Crimes (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009

SL2009-21

made under the

Crimes Act 1900

Republication No 1

Effective: 30 May 2009 – 4 September 2009

Republication date: 30 May 2009

Regulation not amended

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Crimes (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009, made under the Crimes Act 1900 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 30 May 2009. It also includes any commencement, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial amendments

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Crimes (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009

made under the

Crimes Act 1900

1 Name of regulation

This regulation is the Crimes (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009.

3 Modification of Act, pt 30—Act, s 601 (2)

The Act, section 600 applies as if the following subsections were inserted:

- ‘(2) That part, as in force immediately before the amendments commence, continues to apply to the proceeding.
- (3) For subsection (1), the hearing in a proceeding for an offence has started if—
 - (a) the defendant has pleaded guilty to the charge and the court has accepted the plea; or
 - (b) the defendant has pleaded not guilty to the charge, or is taken to have pleaded not guilty to the charge under section 375 (6) and the court has begun to take oral or written evidence in the proceeding (other than in relation to bail or any other interlocutory matter).’

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
