicates that the republication is an unauthorised electronic republication.

Section 13 of the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel, in preparing a law for republication, to make textual amendments of a formal nature which the Parliamentary Counsel considers desirable in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. The amendments do not effect a substantive change in the law.

In preparing this republication, amendments have not been made under section 13.

Not all amendments made under section 13 are annotated in the table of amendments. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

2 About the republished subordinate law

The Supreme Court Rules was originally the Rules of the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory (Cwlth). It was renamed by the A.C.T Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 (Cwlth) (see s 13 sch 1). It became a Territory enactment on 1 July 1992 (see the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 34 sch 2) but its previous history is included in this republication.
