Discrimination Act 1991

A1991-81

Republication No 45
Effective: 3 April 2017

Republication date: 3 April 2017

Last amendment made by A2016-49
About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Discrimination Act 1991 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 3 April 2017. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 3 April 2017.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel’s Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol [U] appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol [M] appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $150 for an individual and $750 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Discrimination Act 1991

An Act to make certain kinds of discrimination unlawful and to provide for related matters
Part 1

Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Discrimination Act 1991.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition ‘discriminate—see section 8.’ means that the word ‘discriminate’ is defined in section 8.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

(a) to eliminate discrimination to the greatest extent possible; and

(b) to promote and protect the right to equality before the law under the Human Rights Act 2004, including—

(i) the right to enjoy a person’s human rights without distinction or discrimination of any kind; and

(ii) the right to the equal protection of the law without discrimination; and
(iii) the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination on any ground; and

c) to encourage the identification and elimination of systemic causes of discrimination; and

d) to promote and facilitate the progressive realisation of equality, as far as reasonably practicable, by recognising that—

   (i) discrimination can cause social and economic disadvantage and that access opportunities are not equitably distributed throughout society; and

   (ii) equal application of a rule to different groups can have unequal results or outcomes; and

   (iii) the achievement of substantive equality may require the making of reasonable adjustments, reasonable accommodation and the taking of special measures.

4AA Interpretation beneficial to people with protected attributes

This Act must be interpreted in a way that is beneficial to a person who has a protected attribute, to the extent it is possible to do so consistently with—

(a) the objects of this Act; and

(b) human rights under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Note The Legislation Act, s 139 (1) (which is about interpreting legislation to be consistent with its purpose) and the Human Rights Act 2004, s 30 (which is about interpreting legislation to be consistent with human rights) are also relevant to interpreting territory laws.
4A Meaning of doing an act

(1) In this Act:

doing an act includes failing to do the act.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

(2) In this Act, a reference to doing an act because of a particular matter includes a reference to doing an act because of 2 or more matters that include the particular matter, whether or not the particular matter is the dominant or substantial reason for doing the act.

5AA Meaning of disability

(1) In this Act:

disability means—

(a) total or partial loss of a bodily or mental function; or

(b) total or partial loss of a part of the body; or

(c) the presence in the body of organisms that cause disease or illness; or

(d) the presence in the body of organisms that are capable of causing disease or illness; or

(e) the malfunction, malformation or disfigurement of a part of the body; or

(f) a disorder or malfunction that results in a person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction; or

(g) a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person’s thought processes, perception of reality, emotions or judgment or that results in disturbed behaviour; or

(h) any other condition prescribed by regulation.
(2) For this Act, disability includes—

(a) behaviour that is a symptom or manifestation of the disability; and

(b) a disability that a person may have in the future, including because of a genetic disposition to the disability; and

(c) a disability that it is thought a person may have in the future, whether or not—

(i) the person has a genetic disposition to the disability; or

(ii) there is anything else to indicate the person may have the disability in the future; and

Note Disability also includes a disability that the person has or is thought to have, and a disability that the person has had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (see s 7 (2)).

(d) reliance on—

(i) a support person; or

(ii) a disability aid; or

(iii) an assistance animal.

(3) In this section:

assistance animal means an assistance animal trained to assist a person with disability to alleviate the effect of the disability, that satisfies any requirements prescribed by regulation.

disability aid—

(a) means equipment (including a palliative or therapeutic device) that is generally recognised to alleviate an effect of a disability; and
(b) includes anything prescribed by regulation.

Note  Power to make a statutory instrument (including a regulation) includes power to make different provision in relation to different matters or different classes of matters, and to make an instrument that applies differently by reference to stated exceptions or factors (see Legislation Act, s 48).

support person  means a person who provides assistance or services to another person because of a disability the other person has.

Examples  carer, assistant, interpreter, reader

Note  An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

5AB  Liability of person relying on assistance animal etc

(1) This section applies to a person with disability who relies on an assistance animal or disability aid.

(2) Nothing in this Act affects the liability of the person for any injury, loss or damage caused by the person’s assistance animal or disability aid.

(3) In this section:

assistance animal—see section 5AA (3).

disability aid—see section 5AA (3).

5A  Meaning of potential pregnancy

In this Act:

potential pregnancy, of a woman, includes—

(a) the fact that the woman is or may be capable of bearing children; and
(b) the fact that the woman has expressed a desire to become pregnant; and
(c) the fact that the woman is likely, or is perceived as being likely, to become pregnant.

6 MLAs as employers

(1) For this Act, a member of the Legislative Assembly (in his or her capacity as an office-holder or otherwise) is taken to be an employer in relation to a person who is, or who is seeking to be, employed under the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Staff) Act 1989, section 5 or 10 as a member of the staff of the member.

(2) In this section:

office-holder—see the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Staff) Act 1989, dictionary.

6A Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.
Part 2  Discrimination to which Act applies

7 Protected attributes

(1) This Act applies to discrimination on the ground of any of the following attributes (a protected attribute):

(a) accommodation status;

(b) age;

Examples—par (b)
because the person is a child or young person or an older person

Note  An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

(c) association (whether as a relative or otherwise) with a person who is identified by reference to another protected attribute;

(d) breastfeeding;

(e) disability;

(f) employment status;

(g) gender identity;

(h) genetic information;

(i) immigration status;

(j) industrial activity;

(k) intersex status;

(l) irrelevant criminal record;

(m) parent, family, carer or kinship responsibilities;

(n) physical features;
(o) political conviction;
(p) pregnancy;
(q) profession, trade, occupation or calling;
(r) race;
(s) record of a person’s sex having been altered under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 or a law of another jurisdiction that corresponds, or substantially, corresponds, to the Act, section 26 (Alteration of register);
(t) relationship status;
(u) religious conviction;
(v) sex;
(w) sexuality;
(x) subjection to domestic or family violence.

(2) For this Act, protected attribute includes—

(a) a characteristic that people with the attribute generally have; and

(b) a characteristic that people with the attribute are generally presumed to have; and

(c) the attribute that a person has; and

(d) the attribute that a person has had in the past, whether or not the person still has the attribute; and

(e) the attribute that a person is thought to have, whether or not the person has the attribute; and

(f) the attribute that a person is thought to have had in the past, whether or not the person has had the attribute in the past.
8 Meaning of discrimination

(1) For this Act, discrimination occurs when a person discriminates either directly or indirectly, or both, against someone else.

(2) For this section, a person directly discriminates against someone else if the person treats, or proposes to treat, another person unfavourably because the other person has 1 or more protected attributes.

(3) For this section, a person indirectly discriminates against someone else if the person imposes, or proposes to impose, a condition or requirement that has, or is likely to have, the effect of disadvantaging the other person because the other person has 1 or more protected attributes.

(4) However, a condition or requirement does not give rise to indirect discrimination if it is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) In deciding whether a condition or requirement is reasonable in the circumstances, the matters to be taken into account include—

(a) the nature and extent of any disadvantage that results from imposing the condition or requirement; and

(b) the feasibility of overcoming or mitigating the disadvantage; and

(c) whether the disadvantage is disproportionate to the result sought by the person who imposes, or proposes to impose, the condition or requirement.
Part 3  Unlawful discrimination

Division 3.1  Discrimination in work

10  Applicants and employees

(1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person—

(a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of deciding who should be offered employment; or

(b) in deciding who should be offered employment; or

(c) in the terms or conditions on which employment is offered.

(2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee—

(a) in the terms or conditions of employment that the employer affords the employee; or

(b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee’s access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training or to any other benefit associated with employment; or

(c) by dismissing the employee; or

(d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.

(3) To remove any doubt, an employer discriminates against an employee if the employer denies the employee access to a benefit associated with employment because the employee is in a same-sex relationship.

Example of discrimination denying an employee who is in a same-sex relationship access to parental leave that is available to other parents

Note  An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).
(4) Subsection (3) is in addition to, and does not limit, any other provision of this Act that provides what is, or is not, discrimination under this Act.

11 Employees—religious practice

It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of religious conviction by refusing the employee permission to carry out a religious practice during working hours, being a practice—

(a) of a kind recognised as necessary or desirable by people of the same religious conviction as that of the employee; and

(b) the performance of which during working hours is reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the employment; and

(c) that does not subject the employer to unreasonable detriment.

12 Commission agents

(1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person—

(a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of deciding who should be engaged as a commission agent; or

(b) in deciding who should be engaged as a commission agent; or

(c) in the terms or conditions on which engagement as a commission agent is offered.

(2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent—

(a) in the terms or conditions that the principal affords the agent; or

(b) by denying the agent access, or limiting the agent’s access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training or to any other benefit associated with the position as an agent; or 13 Contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker—

(a) in the terms or conditions on which the principal allows the contract worker to work; or

(b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work; or

(c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting the contract worker’s access, to any benefit associated with the relevant work; or

(d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

14 Partnerships

(1) It is unlawful for any people who are proposing to form themselves into a partnership to discriminate against a person—

(a) in deciding who should be invited to become a partner in the partnership; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the person is invited to become a partner in the partnership.

(2) It is unlawful for a partner in a partnership to discriminate against a person—

(a) in deciding who should be invited to become a partner in the partnership; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the person is invited to become a partner in the partnership.
(3) It is unlawful for a partner in a partnership to discriminate against another partner in the partnership—

(a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner’s access, to any benefit arising from being a partner in the partnership; or

(b) by expelling the partner from the partnership; or

(c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

15 Professional or trade organisations

(1) In this section:

organisation means an association or organisation of employers or employees.

(2) It is unlawful for an organisation, the committee of management of an organisation or a member of the committee of management of an organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the organisation—

(a) by failing to accept the person’s application for membership; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the organisation is prepared to admit the person to membership.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

(3) It is unlawful for an organisation, the committee of management of an organisation or a member of the committee of management of an organisation to discriminate against a member of the organisation—

(a) by denying the member access, or limiting the member’s access, to any benefit provided by the organisation; or

(b) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of membership; or

(c) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.
16 Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or body that is empowered to confer, renew, extend, revoke or withdraw an authorisation or qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person—

(a) by failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which it is prepared to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification; or

(c) by revoking or withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions on which it is held; or

(d) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

17 Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person—

(a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services; or

(c) in the way in which it provides the person with any of its services; or

(d) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
Division 3.2 Discrimination in other areas

18 Education

(1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person—

(a) by failing to accept the person’s application for admission as a student; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

(2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student—

(a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student’s access, to any benefit provided by the authority; or

(b) by expelling the student; or

(c) by subjecting the student to any other detriment.

19 Access to premises

It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person—

(a) by refusing to allow the other person access to, or the use of, any premises (public premises) that the public or a section of the public is entitled or allowed to enter or use (whether for payment or not); or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the discriminator is prepared to allow the other person access to, or the use of, public premises; or

(c) in relation to the provision of means of access to public premises; or
(d) by refusing to allow the other person the use of any facilities (public facilities) in public premises that the public or a section of the public is entitled or allowed to use (whether for payment or not); or

(e) in the terms or conditions on which the discriminator is prepared to allow the other person the use of public facilities; or

(f) by requiring the other person to leave public premises or cease to use such facilities.

20 Goods, services and facilities

It is unlawful for a person (the provider) who (whether for payment or not) provides goods or services, or makes facilities available, to discriminate against another person—

(a) by refusing to provide those goods or services or make those facilities available to the other person; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the provider provides those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person; or

(c) in the way in which the provider provides those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person.

21 Accommodation

(1) It is unlawful for a person (whether as principal or agent) to discriminate against another person—

(a) by refusing the other person’s application for accommodation; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which accommodation is offered to the other person; or
(c) by deferring the other person’s application for accommodation or according to the other person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.

(2) It is unlawful for a person (whether as principal or agent) to discriminate against another person—

(a) by denying the other person access, or limiting the other person’s access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the other person; or

(b) by evicting the other person from accommodation occupied by the other person; or

(c) by subjecting the other person to any other detriment in relation to accommodation occupied by the other person.

22 Clubs

(1) It is unlawful for a club, the committee of management of a club or a member of the committee of management of a club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the club—

(a) by failing to accept the person’s application for membership; or

(b) in the terms or conditions on which the club is prepared to admit the person to membership.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

(2) It is unlawful for a club, the committee of management of a club or a member of the committee of management of a club to discriminate against a member of the club—

(a) in the terms or conditions of membership that are afforded to the member; or

(b) by failing to accept the member’s application for a particular class or type of membership; or
(c) by denying the member access, or limiting the member’s access, to any benefit provided by the club; or

(d) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of membership; or

(e) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.

23 Requests etc for information

It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person by requesting or requiring information (whether by way of completing a form or otherwise) in connection with, or for the purpose of performing, an act that is or would be unlawful under any other provision of this part or under part 5, 6 or 7.
Part 4 Exceptions to unlawful discrimination

Division 4.1 General exceptions

Section 24

24 Domestic duties

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b) or section 13 (b) does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else in relation to a position as an employee or contract worker if the duties of the position involve doing domestic duties on the premises where the first person lives.

25 Residential care of children

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b) or section 13 (b) does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against someone else in relation to a position as an employee or contract worker if the duties of the position involve the care of a child where the child lives.

25A Adoption

This Act does not prevent the director-general responsible for administering the Adoption Act 1993 from discriminating against a person in making a decision—

(a) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 18 in relation to the approval of a person to be registered as suitable for the placement of a child or young person for adoption; or

(b) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 19 in relation to the removal of a person’s name from the register of suitable people; or

(c) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 35A in relation to the placement of a child or young person before adoption in the care of a person who is on the register of suitable people.
26 Domestic accommodation etc

(1) Section 21 does not make unlawful discrimination in relation to—

(a) the provision of accommodation if—

(i) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation, or a near relative or carer of the person, lives and intends to continue to live on the premises; and

(ii) the accommodation provided in the premises is for not more than 6 people, not including the person mentioned in subparagraph (i) and any near relative or carer of the person; or

(b) the provision of accommodation by a religious body for members of a relevant class of people; or

(c) the provision of accommodation by a charitable or voluntary body for members of a relevant class of people.

(2) Also, section 21 does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate on the ground of accommodation status in relation to the provision of accommodation if the discrimination is reasonable, having regard to any relevant factors.

Example—relevant factors
effect of the discrimination on the person discriminated against

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

(3) In this section:

near relative, of a person, means—

(a) a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, brother or sister of the person; or
(b) a domestic partner of the person or of a person mentioned in paragraph (a).

Note For the meaning of domestic partner, see Legislation Act, s 169.

26A Preselection by employment agencies

Part 3 or part 4 does not make unlawful discrimination by an employment agency in the selection of people as suitable for a job vacancy if, had the proposed employer discriminated against the person in the same way, the discrimination would not have been unlawful.

27 Measures intended to achieve equality

(1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful to do an act if a purpose of the act is—

(a) to ensure that members of a relevant class of people have equal opportunities with other people; or

(b) to give members of a relevant class of people access to facilities, services or opportunities to meet the special needs they have as members of the relevant class.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not make it lawful to do an act for a purpose mentioned in that subsection if the act discriminates against a member of the relevant class in a way that is not reasonable for the achievement of that purpose.

Example for s (1) (a)
An employer runs a management skills development course for female employees only. Part 3 does not make this unlawful if a purpose is to ensure that women have equal opportunities (in this case, for career development) with men. Women are ‘members of a relevant class of people’ (relevant class of people is defined in the dict) because they are a class of people whose members are identified by reference to a protected attribute, in this case, sex in s 7 (1) (a).
Example for s (1) (b)

A health clinic provides speech therapy for autistic children only. Part 3 does not make this unlawful if a purpose is to give autistic children access to a service that meets their special needs as autistic children. Autistic children are ‘members of a relevant class of people’ because they are a class of people whose members are identified by reference to 2 attributes mentioned in s 7, in this case, disability in s 7 (1) (j) and age in s 7 (1) (l) (the Legislation Act, s 145 (b) provides that words in the singular include the plural ie ‘attribute’ in the def of relevant class of people can mean ‘attributes’).

28 Insurance

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else (the second person) in relation to the terms on which an annuity or policy of insurance is offered to, or may be obtained by, the second person, if the discrimination is reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to any actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable for the first person to rely.

29 Superannuation

(1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person in the terms or conditions relating to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme.

(2) For discrimination on the ground of age, subsection (1) applies only if—

(a) the discrimination is due to the application of a standard in force under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cwlth); or

(b) the discrimination is for the purpose of—

(i) complying with; or

(ii) avoiding a penalty under; or

(iii) obtaining a benefit under;

any other Act of the Commonwealth; or Part 4  Exceptions to unlawful discrimination
Division 4.1  General exceptions
Section 29

(c) the discrimination is—
   (i) based on actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely; and
   (ii) reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors; or

(d) if there are no actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely—the discrimination is—
   (i) based on other data on which it is reasonable to rely; and
   (ii) reasonable having regard to that data and any other relevant factors; or

(e) if there are no data at all on which it is reasonable to rely—the discrimination is reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors.

(3) Subsection (2) applies in relation to a new superannuation fund condition irrespective of—
   (a) whether the fund was in existence immediately before 4 March 1994; and
   (b) when the person to whom the discrimination relates became a member of the fund.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to an existing superannuation fund condition if the person to whom the discrimination relates became a member of the fund before, or not later than 12 months after, 4 March 1994.

(5) In this section:
   existing superannuation fund condition means a superannuation fund condition in existence immediately before 4 March 1994.
new superannuation fund condition means—

(a) a superannuation fund condition that came into existence on or after 4 March 1994; or

(b) an alteration made on or after 4 March 1994 to an existing superannuation fund condition.

30 Acts done under statutory authority etc

(1) This Act does not make unlawful anything done necessarily for the purpose of complying with a requirement of—

(a) a Territory law; or

(b) a determination or direction made under a Territory law; or

(c) an order of a court; or

(d) an order of the ACAT.

(2) The Minister may declare that subsection (1) (a) and (b) expire on a day stated in the declaration.

(3) The declaration is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

(4) Subsection (1) (a) and (b) and this subsection expire on the day stated in the declaration.

31 Voluntary bodies

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a voluntary body to discriminate against a person in relation to—

(a) the admission of people as members of the body; or

(b) the provision of benefits, facilities or services to people, whether the people are members of the body or otherwise.
32 Religious bodies

Part 3 does not apply in relation to—

(a) the ordination or appointment of priests, ministers of religion or members of any religious order; or

(b) the training or education of people seeking ordination or appointment as priests, ministers of religion or members of a religious order; or

(c) the selection or appointment of people to exercise functions for the purposes of, or in connection with, any religious observance or practice; or

(d) any other act or practice of a body established for religious purposes, if the act or practice conforms to the doctrines, tenets or beliefs of that religion and is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion.

33 Educational institutions conducted for religious purposes

(1) Section 10 or 13 does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else in relation to—

(a) employment as a member of the staff of an educational institution; or

(b) a position as a contract worker that involves doing work in an educational institution; if the institution is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of a particular religion or creed, and the first person so discriminates in good faith to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion or creed.

(2) Section 18 does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else in relation to the provision of education or training by an educational institution that is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of a particular religion or creed, if the first person so discriminates in good faith to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion or creed.

33A Discrimination relating to accommodation, goods or services etc

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person in relation to accommodation, providing goods or services or making facilities available only because a person charges for the accommodation, goods, services or facilities.

Division 4.2 Exceptions about sex, relationship status, pregnancy or breastfeeding

34 Genuine occupational qualifications—sex

(1) Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against someone else (the relevant person) on the ground of sex in relation to a position as an employee, commission agent, contract worker or partner if it is a genuine occupational qualification for the position that the position be filled by a person of the opposite sex to the relevant person.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), it is a genuine occupational qualification, in relation to a particular position, to be a person of a particular sex (the relevant sex) if—

(a) the duties of the position can be performed only by a person having particular physical attributes (other than attributes of strength or stamina) that are not possessed by people not of the relevant sex; or
Part 4  Exceptions to unlawful discrimination
Division 4.2  Exceptions about sex, relationship status, pregnancy or breastfeeding
Section 34

(b) the duties of the position involve performing in a dramatic performance or other entertainment in a role that, for reasons of authenticity, aesthetics or tradition is required to be performed by a person of the relevant sex; or

c) the duties of the position involve participating as an artist’s or photographic model in the production of a work of art, visual image or sequence of visual images for which a person of the relevant sex is required for reasons of authenticity; or

(d) the duties of the position need to be performed by a person of the relevant sex to preserve decency or privacy because they involve the fitting of clothing for people of that sex; or

(e) the duties of the position include the conduct of searches of the clothing or bodies of people of the relevant sex; or

(f) the occupant of the position is required to enter a lavatory ordinarily used by people of the relevant sex while the lavatory is in use by people of that sex; or

(g) the occupant of the position is required to live on premises provided by the employer or principal and—

(i) the premises are not equipped with separate sleeping accommodation or sanitary facilities for people of each sex; and

(ii) the premises are already occupied by a person of the relevant sex and are not occupied by any person not of the relevant sex; and

(iii) it is not reasonable to expect the employer or principal to provide separate sleeping accommodation or sanitary facilities for people of each sex; or

(h) the occupant of the position is required to enter areas ordinarily used only by people of the relevant sex while those people are in a state of undress; or
(i) the duties of the position involve providing people of the relevant sex with services for the purpose of promoting their welfare if those services can most effectively be provided by a person of that sex; or

(j) the position is declared under the regulations to be a position in relation to which it is a genuine occupational qualification to be a person of a particular sex.

35 Employment of couple

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination against a person on the grounds of relationship status in relation to a job that is 1 of 2 jobs to be held by a couple in a domestic partnership.

Note For the meaning of domestic partnership, see Legislation Act, s 169.

36 Educational institutions for members of one sex

Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to a failure to accept a person’s application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students of the opposite sex to that of the applicant.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

37 Pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against a man on the ground of sex only because the person gives a woman rights or privileges in relation to pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding.

38 Services for members of one sex

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to the provision of services the nature of which is such that they can only be provided to members of one sex.
39 Accommodation provided for employees, contract workers or students

(1) Part 3, in its application in relation to discrimination on the ground of sex, relationship status, pregnancy or breastfeeding, does not make it unlawful for an employer or principal who provides accommodation to employees or contract workers to provide accommodation of different standards to different employees or contract workers if—

(a) the standard of the accommodation provided is decided having regard to the number of people in the household of the employee or contract worker; and

(b) it is not reasonable to expect the employer or principal to provide accommodation of the same standard for all employees or contract workers.

(2) Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to the provision of accommodation if the accommodation is provided solely for people of one sex who are students at an educational institution.

40 Clubs for members of one sex etc

(1) Section 22 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of that person’s sex if membership of the relevant club is available only to people of the opposite sex.

(2) Section 22 (1) (b) or (2) does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex if the discrimination occurs in relation to the use or enjoyment of any benefit provided by the relevant club if—

(a) it is not practicable for the benefit to be used or enjoyed, either simultaneously or to the same extent, by both men and women; and
(b) either—
   (i) the same, or an equivalent, benefit is provided for the use of men and women separately from each other; or
   (ii) men and women are each entitled to a fair and reasonable proportion of the use and enjoyment of the benefit.

(3) In deciding any matter relating to the application of subsection (2), the following must be taken into account:

(a) the purposes for which the club is established;

(b) the membership of the club, including any class or type of membership;

(c) the nature of the benefits provided by the club;

(d) the opportunities for the use and enjoyment of those benefits by men and women;

(e) any other relevant circumstances.

41 Sport

(1) Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to the exclusion of people of one sex from participation in any competitive sporting activity in which the strength, stamina or physique of competitors is relevant.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the exclusion of people from participation in—

(a) the coaching of people engaged in any sporting activity; or

(b) the umpiring or refereeing of any sporting activity; or

(c) the administration of any sporting activity; or

(d) any prescribed sporting activity.
Division 4.3   Exceptions relating to race

42   Genuine occupational qualifications—race

(1) Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against someone else (the relevant person) on the ground of race in relation to a position as an employee, commission agent, contract worker or partner if it is a genuine occupational qualification for the position that the position be filled by a person of a different race to the relevant person.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), it is a genuine occupational qualification, in relation to a particular position, to be a person of a particular race if—

(a) the duties of the position involve participating in a dramatic performance or other entertainment in a role that, for reasons of authenticity, aesthetics or tradition is required to be performed by a person of that race; or

(b) the duties of the position involve participating as an artist’s or photographic model in the production of a work of art, visual image or sequence of visual images for which a person of that race is required for reasons of authenticity; or

(c) the duties of the position involve working in a place where food or drink is (whether for payment or not) provided to and consumed by people in circumstances in which a person of that race is required for reasons of authenticity; or

(d) the duties of the position involve providing people of that race with services for the purpose of promoting their welfare, if those services can most effectively be provided by a person of that race; or

(e) the position is declared under the regulations to be a position in relation to which it is a genuine occupational qualification to be a person of a particular race.
43 Clubs for members of one race etc

(1) Section 22 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of race in relation to a club that has as its principal object providing benefits for people of a stated race if those people are described other than—

(a) by reference to colour; or

(b) in a way that has the effect of excluding some members of that race on the basis of colour.

(2) In deciding what the principal object of the club is for subsection (1), the following must be taken into account:

(a) the essential character of the club;

(b) if the people mainly enjoying the benefits of membership are of the race stated in the principal object;

(c) any other relevant circumstance.

Division 4.4 Exceptions relating to religious or political convictions

44 Religious workers

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make unlawful—

(a) discrimination on the ground of religious conviction by an educational authority in relation to employment or work in an educational institution conducted by the authority; or
Part 4  Exceptions to unlawful discrimination
Division 4.4  Exceptions relating to religious or political convictions
Section 45

(b) discrimination on the ground of religious conviction by a religious body in relation to employment or work in a hospital or other place conducted by the body in which health services are provided;

if the duties of the employment or work involve, or would involve,
the participation by the employee or worker in the teaching, observance or practice of the relevant religion.

45 Political workers etc

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of political conviction in relation to employment or work—

(a) as an adviser to, or a member of the staff of, a Minister, the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly or a member of the Legislative Assembly; or

(b) as an officer or employee of, or a worker for, a political party; or

(c) as a member of the electoral staff of a person; or

(d) in any other similar employment or work.

46 Religious educational institutions

Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of religious conviction in relation to a failure to accept a person’s application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students having a religious conviction other than that of the applicant.

Note  The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.
Division 4.5 Exceptions relating to disability

47 Unjustifiable hardship

In deciding what is unjustifiable hardship for this division, all the relevant circumstances of the particular case must be taken into account, including the following:

(a) the nature of the benefit or detriment likely to accrue or be suffered by all people concerned;

(b) the nature of the disability of the person concerned;

(c) the financial circumstances of, and the estimated amount of expenditure by, the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

48 Genuine occupational qualifications—disability

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability in relation to employment or work that involves any of the following activities:

(a) participation in a dramatic performance or other entertainment in a role in which a person with a particular disability is required for reasons of authenticity;

(b) participation as an artist’s or photographic model in the production of a work of art, visual image or sequence of visual images for which a person with a particular disability is required for reasons of authenticity;

(c) providing people who have a particular disability with services for the purpose of promoting their welfare, if the services can most effectively be provided by a person with a similar disability;

(d) a prescribed activity.
49 Work related discrimination

(1) Section 10 (1) (b) or (2) (c), section 12 (1) (b) or (2) (c), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a), (2) (a) or (3) (b) do not make unlawful discrimination by a person (the first person) against someone else (the second person) on the ground of disability if the first person believes on reasonable grounds that, because of a disability—

(a) the second person is, or would be, unable to carry out work that is essential to the position concerned; or

(b) the second person requires, or would require, to carry out the work, services or facilities that would not be required by a person who does not have the disability and providing the services or facilities would impose unjustifiable hardship on the first person.

(2) Section 10 (1) (c) or (2) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (c) or (2) (a) or (b), section 13 (a) or (c) or section 14 (1) (b), (2) (b) or (3) (a) does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else on the ground of disability in relation to any setting by the first person of terms or conditions for the performance of work that is essential to the position concerned, if the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to either or both of the following:

(a) any limitation or restriction that the disability would or does impose on the other person’s ability to carry out that work;

(b) any services or facilities that would be or are required by the other person to carry out that work and that would not be or are not required by people who do not have such a disability.

(3) In this section:

disability does not include anything mentioned in—

(a) section 5AA (2) (b) or (c) (Meaning of disability etc); or
(b) section 7 (2) (Protected attributes), other than a disability that the person has.

50 Discrimination by qualifying bodies etc

(1) Section 16 does not make unlawful discrimination by an authority or body against a person on the ground of disability if the authority or body believes on reasonable grounds that, because of a disability, the person is, or would be, unable to carry out work that is essential to the position concerned.

(2) In this section:

disability does not include anything mentioned in—

(a) section 5AA (2) (b) or (c) (Meaning of disability etc); or

(b) section 7 (2) (Protected attributes), other than a disability that the person has.

51 Discrimination by educational institutions

(1) Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to a failure to accept a person’s application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students with a disability that the applicant does not have.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

(2) Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to a failure to accept an application by a person with a disability for admission as a student at an educational institution if the person, if so admitted, would require services or facilities that are not required by students who do not have a disability, the provision of which would impose unjustifiable hardship on the relevant educational authority.
52 Discrimination relating to access to premises

(1) Section 19 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of access to premises if—

(a) the premises are so designed or constructed as to be inaccessible to a person with a disability; and

(b) any alteration of the premises to provide such access would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person who would have to provide that access.

(2) The Minister may declare that subsection (1) does not apply to a building the construction of which begins on or after a day stated in the declaration.

(3) The declaration is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a building the construction of which begins on or after a day stated in the declaration.

(5) For this section, the construction of a building begins on the day when a building approval for the erection of the building is granted under the Building Act 2004.

53 Discrimination in the provision of goods and services

(1) Section 20 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of goods, services or facilities if—

(a) because of a person’s disability, the goods, services or facilities would have to be provided in a special way; and

(b) their provision in that way would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing, or proposing to provide, the goods, services or facilities.
(2) In this section:

services includes services provided by an employment agency.

54 Discrimination relating to accommodation

Section 21 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of accommodation to a person with a disability if special services or facilities are, or would be, required by the person and their provision would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing or proposing to provide the accommodation.

55 Discrimination by clubs

(1) Section 22 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to a club that has as its principal object the provision of benefits to people who have a particular disability.

(2) In deciding what the principal object of a club is for subsection (1), the following must be taken into account:

(a) the essential character of the club;

(b) if the people mainly enjoying the benefits of membership have the particular disability;

(c) any other relevant circumstance.

(3) Section 22 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability if the discrimination is in relation to the enjoyment of any benefit provided by a club if—

(a) because of the person’s disability, the benefit would have to be provided to the person in a special way; and

(b) the provision of the benefit in that way would impose unjustifiable hardship on the club.
56 Public health

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability if the discrimination is necessary and reasonable to protect public health.

57 Sport

(1) Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the exclusion of a person from participation in any competitive sporting activity if—

(a) the person has a disability and the activity requires physical or intellectual attributes that the person does not possess; or

(b) if the activity is conducted for, or mainly for, people who have a particular kind of disability—the person does not have a disability of that kind.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the exclusion of people from participation in—

(a) the coaching of people engaged in any sporting activity; or

(b) the umpiring or refereeing of any sporting activity; or

(c) the administration of any sporting activity; or

(d) any prescribed sporting activity.
Division 4.6 Exceptions relating to age

57A Genuine occupational qualifications—age

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to employment or work that involves any of the following activities:

(a) participation in a dramatic performance or other entertainment in a role in which a person belonging to a particular age group is required for reasons of authenticity;

(b) participation as an artist’s or photographic model in the production of a work of art, visual image or sequence of visual images for which a person belonging to a particular age group is required for reasons of authenticity;

(c) providing people belonging to a particular age group with services for the purpose of promoting their welfare, if the services can most effectively be provided by a person belonging to a particular age group.

57B Youth wages

(1) This section applies if an award provides for the payment of reduced wages to employees under 21 years old.

(2) If this section applies, section 10 (1) or (2) (a) or (b) does not make it unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of age—

(a) if the person is 21 years old or older—in relation to the offer of employment to a person under 21 years old; or

(b) if the person is under 21 years old—in relation to the payment of reduced wages to the person in accordance with the award.
(3) In this section:

award means a modern award made under the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cwlth).

57C Employment and work—health and safety

(1) Section 10 (1) (c) or (2) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (c) or (2) (a) or (b), section 13 (a) or (c) or section 14 (1) (b), (2) (b) or (3) (a) does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to employment or work, or qualifications for employment or work, if the discrimination is practised to comply with reasonable health and safety requirements relevant to the employment or work.

(2) In deciding what health and safety requirements are reasonable for subsection (1), all the relevant circumstances of the particular case must be taken into account, including the effects of the discrimination on the person discriminated against.

57E Education—minimum-age admissions

(1) Section 18 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to the admission of the person to an educational institution if the level of education or training sought is provided only for students older than a particular age.

(2) Section 18 does not make it unlawful to fail to accept an application for admission as a student at an educational institution under a mature age admission scheme, if the application is made by a person whose age is below the minimum age fixed under that scheme for admission.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.
57G Legal incapacity

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to a transaction if the person is subject to a legal incapacity because of his or her age and the incapacity is relevant to the transaction.

57J Goods, services and facilities—health and safety

1. Section 19 or section 20 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to the provision of goods, services or facilities if that discrimination is practised to comply with reasonable health and safety requirements relevant to such provision.

2. In deciding what health and safety requirements are reasonable for subsection (1), all the relevant circumstances of the particular case must be taken into account, including the effects of the discrimination on the person discriminated against.

57K Recreational tours and accommodation

Section 20 or section 21 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age in relation to the provision of a recreational tour or recreational accommodation.

57L Clubs

1. Section 20 or section 22 does not make it unlawful for a club to discriminate against a person on the ground of age if the club’s principal object is providing benefits for people belonging to a particular age group.
(2) In deciding what the principal object of a club is for subsection (1), the following must be taken into account:
(a) the essential character of the club;
(b) if the people mainly enjoying the benefits of membership belong to the particular age group stated in the club’s objects;
(c) any other relevant circumstances.

57M Sport

(1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of age by his or her exclusion from participation in any competitive sport if competition is only allowed between people belonging to a particular age group.

(2) This section does not apply in relation to the exclusion of people from participation in—
(a) coaching people doing any sporting activity; or
(b) umpiring or refereeing any sporting activity; or
(c) administering any sporting activity; or
(d) any sporting activity prescribed under the regulations.

Division 4.7 Exceptions relating to profession, trade, occupation or calling

57N Discrimination in profession, trade, occupation or calling

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the profession, trade, occupation or calling of the person in relation to any transaction if profession, trade, occupation or calling is relevant to that transaction and the discrimination is reasonable in those circumstances.
Division 4.8 Exceptions relating to employment status

57O Discrimination relating to employment status

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of employment status in relation to something mentioned in section 10 (1) (Applicants and employees) if the discrimination is reasonable, having regard to any relevant factors.

Example—relevant factors

effect of the discrimination on the person discriminated against

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

Division 4.9 Exceptions relating to immigration status

57P Discrimination relating to immigration status

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of immigration status if the discrimination is reasonable, having regard to any relevant factors.

Example—relevant factors

effect of the discrimination on the person discriminated against

(f) give evidence or produce a document or thing to the ACAT or a court in relation to this Act;

(g) reasonably assert any rights that the other person, or someone else, has under this Act;

(h) claim that a person has committed an act that is unlawful under this Act, or is an offence against the Criminal Code, section 750, other than a claim that is false and not made honestly;

(i) do anything else in accordance with this Act.

discrimination complaint means a complaint under the HRC Act about an unlawful act.

69 Unlawful advertising

It is unlawful for a person to advertise any matter—

(a) that indicates an intention to do an act that is unlawful under part 3, part 5 or this part; or

(b) that could reasonably be understood as indicating such an intention.
Part 8 General principles about unlawful acts

70 Onus of establishing exception etc
If, apart from an exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification under this Act, conduct would be an unlawful act, the onus of establishing the exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification lies on the person seeking to rely on it.

71 Unlawful act not an offence
The doing of an act is not an offence only because it is an unlawful act.

72 Unlawful act no basis for civil action
This Act does not give a person any right of action in relation to the doing of an act that is an unlawful act.

73 Aiding etc unlawful acts
A person who aids, abets, counsels or procures someone else to do an act that is an unlawful act is taken, for this Act, also to have done the act.
Part 10  Exemptions

109 Grant of exemptions

(1) The HRC may, on written application, exempt the applicant from the operation of a specified provision of part 3, part 5 or part 7.

(2) The HRC may, on a written application made—
   (a) by a person to whom an exemption has been granted; and
   (b) before expiry of that exemption;
   further exempt the applicant from the operation of the provision concerned.

(3) In the exercise of a power under subsection (1) or subsection (2), the matters to which the HRC must have regard include the following matters:
   (a) the need to promote an acceptance of, and compliance with, this Act;
   (b) the desirability, if relevant, of certain discriminatory actions being permitted for the purpose of redressing the effects of past discrimination.

(4) An exemption or further exemption—
   (a) is a notifiable instrument; and
   (b) is subject to the conditions (if any) specified in the notice; and
   (c) has effect according to its terms for the period not longer than 3 years specified in the notice.

Note  A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.
(5) If the HRC refuses to grant an exemption or a further exemption, the HRC must give the applicant or each applicant written notice of the refusal.

(6) A notice mentioned in subsection (4) or (5) is a reviewable decision notice.

110  Review by ACAT

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel’s Office.

Uncommenced amending laws are not included in the republished law. The details of these laws are underlined in the legislation history. Uncommenced expiries are underlined in the legislation history and amendment history.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
