Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the National Crime Authority (Territory Provisions) Regulations 1995 (repealed), made under the National Crime Authority (Territory Provisions) Act 1991, including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes). It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 18 June 2004.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

4 Service of summons to appear before authority

- (1) For the Act, section 18 (1) or 18 (2) (c), each of the following way of serving a summons is prescribed:
- (a) if the person named in the summons is an individual—
    - (i) tendering a copy of the summons to the person or, if on tender of the copy the person refuses to accept it, putting it down in the presence of the person or leaving it at or on the place or premises where the person is;
    - (ii) if service in a way specified in subparagraph (i) is not practicable—leaving a copy of the summons at the last-known or usual place of residence or business of the person with another person who is, or is reasonably believed to be, over 16 years old and is, or is reasonably believed to be, residing or employed at that place or sending a copy of the summons by registered post or certified mail to the person at the last-known or usual place of residence or business of the person or at the last-known or usual postal address of the person; or
    - (iii) if a judge has given a direction under subregulation (2)—service in accordance with the direction;
  - (b) if the person named in the summons is a body corporate—
    - (i) tendering a copy of the summons to a person who is, or is reasonably believed to be, an officer or employee of the body corporate and is, or is reasonably believed to be, over 16 years old, at the head office, a registered office, a principal office or a principal place of business of the

- body corporate or, if on tender of the copy the person refuses to accept it, leaving it at or on the premises; or
- (ii) sending a copy of the summons by registered post or certified mail to the head office, a registered office, a principal office or a principal place of business of the body corporate or a postal address of the body corporate.
- (2) A judge may direct that service of a summons to be served on an individual may be effected by—
- (a) leaving a copy of the summons with another specified person; or
  - (b) sending a copy of the summons by registered post or certified mail to the person to be served at a specified address.
- (3) A judge shall not give a direction under subregulation (2) unless satisfied on information given in writing by a member that—
- (a) service on the person in a way specified in subregulation (1) (a) (i) or (ii) has not been, or is not likely to be, successful; and
  - (b) for a direction under subregulation (2) (a)—the person to be specified in the direction is likely to bring the contents of the summons to the notice of the person to be served; and
  - (c) for a direction under subregulation (2) (b)—the address to be specified in the direction is the address of a place frequented by the person to be served.

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
