

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY.

Regulations 1954. No. 4.

Regulations under the Education Ordinance 1937-1952.*

I, WILFRED SELWYN KENT HUGHES, Minister of State for the Interior, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Education Ordinance 1937-1952, hereby make the following Regulations.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of March, 1954.

W. S. KENT HUGHES

Minister of State for the Interior.

AMENDMENTS OF THE EDUCATION REGULATIONS.

1. Regulation 4 of the Education Regulations is amended by omitting from sub-regulation (1.) the definition of "Director of Education". Definitions.

2. Regulation 25 of the Education Regulations is amended by omitting the words "the Board". How bursaries are allotted.

3. Regulation 29 of the Education Regulations is amended by omitting from sub-regulation (2.) the words "The Minister or the Board" and inserting in their stead the words "The Registrar". Application for bursaries.

4. Regulation 30 of the Education Regulations is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

"30.—(1.) The Minister may, subject to these Regulations, allot annually such number of bursaries as he thinks fit for award to boys and girls who have attained the age of eleven years but have not attained the age of thirteen years on the first day of January next following the date fixed for holding the qualifying examination. Award of bursaries, and age limits.

"(2.) Awards of bursaries shall be made to those candidates who, in the opinion of the Minister, show the greatest merit in the qualifying examination.

"(3.) Bursaries are tenable at Secondary Schools approved by the Minister."

5. Regulation 33 of the Education Regulations is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

"33.—(1.) The bursaries made available annually by the Minister are open for competition by candidates attending schools in the Territory. Eligibility of candidates.

"(2.) A candidate is not eligible unless one of his parents or his guardian is ordinarily resident in the Territory."

* Notified in the Commonwealth Gazette on 8th April, 1954.

6. Regulation 36 of the Education Regulations is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

Admission of bursars at year
subsequent to first.

“36. A bursar may be admitted to commence his secondary school course at a year subsequent to the first year of the course if he produces evidence to the satisfaction of the Minister that his previous studies qualify him to do so.”.

7. Regulation 37 of the Education Regulations is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

Undertaking
by parent.

“37.—(1.) Before a bursary is awarded to a candidate, a parent or the guardian of the candidate shall certify in writing to the Registrar that it is his intention that the candidate will, if awarded the bursary, attend at school for at least four years of the period for which the bursary is tenable.

“(2.) If the Minister has agreed that, upon the award of the bursary, the bursar will be admitted at a year subsequent to the first, a certificate for the purposes of the last preceding sub-regulation is sufficient if it certifies that it is the intention of the parent or guardian that the candidate will attend at school for such period (not being more than four years) as is necessary to complete the course.”.

Certificate examination.

10. Regulation 40 of the Education Regulations is amended by omitting sub-regulation (1.) and inserting in its stead the following sub-regulations:—

“(1.) The Minister may allot annually such number of bursaries as he thinks fit for award upon the results of the external Intermediate Certificate examination.

“(1A.) Bursaries under this regulation may be awarded by the Minister to students who have reached a standard which is acceptable to the Board as constituting the requisite standard for the award of bursaries.

“(1B.) If the full number of bursaries allotted in any year for award under this regulation are not awarded in accordance with the last preceding sub-regulation, the Minister may award the remaining bursary, or one or more of the remaining bursaries, as the case may be, to a student or students whose results at the external Intermediate Certificate examination are considered by the Minister to be deserving of special recognition.”.
