Public Place Names (Casey) Determination 2013 (No 1)

Disallowable Instrument DI2013-8

made under the

Public Place Names Act 1989 — section 3 (Minister to determine names)

I DETERMINE the names of the public places that are Territory land as specified in the attached schedule and as indicated on the associated plan.

Alan Traves
Delegate of the Minister
6 February 2013
SCHEDULE

Public Place Names (Casey) Determination 2013 (No 1)

Division of Casey: diplomats, public servants and administrators
District of Gungahlin: Gungahlin pioneers and homesteads

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME</th>
<th>ORIGIN</th>
<th>SIGNIFICANCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bentley Place</td>
<td>Mavis Mary Bentley BEM</td>
<td>Served in various military hospitals in New South Wales and New Guinea with the Australian Army Medical Women’s Service 1942-47. In 1947 she was appointed by the Repatriation Commission as Supervisor of Hospital Assistants at the 113th Australian General Hospital at Concord, Sydney. She was responsible for 430 staff, mostly women; many were untrained immigrants speaking limited English. She was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Coronation Medal in 1953 and the British Empire Medal in 1972 for her service to the Repatriation General Hospital at Concord. She retired in 1976.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Dalkin Crescent    | Air Commodore Robert Nixon Dalkin DFC | Appointed Administrator of the Territory of Norfolk Island by the Governor-General Lord Casey. First former officer of the Royal Australian Air Force to occupy this post. Joined the RAAF in 1940 as aircrew. Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in 1942 for attacks on enemy aircraft at Koepang. After war service he was reappointed in 1946 and held senior staff and command appointments in Victoria, London, New South Wales, Queensland and Canberra. Retired from the RAAF as Director of Joint Plans, Department of Air to serve as Administrator of Norfolk Island from July 1968 to August 1972.
Hugh Gilchrist Street
Hugh Gilchrist OAM
(1916-2010)
Diplomat
Ambassador to Spain 1976-79; First Assistant Secretary, Legal and Treaties Division 1974-76; Ambassador to Greece 1968-72; High Commissioner to Tanganyika (later Tanzania) 1962-66. He also served overseas in Pretoria 1955-59; Jakarta 1950-52; Paris 1949-50; and London 1947-49; as well as with the Australian Military Mission Berlin October 1947 – January 1948 and the Australian Delegation to the United Nations Special Committee on the Balkans in Athens 1949.
He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1945 and retired in 1979.

Served the Australia Council's Literature Board and was inaugural Vice President of the Canberra Friends of the Australian Archaeological Institute at Athens in 1989. He wrote a 3-volume history, Australians and Greeks and was awarded an OAM in 2005.

Kingsland Parade
Sir Richard (Dick) Kingsland AO, CBE, DFC
(1916-2012)
Commonwealth public service
Retired as Secretary of the Department of Veterans’ Affairs in 1981. Career began with RAAF service 1935-48 reaching rank of Group Captain; awarded Distinguished Flying Cross for a mission in French Morocco during World War II. Manager of Sydney Airport 1948-49; airline pilot 1949-50; Regional Director of Civil Aviation for SA and NT 1950-52; Assistant Secretary, Department of Air 1952-58; First Assistant Secretary, Department of Defence 1958-63; Secretary, Department of Interior 1963-70; Chairman, Repatriation Commission 1970-81; Secretary, Repatriation Department 1970-73; Secretary, Department of Repatriation and Compensation 1973-75; Secretary, Department of Repatriation 1975-76.

Held senior voluntary positions with several organisations including the National Heart Foundation, Australian Opera, Australian Bicentennial Authority and Canberra School of Music.
Lambrick Lane

Amelia Lambrick (1864-1956)

Victorian and Commonwealth public service

Entered the Victorian public service in 1886, held various positions in the Postmaster General’s Department and the Customs Department under Victorian then Commonwealth control for 37 years. A social reformer, peace activist, hospital volunteer and women’s advocate who lectured and travelled extensively in Australia and overseas between the two World Wars.

---

Rockwood Street

Rockwood property, Gungahlin

Ginninderra home of Joseph and Mary Ann Bolton from 1871 until Mary Ann’s death in 1923, apart from 1879 to 1890 when the Boltons were licensees of the Cricketer’s Arms Hotel at Hall.

---

Rowatt Lane

Thelma May Rowatt OAM (1920-2009)

Commonwealth public service, community service

Olga Tarling was the first woman fully qualified as an air traffic control officer with the Department of Civil Aviation since World War II. Gained private pilot’s licence in 1953, attained commercial pilot’s licence in 1957 and worked as an airline co-pilot prior to qualification as an air traffic controller in 1959. Served Department of Civil Aviation in Sydney and Melbourne and Department of Transport supervising trainees. Retired from aviation in 1985. Federal vice-president of the Australian Women Pilots’ Association 1967-68 and Queensland president 1963-64 and 1978-81. Received the Nancy Bird Award (now Nancy-Bird Walton Memorial Trophy) in 1971 for the most noteworthy contribution to aviation by a woman of Australasia, and an OAM in 1980.

Entered Commonwealth public service in 1901 as a junior messenger and attained accounting qualifications. Transferred to Canberra in 1927 and held position as Assistant Secretary (Finance) of the Commonwealth Treasury from 1936. Chairman of the Commonwealth Stores Supply and Tender Board until his death in 1943. Awarded the King’s Silver Jubilee Medal in 1935. His 42 year career with Treasury included secondment to the Department of Defence 1914-18. He managed finance in support of the war effort and was appointed Loans Officer from 1924 to 1927. In 1928 he worked with Mr Justice Pike on a Commonwealth inquiry into land settlement schemes for returned soldiers.