

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY.

Regulations 1942. No. 1.

Regulation under the Police Ordinance 1927-1934.*

I, HERBERT VERE EVATT, the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Police Ordinance 1927-1934, hereby make the following Regulation.

Dated this fourteenth day of January, 1942.

H. V. EVATT

Attorney-General.

AMENDMENT OF THE POLICE REGULATIONS.

After regulation 15 of the Police Regulations the following regulation is inserted:—

“15AA.—(1.) In any case in which a member of the Force has, since his last recreation leave or, if the member has not previously had recreation leave, since the date of his appointment, been absent from duty for more than twenty-six working days (either in one or more periods), the period of recreation leave which may be granted under the last preceding regulation shall be subject to a deduction of two days for each twenty-six working days of absence, exclusive of the first twenty-six days. Deductions from recreation leave on account of other absences.

“(2.) Nothing in the last preceding sub-regulation shall apply in the case of any absence in respect of which leave has been granted under the next succeeding regulation or on account of illness which the Chief Officer is satisfied arises as a direct result of war service, where the absence does not exceed a period of seventy-eight working days or such further period as the Attorney-General approves.

“(3.) A member of the Force who is granted recreation leave shall not be entitled to claim leave for any other purpose during the currency of that leave.”.
