SCHEDULE
FURTHER AMENDMENTS
Nurses (Amendment) Bill 1994

A BILL FOR
An Act to amend the Nurses Act 1988 and for related purposes

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

PART I—PRELIMINARY

Short title
5 1. This Act may be cited as the Nurses (Amendment) Act 1994.

Commencement
2. (1) Sections 1, 2 and 3 commence on the day on which this Act is notified in the Gazette.

(2) The remaining provisions commence on a day fixed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

(3) If a provision referred to in subsection (2) has not commenced before the end of the period of 6 months commencing on the day on which this Act is notified in the Gazette, that provision, by force of this subsection, commences on the first day after the end of that period.

Principal Act

3. In this Act, “Principal Act” means the Nurses Act 1988.

5 PART II—AMENDMENTS OF PRINCIPAL ACT

Interpretation

4. Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from subsection (1) the definitions of “enrolled nurse” and “registered nurse” and substituting the following definitions:

10 "‘enrolled nurse’ means a person—

(a) whose enrolment as a nurse or mothercraft nurse is effected under section 30A;

(b) who is to be deemed to be enrolled as an enrolled nurse or mothercraft nurse under this Act by virtue of section 25 of the Mutual Recognition Act; or

(c) whose enrolment as an enrolled nurse or mothercraft nurse is continued under paragraph 36 (b) of the Nurses (Amendment) Act 1994;

‘registered nurse’ means a person—

20 (a) whose registration as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife is effected under section 17;

(b) who is to be deemed to be registered under this Act as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife by virtue of section 25 of the Mutual Recognition Act; or

(c) whose registration as a general nurse, mental health nurse, midwife or infants’ nurse is continued under paragraph 36 (a) of the Nurses (Amendment) Act 1994”;

(b) by omitting from subsection (1) the definition of “enrolled person”; and

(c) by inserting in subsection (1) the following definitions:

“‘Mutual Recognition Act’ means the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 of the Commonwealth;
5 Insertion

5. After section 3 of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted in Part I:

Competence to practise nursing

"3A. For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be taken to be competent to practise nursing only if the person—

(a) has sufficient physical capacity, mental capacity and skill to practise nursing; and

(b) has sufficient communication skills for practising nursing, including an adequate command of the English language.

Impairment

"3B. (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be taken to suffer from an impairment if the person suffers from any physical or mental impairment, disability, condition or disorder which detrimentally affects, or is likely to detrimentally affect, the person’s physical or mental capacity to practise nursing.

“(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), habitual drunkenness or addiction to a deleterious drug shall be taken to be a physical or mental disorder.”.

Courses

6. Section 7 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from subsection (1) “approve” and substituting “accredit”;

(b) by omitting from subsection (1) “and hold examinations”; and

(c) by omitting from paragraph (2) (a) all the words after “training” and substituting “accredited by the Board”.

Repeal

7. Sections 8 and 9 of the Principal Act are repealed.

Substitution

8. Sections 10 to 15 (inclusive) of the Principal Act are repealed and the following Divisions and Division heading substituted:
"Division 1—Qualifications for registration

Entitlement to registration as a general nurse

"10. (1) A person is entitled to be registered as a general nurse if—

(a) the person—

(i) is a graduate of a course of education or training in general nursing offered by an Australian institution, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory; and

(ii) has graduated from that course, or has practised as a general nurse, within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application;

(b) the person—

(i) has completed a course of education or training in a place outside Australia that is substantially equivalent to a course referred to in paragraph (a) and that qualifies the person to practise nursing in that place; and

(ii) has undertaken such further education or training, gained such experience in practising nursing and passed such examinations as the Board requires; or

(c) the person—

(i) has graduated from a course referred to in subparagraph (a) (i) more than 5 years before the date of application;

(ii) has not practised as a general nurse within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application; and

(iii) has undertaken such further education or training and passed such examinations as the Board requires.

"(2) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1) (a) (ii) and (c) (ii), a person shall be taken to have practised as a general nurse within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application if the person has attended and satisfactorily completed a refresher course of education or training in general nursing, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory.

Registration as a general nurse under mutual recognition principle

"11. (1) A person who is registered as a general nurse under the law in force in a State, or another Territory, that is a participating jurisdiction within the meaning of the Mutual Recognition Act is entitled to be registered as a general nurse under this Act.

"(2) If the person’s registration in the State or other Territory is not subject to any condition or restriction, the person’s entitlement to registration under this Act is an entitlement to registration that is not subject to any condition.

"(3) If the person’s registration in the State or other Territory is subject to any condition or restriction, the person’s entitlement to registration under this Act is an entitlement to registration subject to the conditions to which that registration is subject or conditions appropriate to give effect to any restriction to which that registration is subject.

Registration as a mental health nurse or midwife

"12. (1) A person is entitled to be registered as a mental health nurse if—

15 (a) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;

(ii) is a graduate of a course of education or training in mental health nursing offered by an Australian institution, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory; and

(iii) has graduated from that course, or has practised as a general nurse or mental health nurse, within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application;

20 (b) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;

(ii) has completed a course of education or training in a place outside Australia that is substantially equivalent to a course referred to in subparagraph (a) (ii) and that qualifies the person to practise mental health nursing in that place; and

(iii) has undertaken such further education or training, gained such experience in practising mental health nursing and passed such examinations as the Board requires; or

25 (c) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;
(ii) has graduated from a course referred to in subparagraph (a) (ii) more than 5 years before the date of application;

(iii) has not practised as a general nurse or mental health nurse within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application; and

(iv) has undertaken such further education or training and passed such examinations as the Board requires.

“(2) A person is entitled to be registered as a midwife if—

(a) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;

(ii) is a graduate of a course of education or training in midwifery offered by an Australian institution, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory; and

(iii) has graduated from that course, or has practised as a general nurse or midwife, within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application;

(b) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;

(ii) has completed a course of education or training in a place outside Australia that is substantially equivalent to a course referred to in subparagraph (a) (ii) and that qualifies the person to practise as a midwife in that place; and

(iii) has undertaken such further education or training, gained such experience in practising midwifery and passed such examinations as the Board requires; or

(c) the person—

(i) is registered, or entitled to be registered, under this Act as a general nurse;

(ii) has graduated from a course referred to in subparagraph (a) (ii) more than 5 years before the date of application;

(iii) has not practised as a general nurse or midwife within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application; and
(iv) has undertaken such further education or training and passed such examinations as the Board requires.

“(3) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1) (a) (iii), (c) (iii) and (2) (a) (iii) and (c) (iii), a person shall be taken to have practised as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application if the person has attended and satisfactorily completed a refresher course of education or training in general nursing, mental health nursing or midwifery, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory.

Registration as a mental health nurse or midwife under mutual recognition principle

“13. (1) A person who is registered as a mental health nurse or midwife in a State, or another Territory, that is a participating jurisdiction within the meaning of the Mutual Recognition Act is entitled to be registered as a nurse of that kind under this Act.

“(2) If the person’s registration as a nurse of that kind in the State or other Territory is not subject to any condition or restriction, the person’s entitlement to registration as a nurse of that kind under this Act is an entitlement to registration that is not subject to any condition.

“(3) If the person’s registration as a nurse of that kind in the State or other Territory is subject to any condition or restriction, the person’s entitlement to registration as a nurse of that kind under this Act is an entitlement to registration subject to the conditions to which that registration is subject or conditions appropriate to give effect to any restriction to which that registration is subject.

Registration at discretion of Board

“14. (1) Where a person is a graduate of a course of education or training in general nursing, mental health nursing or midwifery that is not accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory, the Board may register the person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife on a temporary basis to enable him or her to—

(a) undertake a course of education or training approved by the Board; or

(b) gain experience in practising nursing.

“(2) Where a person—

(a) graduated from a course of education or training in general nursing, mental health nursing or midwifery more than 5 years before the date of application for registration; and
(b) has not practised as a nurse of that kind within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application;

the Board may register the person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife on a temporary basis to enable him or her to undertake a course of education or training approved by the Board.

"(3) The Board may register a person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife for the purpose of enabling the person to fill a teaching or research position if—

(a) the person has qualifications that the Board considers appropriate for that purpose; and

(b) the application is supported in writing by the hospital, professional association, university or other institution by which it is proposed that the person be engaged for that purpose.

"(4) The Board may register a person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife on a temporary basis if it is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so.

"(5) The Board may impose such conditions on the registration of a person under this section as it considers appropriate.

Interim registration

"15. (1) An applicant for registration as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife may be granted interim registration where—

(a) the applicant is entitled to registration as such a nurse under section 10 or 12 but it is not practicable to wait until the Board can consider the application; or

(b) the applicant would be entitled to registration as such a nurse under section 10 or 12 except for the fact that a degree or award to which the applicant is entitled has not yet been conferred or granted by the institution concerned.

"(2) A person authorised by the Board for the purposes of this section may, on payment of the determined fee, grant an applicant for registration interim registration in accordance with this section.

"(3) Interim registration granted to a person under this section remains in force from the time at which it is granted until the person is given notice in writing that the Board has—

(a) granted him or her registration;

(b) refused his or her application for registration; or

(c) cancelled the interim registration.
"(4) The Board may cancel a person’s interim registration for any reason that it considers proper and shall immediately give the person notice in writing of the cancellation.

"(5) A person who holds interim registration is for all purposes to be taken to be a registered.

Conditions of registration in cases of impairment

"15A. (1) The Board may impose conditions on a person’s registration as a registered nurse if the Board is satisfied that the person suffers from an impairment and the conditions are reasonably required having regard to the impairment.

"(2) Where conditions have been imposed on a person’s registration under this section (including conditions imposed on a review under this section), the Board may, if so requested by the person, review the conditions and, if satisfied—

(a) that the person no longer suffers from the impairment; or

(b) that the impairment has lessened;

the Board may alter or remove the conditions or impose new conditions.

Refusal of registration where applicant convicted of offence

"15B. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Board may refuse an application for registration if—

(a) the applicant has been convicted in the Territory of an offence or has been convicted outside the Territory by a court for or in respect of an act or omission that would, had it taken place in the Territory, have constituted an offence; and

(b) the Board is of the opinion that the conviction renders the person unfit in the public interest to practise nursing.

"(2) The Board shall have regard to the nature of an offence and the circumstances in which it was committed in making a decision under subsection (1).

"(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to registration pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

Refusal of registration where applicant deregistered under foreign law

"15C. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Board may refuse an application for registration if the applicant’s name has been removed from a foreign register of nurses for any reason relating to conduct of the person as a nurse or on any basis relating to the person's physical or mental capacity to practise nursing.

"(2) A person's name shall be taken to have been removed from a foreign register of nurses if it is removed from any register or roll established or kept under any law of a State, another Territory or a place outside Australia providing for the registration, enrolment or licensing of nurses or the authorisation of persons to practise nursing.

"(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to registration pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

Applicants to be competent and of good character

"15D. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Board shall not register a person as a general nurse unless satisfied that the person is competent to practise nursing and is of good character.

"(2) Subject to subsection (4), the Board shall not register a person as a mental health nurse or midwife unless satisfied that the person is competent to practise as a nurse of that kind and is of good character.

"(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to registration as a general nurse pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act seeking registration as a general nurse.

"(4) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to registration as a mental health nurse or midwife pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act seeking registration as such a nurse.

Restriction on registration of deregistered or suspended persons

"15E. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the registration of a person under this Act has been cancelled (otherwise than under section 26A or subsection 26E (2)) or suspended (otherwise than under subsection 40 (2)) the person may not apply for re-registration or termination of the suspension, as the case may be, otherwise than under section 42.

"(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to be re-registered pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.
"Division 2—Registration procedure"

Applications for registration

"15F. (1) This section applies to an application for registration as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife, other than an application by a person who is entitled to registration as such a nurse pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who lodges with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

"(2) An application for registration to which this section applies shall—
(a) be in a form approved by the Board; and
(b) be accompanied by the determined fee.

Applications to be considered and determined

"15G. The Board shall consider each application under section 15F and—
(a) register the applicant in accordance with section 17 unconditionally or subject to conditions; or
(b) refuse the application.

Registration of applicants

"15H. Where a person who is applying for registration as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife, otherwise than under the Mutual Recognition Act—
(a) complies with section 15F;
(b) appears personally before the Board or a nominee of the Board in support of his or her application if required by the Board to do so; and
(c) is entitled to registration as such a nurse in accordance with this Act;

the Board shall, subject to this Act, register the person as such a nurse in accordance with section 17.

Fee for registration pursuant to Mutual Recognition Act

"15J. A person who applies for registration under this Act pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act shall pay the determined fee.

Conditions of registration

"15K. The conditions that the Board may impose on the registration of a person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife at the time of registration include conditions relating to the duration of registration, the aspects of practise in which the person may be engaged and conditions relating to any other matters the Board considers appropriate.

"Division 3—Register of Nurses".

Register

9. Section 16 of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end the following subsection:

"(2) The Register may be maintained by electronic means.".

Substitution

10. Section 17 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted:

Particulars to be entered in Register

"17. The registration of a person as a general nurse, mental health nurse or midwife shall be effected—

(a) in the case of a person who is not currently registered under this Act—by entering in the Register—

(i) the name of the person;

(ii) the person’s professional address in the Territory or, if he or she has no professional address in the Territory, his or her place of residence, whether within or outside the Territory;

(iii) the branch of nursing in which the person is being registered;

(iv) the qualifications of the person relevant to practising that branch of nursing;

(v) the course of education or training undertaken by the person in that branch of nursing;

(vi) any condition to which the person’s registration in that branch of nursing is subject;

(vii) the registration number allotted to the person;

(viii) the date of registration in that branch of nursing;

(ix) the provision by virtue of which the person is entitled to be registered in that branch of nursing; and

(x) such other particulars (if any) as are prescribed; or
(b) in the case of a person who is currently registered under this Act—

by adding to the particulars entered in the Register in relation to the person—

(i) the additional branch of nursing in which the person is being registered;

(ii) the qualifications of the person relevant to practising that branch of nursing;

(iii) the course of education or training undertaken by the person in that branch of nursing;

(iv) any condition to which the person’s registration in that branch of nursing is subject;

(v) the date of registration in that branch of nursing;

(vi) the provision by virtue of which the person is entitled to be registered in that branch of nursing; and

(vii) such other particulars (if any) as are prescribed.

Certificate of registration

11. Section 18 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after subsection (1) the following subsection:

“(1A) A certificate of registration shall state the provision by virtue of which the person specified in the certificate is entitled to be registered and set out any conditions to which his or her registration is subject.”; and

(b) by omitting subsections (4), (5) and (6) and substituting the following subsections:

“(4) Where—

(a) a person ceases to be registered; or

(b) the registration of a person is suspended;

the Board may, by notice in writing given to the person, require the person to deliver his or her certificate of registration to the Board within 14 days.

“(5) Where a person whose registration has been suspended delivers his or her certificate of registration to the Board, the Board shall retain the certificate during the period of the suspension and return it to the person at the expiration of that period unless the person’s registration has sooner been cancelled.
“(6) Where, after a certificate of registration has been issued to a person—

(a) conditions are imposed on the registration of the person; or

(b) conditions imposed on the registration of the person are varied;

the Board may, by notice in writing given to the person, require the person to deliver his or her certificate of registration to the Board within 14 days to enable a statement of the conditions imposed, or the conditions as varied, to be endorsed on the certificate.

Penalty: $500.”.

Repeal

12. Sections 19 to 24 (inclusive) of the Principal Act are repealed.

Change of address

13. Section 25 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from paragraph (a) “entered in the Register under section 22” and substituting “shown in the Register”; and

(b) by omitting the penalty provision and substituting the following penalty provision:

“Penalty: $500.”.

Alteration of Register

14. Section 26 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (1) “ceased to be registered” and substituting “whose registration has been cancelled”.

Insertion

15. After section 26 of the Principal Act the following sections and Division are inserted in Part IV:

Deregistration on basis of deregistration under foreign law

“26A. (1) Where the Board is satisfied that the name of a person who is registered under this Act has been removed from a register kept under a law of a State or another Territory for any reason relating to—

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel—also accessible at www.legislation.act.gov.au
(a) conduct of the person as a nurse; or
(b) the physical or mental capacity of the person to practise nursing;
the Board shall cancel the registration of the person.

“(2) Where—

(a) the name of a person whose registration has been cancelled under subsection (1) is restored to the register referred to in that subsection; and
(b) the person applies to the Board to be re-registered under this Act;
the Board shall re-register the person.

“(3) Where the Board is satisfied that the name of a person who is registered under this Act has been removed from any register or roll kept under a law of a place outside Australia for any reason relating to—

(a) conduct of the person as a nurse; or
(b) the physical or mental capacity of the person to practise nursing;
the Board may cancel the registration of the person.

“(4) The Board may re-register a person whose registration has been cancelled under subsection (3) if the Board is satisfied that it is appropriate in the circumstances to do so.

Imposition of conditions imposed under foreign law

26B. (1) Where the Board is satisfied that after a person has been registered under this Act a condition has been imposed on the registration of the person as a nurse under a law of a State or another Territory, the Board shall impose a similar condition on the registration of the person under this Act.

(2) Where the Board is satisfied that after a person has been registered under this Act a condition has been imposed on the registration or enrolment of the person as a nurse under a law of a place outside Australia, the Board may impose a similar condition on the registration of the person under this Act.

Cessation of registration

26C. (1) A person who is registered as a general nurse ceases to be so registered—

(a) when the Board gives the person notice that his or her registration as a general nurse has been cancelled in accordance with this Act;
(b) if the registration is conditional and the period of registration is specified in a condition—when that period expires.

"(2) A person who is registered as a mental health nurse or midwife ceases to be so registered—

(a) when the Board gives the person notice that his or her registration as such a nurse, or as a general nurse, has been cancelled in accordance with this Act; or

(b) if the registration is conditional and the period of registration is specified in a condition—when that period expires.

"Division 4—Annual fees

Annual fee payable

"26D. (1) A registered nurse shall, on or before 1 April in each year, pay the Territory the determined fee.

"(2) The Board shall cause to be sent to each registered nurse, not less than 1 month before 1 April in each year, a notice requiring him or her to comply with subsection (1).

"(3) The liability of a registered nurse for a fee payable by him or her under subsection (1) is not affected by a failure of the Board to comply with subsection (2).

Registration to be cancelled for non-payment

"26E. (1) Where a registered nurse does not comply with subsection 26D (1), the Board shall cause to be sent to the nurse a notice requiring him or her to pay the fee due under that subsection by a day specified in the notice and advising him or her that if the fee is not paid on or before that day his or her registration will be cancelled.

"(2) The Board shall cancel the registration of a nurse to whom a notice has been sent under subsection (1) and who has not paid the fee due by the day specified in the notice.

Entitlement to re-registration if fee paid

"26F. (1) A person whose name has been removed from the Register for failure to pay an annual fee is entitled to be re-registered if he or she—

(a) makes application in a form approved by the Board; and

(b) pays the determined fee.

"(2) The entitlement of a person to re-registration under this section is an entitlement to registration on the same terms and subject to the same conditions (if any) as applied to the person’s registration immediately before the removal of his or her name from the Register.
“(3) The Board may refuse to re-register a person under this section if it is satisfied that the person is not competent to practise nursing or is not of good character.

“(4) An entitlement to re-registration under this section is subject to the provisions of this Act pursuant to which a person’s name is authorised or required to be removed from the Register.”.

Substitution

16. Sections 27, 28 and 29 of the Principal Act are repealed and the following Divisions and Division heading substituted:

“Division 1—Qualifications for enrolment

Entitlement to enrolment as an enrolled nurse

“27. (1) A person is entitled to be enrolled as a nurse, other than a mothercraft nurse, if—

(a) the person is a graduate of a course of education or training offered by an Australian institution, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory for the training of persons to be enrolled nurses; or

(b) the person—

(i) has completed a course of education or training in a place outside Australia that is substantially equivalent to a course referred to in paragraph (a) and that qualifies the person to practise nursing in that place; and

(ii) has undertaken such further education or training, gained such experience in practising nursing and passed such examinations as the Board requires.

“(2) A person is entitled to be enrolled as a mothercraft nurse if—

(a) the person is a graduate of a course of education or training offered by an Australian institution, being a course that is accredited by the Board or approved by a registration authority of a State or another Territory for the training of persons to be mothercraft nurses; or

(b) the person—

(i) has completed a course of education or training in a place outside Australia that is substantially equivalent to a course referred to in paragraph (a) and that qualifies the person to practise mothercraft nursing in that place; and
(ii) has undertaken such further education or training, gained such experience in practising nursing and passed such examinations as the Board requires.

Enrolment as an enrolled nurse under mutual recognition principle

"28. (1) A person who is an enrolled nurse under the law in force in a State, or another Territory, that is a participating jurisdiction within the meaning of the Mutual Recognition Act is entitled to be enrolled as a nurse or mothercraft nurse under this Act.

(2) If the person's enrolment in the State or other Territory is not subject to any condition or restriction, the person's entitlement to enrolment under this Act is an entitlement to enrolment that is not subject to any condition.

(3) If the person's enrolment in the State or other Territory is subject to any condition or restriction, the person's entitlement to enrolment under this Act is an entitlement to enrolment subject to the conditions to which that enrolment is subject or conditions appropriate to give effect to any restriction to which that enrolment is subject.

Interim enrolment

"29. (1) An applicant for enrolment as a nurse or mothercraft nurse may be granted interim enrolment where—

(a) the applicant is entitled to enrolment as such a nurse under section 27 but it is not practicable to wait until the Board can consider the application; or

(b) the applicant would be entitled to enrolment as such a nurse under section 27 except for the fact that a certificate or award to which the applicant is entitled has not yet been conferred or granted by the institution concerned.

(2) A person authorised by the Board for the purposes of this section may, on payment of the determined fee, grant an applicant for enrolment interim enrolment in accordance with this section.

(3) Interim enrolment remains in force from the time at which it is granted until the person is given notice in writing that the Board has—

(a) granted him or her enrolment;

(b) refused his or her application for enrolment; or

(c) cancelled the interim enrolment.
“(4) The Board may cancel a person’s interim enrolment for any reason it considers proper and shall immediately give the person notice in writing of the cancellation.

“(5) A person who holds interim enrolment is for all purposes to be taken to be an enrolled nurse.

Conditions of enrolment in cases of impairment

“29A. (1) The Board may impose conditions on the enrolment of a person as an enrolled nurse if the Board is satisfied that the person suffers from an impairment and the conditions are reasonably required having regard to the impairment.

“(2) Where conditions have been imposed on a person’s enrolment under this section (including conditions imposed on a review under this section), the Board may, if so requested by the person, review the conditions and, if satisfied—

(a) that the person no longer suffers from the impairment; or
(b) that the impairment has lessened;

the Board may alter or remove the conditions or impose new conditions.

Refusal of enrolment where applicant convicted of offence

“29B. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Board may refuse an application for enrolment if—

(a) the applicant has been convicted in the Territory of an offence or has been convicted outside the Territory by a court for or in respect of an act or omission that would, had it taken place in the Territory, have constituted an offence; and

(b) the Board is of the opinion that the conviction renders the person unfit in the public interest to practise nursing as an enrolled nurse.

“(2) The Board shall have regard to the nature of an offence and the circumstances in which it was committed in making a decision under subsection (1).

“(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to enrolment pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

Refusal of enrolment where applicant removed from roll under foreign law “29C. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Board may refuse an application for enrolment if the applicant’s name has been removed from a foreign roll of nurses for any reason relating to conduct of the person as a... nurse or on any basis relating to the person's physical or mental capacity to practise nursing.

“(2) A person's name shall be taken to have been removed from a foreign roll of nurses if it is removed from any roll or register established or kept under a law of a State, another Territory or a place outside Australia providing for the enrolment, registration or licensing of nurses or the authorisation of persons to practise nursing.

“(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to enrolment pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

Applicants to be competent and of good character

“29D. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall not enrol a person as an enrolled nurse unless satisfied that the person is competent to practise as an enrolled nurse and is of good character.

“(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who is entitled to enrolment as an enrolled nurse pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act seeking enrolment as such a nurse.

Restriction on enrolment of persons removed from roll or whose enrolment has been suspended “29E. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the enrolment of a person under this Act has been cancelled (otherwise than under section 37A or subsection 37E (2)) or suspended (otherwise than under subsection 40 (2)) the person may not apply for re-enrolment or termination of the suspension, as the case may be, otherwise than under section 42.

“(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who is entitled to be re-enrolled pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who has lodged with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

“Division 2—Enrolment procedure

Applications for enrolment

“29F. (1) This section applies to an application for enrolment as a nurse or mothercraft nurse, other than an application by a person who is entitled to enrolment as such a nurse pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act and who lodges with the Board a notice under section 19 of that Act.

“(2) An application for enrolment to which this section applies shall—

(a) be in a form approved by the Board; and

(b) be accompanied by the determined fee.
Applications to be considered and determined

"29G. The Board shall consider each application under section 29F and—

(a) enrol the applicant in accordance with section 30A unconditionally' or subject to conditions; or

(b) refuse the application.

Enrolment of applicants

"29H. Where a person who is applying for enrolment as a nurse or mothercraft nurse otherwise than under the Mutual Recognition Act—

(a) complies with section 29F;

(b) appears personally before the Board or a nominee of the Board in support of his or her application if required by the Board to do so; and

(c) is entitled to enrolment;

the Board shall, subject to this Act, enrol the person as such a nurse in accordance with section 30A.

Fee for enrolment pursuant to Mutual Recognition Act

"29J. A person who applies for enrolment under this Act pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act shall pay the determined fee.

Conditions of enrolment

"29K. The conditions that the Board may impose on the enrolment of a person as an enrolled nurse at the time of enrolment include conditions relating to the duration of enrolment, the aspects of practice in which the person may be engaged and conditions relating to any other matters the Board considers appropriate.

"Division 3—Roll of Enrolled Nurses".

Roll

17. Section 30 of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end the following subsection:

"(2) The Roll may be maintained by electronic means."

Insertion

18. After section 30 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:
Particulars to be entered in Roll

"30A. The enrolment of a person as a nurse or mothercraft nurse shall be effected—

(a) in the case of a person who is not presently enrolled under this Act—by entering in the Roll—

(i) the name of the person;
(ii) the person's professional address in the Territory or, if he or she has no professional address in the Territory, his or her place of residence, whether within or outside the Territory;
(iii) the branch of nursing in which the person is being enrolled;
(iv) the qualifications of the person relevant to practising that branch of nursing;
(v) the course of education or training undertaken by the person in that branch of nursing;
(vi) any condition to which the person's enrolment in that branch of nursing is subject;
(vii) the enrolment number allotted to the person;
(viii) the date of enrolment in that branch of nursing;
(ix) the provision by virtue of which the person is entitled to be enrolled in that branch of nursing; and
(x) such other particulars (if any) as are prescribed; or

(b) in the case of a person who is currently enrolled under this Act—by adding to the particulars entered in the Roll in relation to that person—

(i) the additional branch of nursing in which the person is being enrolled;
(ii) the qualifications of that person relevant to practising that branch of nursing;
(iii) the course of education or training undertaken by the person in that branch of nursing;
(iv) any condition to which the person's enrolment in that branch of nursing is subject;
(v) the date of enrolment in that branch of nursing;
(vi) the provision by virtue of which the person is entitled to be enrolled in that branch of nursing; and

(vii) such other particulars (if any) as are prescribed.”.

Certificate of enrolment

19. Section 31 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after subsection (1) the following subsection:

“(1A) A certificate of enrolment shall state the provision by virtue of which the person specified in the certificate is entitled to be enrolled and set out any condition to which his or her enrolment is subject.”; and

(b) by omitting subsections (3), (4) and (5) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) Where—

(a) a person ceases to be enrolled; or

(b) the enrolment of a person is suspended;

the Board may, by notice in writing given to the person, require the person to deliver his or her certificate of enrolment to the Board within 14 days.

“(4) Where a person whose enrolment has been suspended delivers his or her certificate of enrolment to the Board, the Board shall retain the certificate during the period of the suspension and return it to the person at the expiration of that period unless the person’s enrolment has sooner been cancelled.

“(5) Where, after a certificate of enrolment has been issued to a person—

(a) conditions are imposed on the enrolment of the person; or

(b) conditions imposed on the enrolment of the person are varied;

the Board may, by notice in writing given to the person, require the person to deliver his or her certificate of enrolment to the Board within 14 days to enable a statement of the conditions imposed, or the conditions as varied, to be endorsed on the certificate.

Penalty: $500.”.

Repeal

20. Sections 32 to 35 (inclusive) of the Principal Act are repealed.

Change of address

21. Section 36 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from paragraph (a) “entered in the Roll under section 33” and substituting “shown in the Roll”; and

(b) by omitting the penalty provision and substituting the following penalty provision:

“Penalty: $500.”.

Alteration of Roll

22. Section 37 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (1) “ceased to be enrolled” and substituting “whose enrolment has been cancelled”.

Insertion

23. After section 37 of the Principal Act the following sections and Division are inserted in Part V:

20 Removal from Roll on basis of removal from roll under foreign law

“37A. (1) Where the Board is satisfied that the name of a person who is enrolled under this Act has been removed from any roll or register kept under a law of a State or another Territory for any reason relating to—

(a) conduct of the person as a nurse; or

(b) the physical or mental capacity of the person to practise nursing;

the Board shall cancel the enrolment of the person.

“(2) Where—

(a) the name of a person whose enrolment has been cancelled under subsection (1) is restored to the roll or register referred to in that subsection; and

(b) the person applies to the Board to be re-enrolled under this Act;

the Board shall re-enrol the person.
“(3) Where the Board is satisfied that the name of a person who is enrolled under this Act has been removed from any roll or register kept under a law of a place outside Australia for any reason relating to—
(a) conduct of the person as a nurse; or
(b) the physical or mental capacity of the person to practise nursing;
the Board may cancel the enrolment of the person.

“(4) The Board may re-enrol a person whose enrolment has been cancelled under subsection (3) if the Board is satisfied that it is appropriate in the circumstances to do so.

10 Imposition of conditions imposed under foreign law

“37B. (1) Where the Board is satisfied that after a person has been enrolled under this Act a condition has been imposed on the enrolment of the person as a nurse under a law of a State or another Territory, the Board shall impose a similar condition on the enrolment of the person under this Act.

“(2) Where the Board is satisfied that after a person has been enrolled under this Act a condition has been imposed on the enrolment or registration of the person as a nurse under a law of a place outside Australia, the Board may impose a similar condition on the enrolment of the person under this Act.

20 Cessation of enrolment

“37C. A person who is enrolled as an enrolled nurse or a mothercraft nurse ceases to be so enrolled—
(a) when the Board gives the person notice that his or her enrolment as such a nurse has been cancelled in accordance with this Act; or
(b) if the enrolment is conditional and the period of enrolment is specified in the condition—when that period expires.

“Division 4—Annual fees

Annual fee payable

“37D. (1) An enrolled nurse shall, on or before 1 April in each year, pay the Territory the prescribed fee.

“(2) The Board shall cause to be sent to each enrolled nurse, not less than 1 month before 1 April in each year, a notice requiring him or her to comply with subsection (1).

“(3) The liability of an enrolled nurse for a fee payable by him or her under subsection (1) is not affected by a failure of the Board to comply with subsection (2).
Enrolment to be cancelled for non-payment

"37E. (1) Where an enrolled nurse does not comply with subsection 37D (1), the Board shall cause to be sent to the nurse a notice requiring him or her to pay the fee due under that subsection by a day specified in the notice and advising him or her that if the fee is not paid on or before that day his or her enrolment will be cancelled.

"(2) The Board shall cancel the enrolment of an enrolled nurse to whom a notice has been sent under subsection (1) and who has not paid the fee due by the day specified in the notice.

Entitlement to re-enrolment if fee paid

"37F. (1) A person whose name has been removed from the Roll for failure to pay an annual fee is entitled to be re-enrolled if he or she—

(a) makes application in a form approved by the Board; and
(b) pays the determined fee.

"(2) The entitlement of a person to re-enrolment under this section is an entitlement to re-enrolment on the same terms and subject to the same conditions (if any) as applied to the person’s enrolment immediately before the removal of his or her name from the Roll.

"(3) The Board may refuse to re-enrol a person under this section if it is satisfied that the person is not competent to practise nursing or is not of good character.

"(4) An entitlement to re-enrolment under this section is subject to the provisions of this Act pursuant to which a person’s name is authorised or required to be removed from the Roll.”.

Substitution

24. Sections 38 and 39 of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections substituted:

Cancellation or suspension of registration or enrolment

"38. The Board may—

(a) cancel the registration or enrolment of a person; or
(b) by order served on the person, suspend the registration or enrolment of the person for such period as the Board thinks fit; if satisfied—

(c) that the registration or enrolment of the person was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;
(d) that the nursing qualification of the person has been withdrawn or cancelled by the body which granted it;

(e) that the person has contravened this Act or the regulations;

(f) that the person has contravened a condition to which his or her registration or enrolment under this Act is subject;

(g) that the person has been convicted in the Territory or elsewhere of an offence punishable by imprisonment for more than 1 year or any offence that, in the opinion of the Board, renders him or her unfit to practise as a nurse;

(h) that the person has engaged in canvassing, or employed an agent or canvasser, for the purpose of procuring patients or practice;

(i) that the person is guilty of habitual drunkenness or addiction to a deleterious drug that renders him or her unfit to practise as a nurse;

(j) that the person has engaged in conduct, whether in practising nursing or not, that adversely affects practising nursing by the person;

(m) that the person has engaged in any improper or unethical conduct relating to the practice of nursing;

(n) that the person has failed to exercise adequate judgment or care in practising nursing; or

(p) that the person is not competent to practise nursing.

Cancellation, suspension or restriction of right of practice on health grounds

"39. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall, when it is satisfied that the mental or physical condition of a person who is registered or enrolled as a nurse renders him or her unfit to practise as a nurse—

(a) cancel the registration or enrolment of the person; or

(b) by order served on the person, suspend the registration of the person for such period as the Board thinks fit.

"(2) The Board may, instead of cancelling or suspending the registration or enrolment of a person, where it is satisfied that the person is fit to give or perform some nursing services and that it would not be contrary to the public interest to make an order under this subsection, by order served on the person direct the person not to give or perform the nursing services specified, whether individually or otherwise, in the order.

"(3) Where the Board has made an order under subsection (2) in relation to a person, it may, if so requested by the person, review the order.
and, if satisfied that the mental or physical condition of the person has changed since the order was made, amend or revoke the order.

“(4) A person on whom an order under subsection (2) has been served who gives or performs a nursing service in contravention of that order shall, in giving or performing the service, be deemed to be a person other than a registered nurse or an enrolled nurse.

Practising when registration or enrolment suspended

“39A. Where a person whose registration or enrolment as a nurse has been suspended is convicted of an offence against section 43, 44 or 45, the Board may—

(a) cancel the registration or enrolment of the person; or

(b) by order served on the person, suspend the registration or enrolment of the person for such further period as the Board thinks fit.

Power of Board to caution, reprimand etc.

“39B. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board may do any 1 or more of the following in relation to the conduct of a registered nurse or an enrolled nurse:

(a) caution or reprimand the nurse;

(b) order that the nurse seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;

(c) impose on the nurse’s registration or enrolment such conditions relating to practising nursing as the Board considers appropriate;

(d) order that the nurse seek and follow advice, in relation to the management of his or her nursing practice, from persons specified by the Board;

(e) order that the nurse complete specified educational courses.

“(2) Paragraph (1) (e) does not apply in relation to a nurse who obtained registration or enrolment under this Act pursuant to the Mutual Recognition Act.

Power of Board to impose fines

“39C. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Board finds that a registered nurse or an enrolled nurse has failed to comply with an order of the Board under section 39B it may, by order served on the nurse, impose on him or her a fine not exceeding $1,000.

“(2) The Board shall not impose a fine under subsection (1) in respect of conduct for which a court has already imposed a fine or other penalty.
“(3) A fine imposed under this section shall be paid to the Territory within the time specified in the order imposing the fine.

“(4) Where a nurse on whom the Board has imposed a fine under subsection (1) fails to pay the fine by the time specified in the order, the Board may—

(a) cancel the registration or enrolment of the nurse; or

(b) by order served on the nurse, suspend the registration or enrolment of the nurse for such period as the Board thinks fit.”.

Inquiry by Board

25. Section 40 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting in paragraph (1) (a) “, other than under subsection 26A (1), section 26E, subsection 37A (1) or section 37E”;

(b) by omitting paragraphs (1) (b) and (c) and substituting the following paragraphs:

“(b) making an order under subsection 39 (2); or

(c) taking any action under subsection 39B (1).”; and

(c) by omitting from subsection (2) all the words after “may” and substituting “, by order served on the person to whom the inquiry relates, suspend temporarily the registration or enrolment of the person”.

Effect of suspension

26. Section 41 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “or subsection 39 (1) or” and substituting “, subsection 39 (1), section 39A or subsection”.

Application for re-registration or re-enrolment

27. Section 42 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from subsection (1) “subsection 24 (4), 35 (4), 39 (1)” and substituting “section 26A, subsection 26E (2), section 37A or subsection 37E (2)”; and
