Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 1991 (repealed)

SL1991-10

made under the

Occupational Health and Safety Act 1989

Republication No 10

Effective: 26 May 2008

Republication date: 26 May 2008

As repealed by SL2007-36 s 94

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 1991 (repealed), made under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1989, including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes). It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 26 May 2008.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of regulation

This regulation is the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 1991.

2 Definitions for regulation

In this regulation:

Note: A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act, s 155).

Australian Standard 1885.1 means Australian Standard 1885, being that standard as approved 20 March 1990 and published 11 June 1990 entitled ‘Workplace injury and disease recording standard’.

boiler means a closed vessel in which steam can be generated or water or other liquid can be heated at a pressure greater than that of the atmosphere, and includes any plant, apparatus or appliance fitted to, or used in connection with the raising of pressure in, such a vessel.

pressure vessel means a closed vessel that is subjected to pressure (including a pressure due to a static head) by liquids, vapours, air or other gases, and includes any plant, apparatus or appliance fitted to, or used in connection with the raising of pressure in, such a vessel, but does not include—

- (a) a boiler; or
- (b) a vessel attached to or forming part of a domestic water supply which contains either only cold water under pressure or air the compression of which serves only as a cushion; or training program means a training program approved under section 3.

- (c) a vessel containing a liquid only at a temperature not exceeding 99°C if the pressure is due solely to the height of a column of liquid above the vessel.

Part 1A Dangerous occurrences

2A Matters that are a dangerous occurrence

- (1) For the Act, dictionary, definition of dangerous occurrence, each of the following is declared to be a dangerous occurrence:
 - (a) damage to a boiler, pressure vessel, plant, equipment or other thing that endangers or is likely to endanger the health or safety of people at a workplace;
 - (b) damage to, or failure of, a load-bearing member or control device of a crane, hoist, conveyor, lift, escalator, moving walk, plant, scaffolding, gear, amusement device or public stand;
 - (c) an uncontrolled fire, explosion, or escape of gas, a dangerous substance or steam;
 - (d) another occurrence involving imminent risk of—
 - (i) fire, explosion, or an escape of gas, a dangerous substance or steam; or
 - (ii) death of, or serious personal injury to, anyone; or
 - (iii) substantial damage to property.
- (2) In this section:

dangerous substance—see the Dangerous Substances Act 2004, section 10.

Part 2 Training programs

3 Approval of training programs

- (1) The council may approve a training program for the Act, section 61 (1) (f) or section 66 (4).
- (2) If the council approves a training program under subsection (1), it must publish in a daily newspaper published and circulating in the ACT a notice of its approval of the program that specifies the provision of the Act for which the program has been approved.

3A Training for authorisation as authorised representative— Act, s 75

A training program approved under section 3 is required for authorisation of a person under the Act, section 75 (1).

4 Payment of training fees and expenses

If—

- (a) a health and safety representative undertakes a training program under the Act, section 61 (1) (f); or
- (b) a deputy health and safety representative undertakes a training program under the Act, section 66 (4);

the employer of that person must—

- (c) pay the fees for the person to undertake the program; and
- (d) reimburse the person for the expenses reasonably incurred by the person in undertaking the program.

Part 3 Injury and dangerous occurrence reporting and recording requirements

5 Prescribed period

For the Act, section 204, the prescribed period is 7 days.

6 Method of reporting

- (1) Notice under the Act, section 204 may be given in writing or by telephone, fax or other electronic means.

Note If a form is approved under the Act, s 226 for the notice, the form must be used.

- (2) An employer must give notice under the Act, section 204 to the chief executive as soon as practicable and in any event within 7 days.
- (3) If the chief executive receives notice other than in writing, the chief executive must send to the employer—
 - (a) a copy of the information received; or
 - (b) an acknowledgment of receipt of the notice.

7 Necessity of reporting

If an employer notifies the chief executive of an injury or dangerous occurrence under the Act, section 204, the employer is not required to report the same event under an associated law.

8 Retention of records etc

- (1) If an employer gives written notice of a death, an injury or a dangerous occurrence in accordance with section 204, the employer must keep a copy of the notice for 5 years after the notice is given.
- (2) If the employer gives notice of a death, an injury or a dangerous occurrence in a way other than in writing and the chief executive provides the employer with—
 - (a) a copy of the information received; or
 - (b) an acknowledgment of receipt of the notice;the employer must keep the copy or the acknowledgment for 5 years after the notice is given.

9 Form of records

- (1) Records required under the Act, section 205 must be kept in a form approved, in writing, by the chief executive.
- (2) Records kept under subsection (1) must be kept for 5 years after the day when notice was given in accordance with the Act, section 204.
- (3) An approval under subsection (1) is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

10 Records of absence

- (1) If an employer is aware of the occurrence of an event that would have been reported under section 204 if the prescribed period under that section was 1 day, the employer must record details of the event.
- (2) Records under subsection (1) must be kept in accordance with Australian Standard 1885.1.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

11 Time for decision on internal review—Act, s 186 (2)

- (1) The time for making a decision on an application for internal review of an inspector's decision is—
 - (a) 10 business days after the day the application is made under the Act, section 185; or
 - (b) if the chief executive tells the applicant in writing within the 10 business days that the chief executive is satisfied that a longer period than the 10 business days is necessary to adequately review the decision—20 business days after the day the application for internal review is made under the Act, section 185; or
 - (c) if the chief executive asks the applicant in writing for further information in relation to the application—10 business days after the day the chief executive receives the further information.
- (2) The chief executive must tell the applicant in writing if the information given in response to a request mentioned in subsection (1) (c) is not the further information asked for, or not all the further information asked for.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
