Part 2 Road Transport (Public Passenger Services) Regulation 2002

4 Section 8 (1)

substitute

- (1) The road transport authority must refuse an application for accreditation (including renewal) if—
- (a) the applicant is not an Australian citizen or permanent resident; or
 - (b) the authority believes on reasonable grounds that—
 - (i) the applicant is not a suitable person to operate the kind or size of regulated service to which the application relates; or
 - (ii) the applicant does not have the capacity to meet the applicant's proposed service standards; or
 - (iii) the proposed service standards do not adequately state how the applicant will comply with the approved minimum service standards for the regulated service to which the application relates; or
 - (iv) compliance by the applicant with the proposed service standards will not ensure that the applicant will provide a safe, reliable and efficient regulated service.
